Russia and Western Civilization Russell Bova, 2015-02-12 This volume introduces readers to an age old question that has perplexed both Russians and Westerners Is Russia the eastern flank of Europe Or is it really the heartland of another civilization In exploring this question the authors present a sweeping survey of cultural religious political and economic developments in Russia especially over the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Based on the interdisciplinary Russian studies program at Dickinson College this splendid collection will complement many curricula The text features highlight boxes and selected illustrations Each chapter ends with a glossary study questions and a reading list

Wonder Confronts Certainty Gary Saul Morson, 2023-05-16 A noted literary scholar traverses the Russian canon exploring how realists idealists and revolutionaries debated good and evil moral responsibility and freedom Since the age of Tolstoy Dostoevsky and Chekhov Russian literature has posed questions about good and evil moral responsibility and human freedom with a clarity and intensity found nowhere else In this wide ranging meditation Gary Saul Morson delineates intellectual debates that have coursed through two centuries of Russian writing as the greatest thinkers of the empire and then the Soviet Union enchanted readers with their idealism philosophical insight and revolutionary fervor Morson describes the Russian literary tradition as an argument between a radical intelligentsia that uncompromisingly followed ideology down the paths of revolution and violence and writers who probed ever more deeply into the human condition The debate concerned what Russians called the accursed questions If there is no God are good and evil merely human constructs Should we look for life's essence in ordinary or extreme conditions Are individual minds best understood in terms of an overarching theory or as Tolstoy thought by tracing the tiny alternations of consciousness Exploring apologia for bloodshed Morson adapts Mikhail Bakhtin's concept of the non alibi the idea that one cannot escape or displace responsibility for one's actions And throughout Morson isolates a characteristic theme of Russian culture how the aspiration to relieve profound suffering can lead to either heartfelt empathy or bloodthirsty tyranny What emerges is a contest between unyielding dogmatism and open minded dialogue between heady certainty and a humble sense of wonder at the world's elusive complexity a thought provoking journey into inescapable questions

Twentieth-Century Russian Poetry Katharine Hodgson, Joanne Shelton, Alexandra Smith, 2017-04-21 The canon of Russian poetry has been reshaped since the fall of the Soviet Union A multi authored study of changing cultural memory and identity this revisionary work charts Russia's shifting relationship to its own literature in the face of social upheaval Literary canon and national identity are inextricably tied together the composition of a canon being the attempt to single out those literary works that best express a nation's culture This process is of course fluid and subject to significant shifts particularly at times of epochal change This volume explores changes in the canon of twentieth century Russian poetry from the 1991 collapse of the Soviet Union to the end of Putin's second term as Russian President in 2008 In the wake of major institutional changes such as the abolition of state censorship and the introduction of a market economy the way was open for wholesale reinterpretation of twentieth century poets such as Iosif Brodskii Anna Akhmatova and Osip Mandelstam their works and their lives In the last twenty years many critics have discussed the possibility of various coexisting canons rooted in official and non official literature and suggested replacing the term Soviet literature with a new definition Russian literature of the Soviet period Contributions to this volume explore the multiple factors involved in reshaping the canon understood as a body of literary texts given exemplary or representative status as classics Among factors which may influence the composition of the canon are educational institutions competing views of scholars and critics including figures outside Russia and the self canonising activity of poets themselves Canon revision further reflects contemporary concerns with the destabilising effects of emigration and the internet and the desire to reconnect with pre revolutionary cultural traditions through a narrative of the past which foregrounds continuity Despite persistent nostalgic yearnings in some quarters for a single canon the current situation is defiantly diverse balancing both the Soviet literary tradition and the parallel contemporaneous literary worlds of the emigration and the underground Required reading for students teachers and lovers of Russian literature Twentieth Century Russian Poetry brings our understanding of post Soviet Russia up to date
