Russian Police Trade Unionism Experiment Or Provocation:

Russian Police Trade Unionism Dimitry Pospelovsky, 1971 The Zubotov movement and the attempt by Sergei Zubatov head of the Moscow political police to set up independent trade unions Russian Police Trade Unionism Dmitrij V. Pospelovskij, 1971 Longman Companion to Imperial Russia, 1689-1917 David Longley, 2014-07-30 This is the first book of its kind to draw together information on the major events in Russian history from 1695 to 1917 covering the eventful period from the accession of Peter the Great to the fall of Nicholas II Not only is a vast amount of material on key events and topics brought together but the book also contains fascinating background material to convey the reality of life in the period

The Russian Revolution of 1905 Anthony J. Heywood, Jonathan D. Smele, 2013-04-03 2005 marks the centenary of Russia's first revolution an unplanned spontaneous rejection of Tsarist rule that was a response to the Bloody Sunday massacre of 9th January 1905 A wave of strikes urban uprisings peasant revolts national revolutions and mutinies swept across the Russian Empire and it proved a crucial turning point in the demise of the autocracy and the rise of a revolutionary socialism that would shape Russia Europe and the international system for the rest of the twentieth century The centenary of the Revolution has prompted scholars to review and reassess our understanding of what happened in 1905 Recent opportunities to access archives throughout the former Soviet Union are yielding new provincial perspectives as well as fresh insights into the roles of national and religious minorities and the parts played by individuals social groups political parties and institutions This text brings together some of the best of this new research and reassessment and includes thirteen chapters written by leading historians from around the world together with an introduction from Abraham Ascher Women Workers in the Soviet Interwar Economy M. Ilic, 1998-12-21 This book examines changes in official Soviet policy towards the labour protection of women workers 1917-41 Important legislative enactments are analysed In the 1920s emphasis was placed on the protection of female labour by the agencies responsible for regulating women's role in industrial production With the mass recruitment of women workers to the Soviet industrialisation drive by the early 1930s labour protection issues were often ignored as women were encouraged to play a more equal role in the production process An Introduction to Russian History Robert Auty, Dimitri Obolensky, 1976 Russia in the Nineteenth Century A. I. U. Polunov, Thomas C. Owen, L. G. Zakharova, 2015-02-12 This is a comprehensive interpretive history of Russia from the defeat of Napoleon to the eve of World War I It is the first such work by a post-Soviet Russian scholar to appear in English Drawing on the latest Russian and Western historical scholarship Alexander Polunov examines the decay of the two central institutions of tsarist Russia serfdom and autocracy Polunov explains how the major social groups the gentry merchants petty townspeople peasants and ethnic minorities reacted to the Great Reforms and why despite the emergence of a civil society and capitalist institutions a reformist evolutionary path did not become an alternative to the Revolution of 1917 He provides detailed portraits of many tsarist bureaucrats and political reformers complete with quotations from their writings to explain how the principle of autocracy although significantly weakened by the Great Reforms in mid century reasserted itself under the last two emperors Polunov stresses the relevance for Russians in the post Soviet period of issues that remained unresolved in the pre Revolutionary period such as the question of private property in land and the relationship between state regulation and private initiative in the economy Russia in the Age of Modernisation and Revolution 1881 - 1917 H.

Rogger,2014-07-30 Hans Rogger s study of Russia under the last two Tsars takes as its starting point what the Russians themselves saw as the central issue confronting their nation the relationship between state and society and its effects on politics economics and class in these critical years Jewish Liberal Politics in Tsarist Russia, 1900-14 Christoph

Gassenschmidt,1999-09-17 Contrary general perceptions concerning Russia during this era Jewish political activities continued beyond 1907 and given the political limits of Tsarist Russia transformed and modernized Jewish society to the fullest extent possible From 1900 to 1914 Jewish Liberals initiated organised and coordinated various forms of Jewish representation in Russian politics in order to achieve legal emancipation national cultural autonomy and even more important the integration of Russian Jews into a modernizing Russian society and economy Rethinking Revolutions from 1905 to 1934 Stefan Berger,Klaus Weinbauer,2022-12-13 This edited collection offers a timely and original perspective on the many upheavals and revolutions that broke out across the world during the earlytwentieth century With previous research tending to confine revolutions within national borders this book sets out to place them within a broader global sphere of thought and action The authors explore the time phase between the Russian Revolution of 1905 and the Asturian Revolution of 1934 including cases from South Africa Australia China the Middle East and Latin America Providing insights from leading scholars in the field this collection highlights the interconnectedness and transnationalism of upheavals and revolutions offering a new approach which integrates political social and cultural history Chapter 8 is available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4 0 International License via Link springer.com
