Rwanda A Country Torn Apart:

Rwanda Kari Bodnarchuk, 2000 Describes the history of Rwanda's ethnic conflict between the Hutu and Tutsi tribes and its continuing effect on the people of that country Modern Genocide Paul R. Bartrop, Steven Leonard Jacobs, 2014-12-17 This massive four volume work provides students with a close examination of 10 modern genocides enhanced by documents and introductions that provide additional historical and contemporary context for learning about and understanding these tragic events Modern Genocide The Definitive Resource and Document Collection spans nearly 1 700 pages presented in four volumes and includes more than 120 primary source documents making it ideal for high school and beginning college students studying modern genocide as part of a larger world history curriculum The coverage for each modern genocide from Herero to Darfur begins with an introductory essay that helps students conceptualize the conflict within an international context and enables them to better understand the complex role genocide has played in the modern world There are hundreds of entries on atrocities organizations individuals and other aspects of genocide each written to serve as a springboard to meaningful discussion and further research The coverage of each genocide includes an introductory overview an explanation of the causes consequences perpetrators victims and bystanders the international reaction a timeline of events an Analyze section that poses tough questions for readers to consider and provides scholarly pro and con responses to these historical conundrums and reference entries This integrated examination of genocides occurring in the modern era not only presents an unprecedented research tool on the subject but also challenges the readers to go back and examine other events historically and consequently consider important questions about human society in the present and the future

Rwandan Genocide Alexis Herr, 2018-04-19 This important reference work offers students an accessible overview of the Rwandan Genocide with more than 100 detailed articles by leading scholars on an array of topics and themes and 20 key primary source documents Tracing the history of Rwanda prior to during and after German and Belgian colonization of Rwanda through the present day this invaluable resource scrutinizes the historical events that determined how and why the Rwandan Genocide occurred and discusses the memory history and legacy of the atrocity both within and outside of Rwanda Designed to suit the needs of students both new to and advanced in the subject this reference work provides readers with a thematic overview of the Rwandan Genocide an accessible analysis of the national and international complexities that drove it and more than 100 in depth entries on topics related to the genocide Encyclopedic entries profile key perpetrators rescuers and witnesses as well as religious political and nonprofit groups which in combination with entries on judicial proceedings and the United Nations offer readers a multifaceted understanding of Rwanda the genocide and its aftermath To help learners to engage with the historical and social contexts of this atrocity the book also contains 20 curated primary source documents and six perspective essays in which scholars debate key questions regarding the genocide Historical Dictionary of Rwanda Aimable Twagilimana, 2007-10-01 Blessed with natural beauty and rich vegetation Rwanda is often called the land of a thousand hills le pays des mille collines A proud people the Banyarwanda Rwandans possess a centric view of the world believing that Imana God favors Rwanda as conveyed through the saying Imana yirirwa ahandi igataha i Rwanda God spends the day some place else but goes back home to Rwanda to sleep and the fact that Rwanda means the universe However this idyllic view of Rwanda sharply contrasts with the sad history of ethnic strife that has unfolded in the country since the 1950s the 1959 Hutu Revolution followed by years of anti Tutsi pogroms undemocratic regimes the civil war of 1990 1994 and more significantly the April July 1994 genocide against the Tutsi and Hutu who opposed the killings This new edition of Historical Dictionary of Rwanda through its chronology introductory essays appendixes maps bibliography and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on important persons places events and institutions and significant political economic social and cultural aspects provides an important reference on this central African country

The A to Z of Civil Wars in Africa Guy Arnold, 2009-09-02 Ever since the end of World War II and even more so since 1960 when 17 African colonies became independent of colonial rule the African continent has been ravaged by a series of wars These wars have ranged from liberation struggles against former colonial powers to power struggles between different factions in the aftermath of independence They have ranged from border wars between newly independent states to civil wars between ethnic groups As with many conflicts outside forces were drawn into these wars and major powers outside the continent intervened on one side or the other for a variety of reasons political ideology Cold War considerations ethnic alignments and stemming the flow of violence Whether referring to Algeria s struggle for independence from French colonial rule Nigeria s internal struggles to achieve a balanced state after the British departure the Rwandan genocide of 1994 or the current ethnic cleansing in Darfur The A to Z of Civil Wars in Africa covers all of the wars that have occurred in Africa since independence This is done through a chronology broken down by country an introductory essay a bibliography and cross referenced dictionary entries covering the wars conflicts major political and military figures child soldiers mercenaries and blood diamonds

The Churches and Ethnic Ideology in the Rwandan Crises 1900-1994 Tharcisse Gatwa, 2008-09-01 To many observers Rwanda was a colony of the White Fathers That Roman Catholic religious order created in Algiers in 1868 by Cardinal Lavignerie evangelized the country from 1900 onwards effectively becoming the state church To maintain its domination the Roman Catholic Church s hierarchy supported the theory of the so called hamite supremacy by selecting educating and establishing an elite among one of the three Rwandan social groups the Batutsi who were given the monopoly of power Frustrations and recriminations that resulted from this injustice and its accompanying exclusion of other groups from power led to the bloodshed of the uprisings of the 1959 revolution that preceded independence in 1962 Then in 1959 the Roman Catholic Church abandoned the Batutsi in favour of the Bahutu majority From 1973 to 1994 both Catholic and Protestant leaders entered into close political relations with the regime of the MRND Mouvement R evolutionnaire National pour le D veloppement which alienated them from the people of Rwanda when human rights abuses were widespread culminating in the war in 1990 and the genocide of 1994 If the church's mission remains that of teaching and evidencing love, justice and righteousness Micah 6:8 there is the need for it to recover its credibility so that it can play its part in the healing and reconciliation of the country and this can only be done through its confession and repentance of its failures and complicity in the tragedies

The A to Z of Civil Wars in Africa Guy Arnold, 2009-09-02 The A to Z of Civil Wars in Africa covers all of the wars that have occurred in Africa since independence This is done through a chronology broken down by country an introductory essay a bibliography and cross referenced dictionary entries covering the wars conflicts maj Genocide in Contemporary Children's and Young Adult Literature Jane Gangi, 2014-03-14 This book studies children's and young adult literature of genocide since 1945 considering issues of representation and using postcolonial theory to provide both literary analysis and implications for educating the young Many of the authors visited accurately and authentically portray the genocide about which they write others perpetuate stereotypes or otherwise distort demean or oversimplify In this focus on young people's literature of specific genocides Gangi profiles and critiques works on the Cambodian genocide 1975-1979 the Iraqi Kurds 1988 the Maya of Guatemala 1981-1983 Bosnia Kosovo and Srebrenica 1990s Rwanda 1994 and Darfur 2003 present In addition to critical analysis each chapter also provides historical background based on the work of prominent genocide scholars To conduct research for the book Gangi traveled to Bosnia engaged in conversation with young people from Rwanda and spoke with scholars who had traveled to or lived in Guatemala and Cambodia This book analyses the ways contemporary children typically ages ten and up are engaged in the study of genocide and addresses the ways in which child survivors who have witnessed genocide are helped by literature that mirrors their experiences

A Thousand Hills Stephen Kinzer, 2009-05-04 A Thousand Hills Rwanda's Rebirth and the Man Who Dreamed It is the story of Paul Kagame a refugee who after a generation of exile found his way home Learn about President Kagame who strives to make Rwanda the first middle income country in Africa in a single generation In this adventurous tale learn about Kagame's early fascination with Che Guevara and James Bond his years as an intelligence agent his training in Cuba and the United States the way he built his secret rebel army his bloody rebellion and his outsized ambitions for Rwanda

Memory and Justice in Post-Genocide Rwanda Timothy Longman, 2017-07-14 A critical exploration of the steps taken to promote peace reconciliation and justice in post genocide Rwanda

Industries Without Smokestacks Richard S. Newfarmer, Finn Tarp, John Page, 2018 Although manufacturing has played an important role in the growth of developing countries Africa has lagged in this industry This book argues that activities sharing the characteristics of manufacturing including tourism and ICT are beginning to play an important role in Africa offering new opportunities for growth in coming decades

The Actors in Europe's Foreign Policy Christopher Hill, 2013-01-11 Five years ago observers might have doubted that national foreign policies would continue to be of importance it seemed inevitable that collective European positions were becoming ever more common and effective Now the pendulum has swung back with a vengeance The divided European responses to the prospect of war with Iraq in 1990-91 and to the war in the Balkans have made what happens in the national capitals seem divisive. The Actors in Europe's Foreign Policy is a timely survey of the interplay between the European Union's Common Foreign and Security Policy and the long established national foreign policies of the Union's Member States. The book contains a chapter on each country in the Union as well as a chapter on the United States in its role as the thirteenth seat at the table. There is also a chapter on the European Commission whose role in the external relations of the Community steadily grew during the 1980s. This book will be invaluable for students and scholars of the European Union and of international politics. It will also be of great interest to practitioners in all countries concerned with Europe's role in international affairs.

Africa on the Move Hana Horáková, Stephanie Rudwick, Martin Schmiedl, 2020. Africa is on the move. New geopolitical constellations have prompted individuals and groups to escape war, authoritarian regimes, environmental crises and poverty. This has led to multiple migration patterns and complex mobilities of African people within and outside of Africa. This volume demonstrates that there is no unifying way to conceptualise the multiple nature of African mobilities. Some authors have conceptualised mobility on a metaphorical level while others provide analyses along spatial movement. This volume offers a vast portrayal of the diversity, innovation and richness of African mobile experiences through geographical, linguistic and socio-political domains. Providing nuanced and complex analyses offered by African Studies scholars of various disciplines, this book aims to contribute to new insights into African mobile experiences and to a repositioning of how Africa is represented globally.

Happiness Across Cultures Helaine Selin, Gareth Davey, 2012-02-28. Different cultures experience happiness differently. Traditionally, the West is considered materialistic and happiness is said to come from achievement and acquisition. The East is said to be more people-oriented where happiness is a result of deep personal interactions. Thus, poor people can be happier in the East than the West because they are not so concerned with possession and more with society. This book considers happiness and quality of life in non-Western countries and cultures. Its coverage is diverse and spans the breadth of the non-Western world, revealing unique perspectives of happiness and life quality embedded in rich cultural traditions and histories.

Inequalities and Conflicts in Modern and Contemporary African History Jan Záhorský, 2018-11-16. The book deals with historical, social, economic, political and international causes, contexts and consequences of inequalities and conflicts in Africa. In particular, the book is devoted to putting conflicts and turbulences in Ethiopia in a broader African comparative perspective. It also identifies and analyzes multiple causes of conflicts which cannot be studied only as a result of one variable. Inequalities and conflicts have a whole set of causes stemming from historically inherited as well as global, international, socio-economic, political and other contexts which cannot be analyzed separately. This book is vital for anyone who is interested in the study of African history, comparative politics and conflict in Africa.

Betrayed S. Kaplan, 2013-11-26. Betrayed takes a new approach to the subject of global poverty, one that doesn't blame the West but also doesn't rely on the West for solutions. Betrayed puts the poor themselves at center stage and shows how their entrepreneurial energies are shackled by political and social discrimination When these shackles are removed as is happening in places such as China and Vietnam the poor are able to seize opportunities and drive wealth creation Combining the latest research into poverty and state building with the author's personal observations drawn from years running businesses in the developing world Betrayed explains how leaders in the developing world can build more inclusive societies and more equitable governments thereby creating dynamic national economies and giving the poor the opportunity to accumulate the means and skills to control their own destinies This refreshing new approach will appeal to business people who are fed up with reading critiques of global poverty that see capitalism as the problem not the solution people in both the global North and South who want to see attention focused not on Western aid but on what developing countries and their citizens can do to help themselves scholars and practitioners in the development field who are looking for new practicable ideas and general readers who want accessible and engaging accounts of ordinary people struggling to overcome poverty

Rwanda's Radical Transformation Since the End of the 1994 Genocide against the Tutsi Sheriff F. Folarin, 2023-08-07 This book discusses the radical transformation of Rwanda focusing on the dynamics of its society before and after the genocide against the Tutsis in 1994 Through contextualizing the significant changes experienced by the country it throws searchlights on a number of other African states facing similar challenges The author analyses Rwanda's challenges of nationhood after the genocide the vision and will of the country's leadership its social programs and strategies for cohesion and national development the population's resilience and its growing regional influence in the twenty first century Rwandan society is here considered not only through the lens of existing literature on African politics but also through direct engagement and fieldwork with local populations scholars and policymakers In addition the book weighs in on narratives of survivors and victims of the genocide to understand and present local dispositions to current realities such as reforms development plans inclusive policies and programs and determine how Rwandans deal with historical identity issues and conflicts This book will be of interest to students scholars and researchers interested in Rwandan and African politics peace and conflict studies security strategic studies and genocide studies We Were Royal Refugees Chris Karuhije,2018-05-14 Six That was the number of people killed every minute of every hour of the day for one hundred days The dead lay there mutilated raped disfigured and dismembered They were strewn across the African countryside piled up in empty churches and thrown in the lakes and rivers Alphonse and Thacienne had their dream life They were in love they had five children and they pastored a great church in Rwanda s capital city of Kigali But in 1994 it all came to a cataclysmic end as almost one million people were slaughtered in an eruption of violence that lasted three months As Alphonse is trapped in his church fighting to stay alive Thacienne embarks on a courageous journey to get her children to safety holding hope that she will be reunited with her husband Written by one of the survivors We Were Royal Refugees is the gripping and heart wrenching true story of the horror loss forgiveness and triumph of a family in one of the worst tragedies in modern history the Rwandan genocide The Rwandan Genocide on Film Matthew Edwards,2018-07-09 The Rwandan genocide was one of the most shameful events of the 20th century Many Westerners understanding of it is based upon the Oscar winning film Hotel Rwanda and the critically acclaimed Shooting Dogs Yet how accurately do these films depict events in Rwanda in 1994 Drawing on new scholarship this collection of essays explores a variety of feature films and documentaries about the genocide to understand its expression in both Western and Rwandan cinema Interviews with filmmakers are featured including journalist Steve Bradshaw BBC s Panorama director Nick Hughes 100 Days director Lee Isaac Chung Munyurangabo and Rwandan filmmakers Eric Kabera and Kivu Ruhorahoza
