Sacred Writings Volume 2 Christianity Apocry:

Justification, Volume 2 Michael Horton, 2018-11-27 The second of a two volume project delving into the doctrine of justification Michael Horton seeks not simply to recover a clear message of its role in modern Reformed theology but also to bring a fresh discovery of the gospel in a time when contemporary debates around justification have reignited The doctrine of justification stands at the center of our systematic reflection on the meaning of salvation and grace as well as our piety mission and life together And yet within mainline Protestant and evangelical theology it s often taken for granted or left to gather dust in favor of modern concerns and self renewal Volume 2 embarks on the theologically constructive task of investigating the biblical doctrine of justification in light of contemporary exegesis Taking up the topic from a variety of theological vantage points Horton engages with contemporary debates in biblical especially Pauline scholarship Part 1 draws out The Horizon of Justification from the Old Testament narratives of Adam and Israel Part 2 defines The Achievement of Justification in the blood of Christ and seeks to lay the groundwork for understanding its extent Part 3 focuses on The Gift of Righteousness delving into a clear articulation of what justification means its mechanism and the role of works on the day of judgement Part 4 proposes a way forward for Receiving Justification and understanding faith and justification within the broader framework of union with Christ Engaging and thorough Justification shows that the doctrine of justification finds its most ecumenically significant starting point and proper habitat in unity with Christ where the greatest consensus past and present is to be found among Orthodox Roman Catholic and Protestant theologies developments within the universities beginning in the twelfth century Orthodoxy & Western Culture Jaroslav Pelikan, 2005

Jaroslav Pelikan the foremost church historian of the twentieth century is honored by this collection of essays written by his colleagues and former students in honor of his 80th birthday celebration Pelikan himself contributed an autobiographical sketch and the final lecture An Introduction to the Critical Study and Knowledge of the Holy Scriptures Thomas Hartwell Horne, 1825 The Encyclopædia Britannica: Andros-Austria , 1910 An Introduction to the Critical Study and the Knowledge of the Holy Scriptures Thomas Hartwell Horne, 1847 The Encyclopaedia Britannica , 1910 The Prayer Book Dictionary George Harford, Morley Stevenson, John Walton Tyrer, 1925 Rights and Subjectivity Roberto Buonomano, 2009-05-27

Over the course of the last century human rights have served as the pre eminent currency of neo liberal discourses and correspondingly informed the construction of the individual as a legal and political subject This has been the case notwithstanding that the fundamental paradox of individual rights as universal and inalienable attributes of human being that depend integrally upon the political and legal frameworks of the nation state for their recognition perpetually reveals the contingency and frailty of modern human rights whether in terms of their conceptualisation application or enforcement The pervasiveness of this form of subjectivity and its influence upon both national constitutions and the emergence of international legal institutions suggests the need to investigate not merely the more conventional histories of human rights as a product of post Enlightenment liberal theory and the international legal order of sovereign states but also the pre historical formation of the individual as an inherent bearer of rights In order to chart a genealogical history of the relationship between rights and subjectivity this study brings together an analysis of key doctrines and concepts such as sovereignty jurisdiction democracy natural rights and freedom and an examination of certain historical narratives the theological political model of sovereignty during the Middle Ages the development of feudal rights as dominial and individual liberties the role of the text and the concepts of public law and property in Medieval Roman and Canonical jurisprudence and the theological and humanistic philosophical discourses on natural law and personal liberty
