Sacrifice In Africa A Structuralist Appr:

A Genealogy of Violence and Religion James Bernard Murphy, 2018-04-11 Why are religious rituals symbols and rhetoric so full of images of blood sacrifice and death Why does religious fervor so often lead to Holy War Crusade and Jihad No wonder many people assume that religion tends to give rise to violence But what if it were the other way around What if violence actually gave rise to religion So argued the French literary theorist and anthropologist Rene Girard 1923 2015 Described as the Darwin of the human sciences he was elected to the French Academy in 2005 for his seminal theories of sacred violence Girard argued that religious practices function to sublimate regulate and discharge human violence in controlled rituals Where does violence come from According to Girard from the social nature of human desire itself We desire things only because others desire them so desire is inherently rivalrous leading to violent conflict But if a scapegoat can be found then this war of all against all turns into a war of all against one Social order claimed Girard stems from the unity of a lynch mob Religious rituals then serve to commemorate the primordial murder of the scapegoat What are we to make of Girards provocative claims about human desire violence scapegoat killings and religion Political philosopher James Bernard Murphy presents here a series of sharp and witty dialogues in which Girard attempts to defend his ideas against attacks by rival theorists among them Sigmund Freud William James Simone Weil Elias Canetti and Joseph de Maistre Whatever we might think of his answers Girard asks challenging unsettling questions In these illuminating and lively exchanges Girard squares off with the titans of social theory
