,2010 Women and Bullfighting Sarah Pink, 2020-07-12 This book investigates the popularity and success of contemporary women performers in bullfighting culture which has been framed by a discourse of traditionalist masculinity This examination of the changing situation of women in the bullfighting world is used to explore the ways in which gender is represented enacted and negotiated in contemporary Spain The bullfight in the 1990s is in an ambiguous position it is a traditional performance in a changing consumer society In order to survive it needs to adapt itself to a wider social context and in particular to international media coverage It is in this context that the current success of women performers is located However women performers are a contested phenomenon in the bullfighting world there is heated debate over their acceptability much of which focuses on the body Moreover the entry of women into the bullfight questions existing definitions of the sport s ritual structure and of gender relations in Spain Thoroughly researched and compelling to read Women and Bullfighting addresses these issues and argues that existing traditionalist approaches to gender bullfighting and ritual in Spain need to be revised in order to locate women bullfighters in the context of a richly varied culture which is increasingly affected by the media and contemporary patterns of consumption This provocative book will be of interest to researchers and students of anthropology gender studies sociology cultural studies media studies and Spanish studies Biodiversity

Monitoring and Conservation Ben Collen, Nathalie Pettorelli, Jonathan E. M. Baillie, Sarah M. Durant, 2013-02-14 As the impacts of anthropogenic activities increase in both magnitude and extent biodiversity is coming under increasing pressure Scientists and policy makers are frequently hampered by a lack of information on biological systems particularly information relating to long term trends Such information is crucial to developing an understanding as to how biodiversity may respond to global environmental change Knowledge gaps make it very difficult to develop effective policies and legislation to reduce and reverse biodiversity loss This book explores the gap between global commitments to biodiversity conservation and local action to track biodiversity change and implement conservation action High profile international political commitments to improve biodiversity conservation such as the targets set by the Convention on Biological Diversity require innovative and rapid responses from both science and policy This multi disciplinary perspective highlights barriers to conservation and offers novel solutions to evaluating trends in biodiversity at multiple scales Entangled Heritages Olaf Kaltmeier, Mario Rufer, 2016-07-01 Relying on the concept of a shared history this book argues that we can speak of a shared heritage that is common in terms of the basic grammar of heritage and articulated histories but divided alongside the basic difference between colonizers and colonized This problematic is also evident in contemporary uses of the past The last decades were crucial to the emergence of new debates subcultures new identities hidden voices and multicultural discourse as a kind of new hegemonic platform also involving concepts of heritage and or memory Thereby we can observe a proliferation of heritage agents especially beyond the scope of the nation state This volume gets beyond a container vision of heritage that seeks to construct a diachronical continuity in a given territory Instead authors point out the relational character of heritage focusing on transnational and translocal flows and interchanges of ideas concepts and practices as well as on the creation of contact zones where the meaning of heritage is negotiated and contested Exploring the relevance of the politics of heritage and the uses of memory in the consolidation of these nation states as well as in the current disputes over resistances hidden memories undermined pasts or the politics of nostalgia this book seeks to seize the local global dimensions around heritage

The Letters of Sarah Harriet Burney Sarah Harriet Burney, 1997 This scholarly edition presents for the first time all of the known surviving letters of British novelist Sarah Harriet Burney 1772 1884 The overwhelming majority of these letters more than ninety percent have never before been published Burney s accomplishments says Lorna J Clark have been unjustly overlooked She published five works of fiction between 1796 and 1839 all of which met with reasonable success including Traits of Nature 1812 which sold out within three months These letters position Burney among her fellow women writers and shed light on her relations with her publisher and her ambivalence toward her own work and her readership Her lively observation of the literary scene evinces the range and scope of her reading as well as her awareness of literary trends and developments Burney was for example remarkably prescient in recognizing and praising from the first the talent of Jane Austen and met several of the authors of her day A challenging new perspective on family matters also emerges in the letters The youngest child of the second marriage of Charles Burney and the only daughter to remain unmarried Sarah Harriet had the unenviable task of caring for her father in his later years Her letters reveal a darker side of Dr Burney and also help to round out our image of a more favored daughter Sarah Harriet s half sister and fellow novelist Frances Burney As literature Clark observes Burney s letters are arguably her best work Thoroughly versed in the epistolary arts she sought always to amuse and entertain her correspondents Burney ultimately emerges as a quiet but heroic single woman relegated to the margins of society where she struggled for independence and self respect Displaying literary qualities and a lively sense of humor the letters provide a fascinating insight into the literary political and social life of the day

Hiding in Plain Sight Erika Denise Edwards, 2020-01-28 Winner of The Association of Black Women Historians 2020 Letitia Woods Brown Award for the best book in African American Women's History and the 2021 Western Association of Women Historians Barbara Penny Kanner Award 2021 Finalist for the Harriet Tubman Book Prize 2020 Finalist Berkshire Conference of Women Historians Book Prize Details how African descended women's societal marital and sexual decisions forever reshaped the racial makeup of Argentina Argentina promotes itself as a country of European immigrants This makes it an exception to other Latin American countries which embrace a more mixed African Indian European heritage Hiding in Plain Sight Black Women the Law and the Making of a White Argentine Republic traces the origins of what some white Argentines mischaracterize as a black disappearance by delving into the intimate lives of black women and explaining how they contributed to the making of a white Argentina Erika Denise Edwards has produced the first comprehensive study in English of the history of African descendants outside of Buenos Aires in the late colonial and early republican periods with a focus on how these women sought whiteness to better their lives and that of their children Edwards argues that attempts by black women to escape the stigma of blackness by recategorizing themselves and their descendants as white began as early as the late eighteenth century challenging scholars who assert that the black population drastically declined at the end of the nineteenth century because of the whitening or modernization process She further contends that in Córdoba Argentina women of African descent such as wives mothers daughters and concubines were instrumental in shaping their own racial reclassifications and destinies This volume makes use of a wealth of sources to relate these women's choices The sources consulted include city censuses and notarial and probate records that deal with free and enslaved African descendants criminal ecclesiastical and civil court cases marriages and baptisms records and newsletters These varied sources provide information about the day to day activities of Córdoba's society and how women of African descent lived formed relationships thrived and partook in the transformation of racial identities in Argentina

Miscellanies - The Jewish Historical Society of England Jewish Historical Society of England, 1925 Sarah de Córdoba Rolande Causse, 2005 Miscellanies, 1925 "The Religious Patronage of the Duke of Lerma, 1598?621" Lisa A. Banner, 2017-07-05 Introducing fresh archival evidence author Lisa Banner here demonstrates how Francisco G de Sandoval y Rojas first Duke of Lerma served as a vital link in Habsburg architectural patronage She traces Lerma's trajectory as beginning with the ancient royal city of Valladolid he embarked on a career of renovating or building religious foundations in various towns and cities around seventeenth century Spain The unintended consequence of his architectural patronage and involvement was to proliferate the distinctive royal architectural style developed under Philip II which connected the foundations of Lerma indelibly with the traditions of noble patronage in Habsburg Spain

Bolivian Labor Immigrants' Experiences in Argentina Cynthia Pizarro, 2015-12-03 Bolivian Labor Immigrants Experiences in Argentina examines key issues regarding the structural factors that pattern the integration of Bolivian immigrants in labor markets segmented by inequalities based on class gender ethnicity race nationality and migratory and legal status The book provides ethnographic insights about the various ways in which Bolivian immigrants experience harsh living and working conditions in Argentina demonstrating that these men and women are capable of dealing with oppressive situations and of performing particular ways of resistance The book also refers to the trajectories of some Bolivians who had previously migrated to Spain and returned to Argentina after the European crisis in 2008 And it compares the south south labor migration from Bolivia to Argentina with the north north one from Tajikistan to the Russian Federation The focus on labor migrants does not lead to a reductionist economic analysis of their trajectories experiences and prospects for the future On the contrary they are studied from a holistic anthropological approach considering that migrants make sense of their territorial mobility from complex points of view anchored in their life experiences Therefore contributors consider that migration is a process that involves economic social cultural and political dimensions

Argentina Valeria Manzano,2014-04-28 This social and cultural history of Argentina s long sixties argues that the nation s younger generation was at the epicenter of a public struggle over democracy authoritarianism and revolution from the mid twentieth century through the ruthless military dictatorship that seized power in 1976 Valeria Manzano demonstrates how during this period large numbers of youths built on their history of earlier activism and pushed forward closely linked agendas of sociocultural modernization and political radicalization Focusing also on the views of adults who assessed and sometimes profited from youth culture Manzano analyzes countercultural formations including rock music sexuality student life and communal living experiences and situates them in an international context She details how while Argentines of all ages yearned for newness and change it was young people who championed the transformation of deep seated traditions of social cultural and political life The significance of youth was not lost on the leaders of the rising junta people aged sixteen to thirty accounted for 70 percent of the estimated 20 000 Argentines who were disappeared during the regime Annual Report of the Children's Aid Society Children's Aid Society (New York, N.Y.),1892 Islam and the Politics of Culture in Europe Frank Peter,Sarah Dornhof,Elena Arigita,2014-03-15 Culture is a constant reference in debates surrounding Islam in Europe Yet the notion of culture is commonly restricted to conceptual frames of multiculturalism where it relates to group identities collective ways of life and recognition This volume extends such analysis of culture by approaching it as semiotic practice which conjoins the making of subjects with the configuration of the social Examining fields such as memory literature film and Islamic art the studies in this volume explore culture as another element in the assemblage of rationalities governing European Islam From this perspective the transformations of European identities can be understood as a matter of cultural practice and politics which extend the analytical frames of political philosophy historical legacies normative orders and social dynamics
