Margin For Terror 1974:

Memory from the Margins Bridget Conley, 2019-03-13 This book asks the question what is the role of memory during a political transition Drawing on Ethiopian history transitional justice and scholarly fields concerned with memory museums and trauma the author reveals a complex picture of global transnational national and local forces as they converge in the story of the creation and continued life of one modest museum in the Ethiopian capital Addis Ababa the Red Terror Martyrs Memorial Museum It is a study from multiple margins neither the case of Ethiopia nor memorialization is central to transitional justice discourse and within Ethiopia the history of the Red Terror is sidelined in contemporary politics From these nested margins traumatic memory emerges as an ambiguous social and political force The contributions meaning and limitations of memory emerge at the point of discrete interactions between memory advocates survivor docents and visitors Memory from the margins is revealed as powerful for how it disrupts not builds new forms of community Executive

Measures, Terrorism and National Security Professor David Bonner, 2013-01-28 David Bonner presents an historical and contemporary legal analysis of UK governmental use of executive measures rather than criminal process to deal with national security threats The work examines measures of internment deportation and restriction on movement deployed in the UK and along with the imposition of collective punishment also in three emergencies forming part of its withdrawal from colonial empire Cyprus Kenya and Malaya These situations along with that of Northern Ireland are used to probe the strengths and weaknesses of ECHR supervision It is argued that a new human rights era ushered in by a more confident Court of Human Rights and a more confident national judiciary armed with the HRA 1998 has moved us towards greater judicial scrutiny of the application of these measures a move away from unfettered and unreviewable executive discretion The Northern Ireland Conflict on the Margins of History Kenneth Funston, Cillian McGrattan, 2025-05-01 Assessing the impact of paramilitary violence on border Protestants in Northern Ireland remains a critically overlooked part of the region's history Remembered through a framework of memory that blurs the boundary between victim and perpetrator existing scholarship often disempowers border Protestants by obscuring their experience under the Provisional IRA's campaign This re-examination of the conflict illuminates how the Troubles impacted the Protestant community's physical economic and cultural presence in the border counties Combining oral history with a broader assessment of the Provisional campaign this book presents a compelling case study for viewing this violence as a form of ethnic cleansing Countering Terrorism Arnold M. Howitt, Robyn L. Pangi, 2003 Ways in which federal state and local institutions should integrate their efforts to prepare for future terrorist threats

The Italian State and International Terrorism, 1969-1986 Valentine Lomellini, 2024-01-08 This book sheds light on the so called Moro Doctrine an Italian state security policy which has been portrayed in literature as an under the counter agreement made between Italy and Palestinian movement during the Cold War The Moro Doctrine or Lodo Moro as it is known in Italy aimed to protect the peninsula from Palestinian attacks by allowing terrorists to use Italian territory as a base for weapons and guerrilla fighters Responsibility for the Lodo was instrumentally placed on Aldo Moro the five time Prime Minister of Italy after his death and since then his name has become indelibly linked with the shame of having negotiated with Palestinian terrorists Thanks to records collected from over twenty archives in Italy the USA France Germany Britain and Russia concrete evidence shows that the significance of this agreement needs to be rethought The author argues that the decision to adopt the Lodo was not solely made by Moro but also involved key figures of the Christian Democrat and Socialist parties various magistrates and even the President of the Republic It illustrates how terrorism was used as an effective tool in international diplomacy to influence foreign and domestic policies Offering a re examination of Italian counter terrorist policy this book analyses how Italy responded to international terrorism during the Cold War providing a useful read for those researching Italian and European history Cold War studies the history of international relations and diplomacy and Middle East history

International Theory at the Margins Nicholas Greenwood Onuf, 2024-03-12 This book brings together thirteen essays from the celebrated international theorist Nicholas Greenwood Onuf They address topics that Onuf has puzzled over for decades prompting him to develop a distinctive perspective on international theory as social theory Among these topics are the problem of materiality in social construction epochal change in the modern world and the power of language Building on the work of giants from Aristotle and Cicero Hume and Kant to Derrida and Foucault and drawing on diverse contemporary theorists including Seyla Benhabib James Der Derian Johan Galtung Morton Kaplan Joseph Nye James Rosenau Elaine Scarry and Kenneth Waltz the book ranges over the margins of the field and settles on issues that have never been put to rest

Margins, 1975 Western Responses to Terrorism Ronald D. Crelinsten, Alex P. Schmid, 2012-11-12 This volume combines case studies of national responses to terrorism with analyses of conceptual political economic and data collection problems surrounding the control of terrorism in democratic societies over the last 25 years The Impact, Legitimacy and Effectiveness of EU

Counter-Terrorism Fiona de Londras, Josephine Doody, 2015-04-10 Counter terrorism law and policy has been prominent and widespread in the years following 9 11 touching on many areas of everyday life from policing and border control to financial transactions and internet governance The European Union is a major actor in contemporary counter terrorism including through its development of counter terrorism laws for application within the Union This book undertakes a multi disciplinary and empirically informed analysis of the impact legitimacy and effectiveness of EU counter terrorism Taking into account legal societal operational and democratic perspectives this collection connects theoretical and practical perspectives to produce an interdisciplinary and multi stakeholder study of how we might measure and understand the impact legitimacy and effectiveness of EU counter terrorism Bringing together a select group of experts in the field particular emphasis is placed on understanding the practical experience of implementing and assessing these measures gathered from and with end users including law makers policy makers security services industry partners and civil society This edited collection will be of great relevance to scholars and policy makers with an interest in counter terrorism law EU law and security studies

Modernism from the Margins Chris Wigginton, 2020-10-01 Modernism from the Margins is an accessible and challenging account of the 1930s writing of two of the most popular authors of the time Locating the work of Louis MacNeice and Dylan Thomas historically the book questions standard accounts of the period as Auden dominated and offers an inclusive and theoretical account of the engagement of both writers with the varieties of Modernism It is the first reading at length of either MacNeice s or Thomas s work in the light of literary theory and one of only a handful of texts to look at the writing of the 1930s in these terms This book is an important contribution to contemporary discussions of both of these writers and of the general issues of modernism postmodernism literary identity and cultural identity it raises Essays from the Margins

Luis N. Rivera-Pagan, 2014-11-18 These essays emerge from different crucial and complex conflicts from the memory of a bishop Bartolome de las Casas urging the pope of his time to cleanse the church of complicity with violence oppression and slavery from the lament and defiance of so many Middle Eastern women victims of male domination and too many wars from the voices bursting out from the colonial margins that dare to question and transgress the norms and laws imposed by colonizers and conquerors from the emerging and diverse theological disruptions of traditional orthodoxies and rigid dogmatisms from the denial of human rights to immigrant communities living in the shadows of opulent societies from the use of the sacred Hebrew Scriptures to displace and dispossess the indigenous peoples of Palestine The essays belong to different intellectual genres and conceptual crossroads and are thus illustrative of the dialogic imagination that the Russian intellectual Mikhail Bakhtin considered basic to any serious intellectual enterprise They are also the literary sediment of years of sharing lectures dialogues and debates in several academic institutions in the United States Mexico Argentina Chile
