Maria Deste The Second Duchess

Mrs. Jameson (Anna)

Maria Deste The Second Duchess:

Maria D'Este, the Second Duchess Jean Evans, 1978-01-01 Based on the life of Maria Beatrice d Este Princess of Modena

Memoirs of the Beauties of the Court of Charles the Second Mrs. Jameson (Anna), 1838 Poems on Affairs of State

George deF. Lord, 1963-01-01 Deep conflicts in Restoration England produced a torrent of satirical verse on the policies manners and morals of Charles II and his age Almost every poet impelled by motives ranging from venality to patriotism took his turn at satirizing the establishment These Poems on Affairs of State as they came to be known provide an inexhaustible and minute record of the times from every point of view The first volume of the Yale Edition includes the most important pieces published and unpublished dealing with events from the restoration of Charles to the outbreak of the Popist Plot in 1678 It is fully annotated and illustrated from contemporary materials George deForest Lord associate professor of English at Yale University and Master of Trumbull College is general editor of the series as well as editor of this first volume

Lucca, 2020-06-03 Throughout early modern Europe patronage became a means for the dominant classes to highlight their wealth intellectual finesse and cultural and political agendas particularly within the court and religious institutions Musical events like operas and carnival parades were an especially essential component of this patronage However the ways in which music patronage changed during the second half of the seventeenth century have largely remained underexplored At the time profound social and cultural transformations influenced the production and consumption of music in radical and permanent ways not least through the influence of the Colonna family Prince Lorenzo Onofrio Colonna and his wife Maria Mancini Two of the most active patrons of seventeenth century Italy they were particularly active in the musical life of Rome Through their sponsorship of an unprecedented number of operas serenatas and oratorios they supported the careers of the most prominent composers librettists and musicians of the period A new exploration of this period of music patronage The Politics of Princely Entertainment follows Lorenzo Onofrio and Maria beyond the borders of Rome and through their far reaching personal and institutional travels to Venice Naples and the Kingdom of Aragon Author Valeria De Lucca traces the journeys of not only scores and librettos but also the singers composers and librettists whose art reached these distant corners of Europe through the Colonna family's patronage activities The Politics of Princely Entertainment is a welcome addition to scholarly understanding of music patronage beyond traditional boundaries of gender geography and institutions

and throughout history They are part of almost any distribution chain and play an important role in the marketing of consumer goods particularly to poorer customers Focusing on the food trades this multi disciplinary volume explores the dynamics of street selling and its impact on society Through an investigation of food hawking the volume both showcases the latest results from a subject that has seen the emergence of a significant body of innovative and adventurous scholarship and advances the understanding of street vending and its impact on society by stimulating interdisciplinary and cross disciplinary discussions Covering a time span of approximately two millennia from antiquity to the present the book includes chapters on Europe and Asia and covers a diverse range of themes such as the identity of food sellers in terms of gender ethnicity and social status the role of the street seller in the distribution of food the marketing of food food traders and the establishment the representation of food hawkers and street traders and economic development By taking a dynamic approach the collection has enabled its contributors to cross disciplinary boundaries and engage in discussions which extend beyond the limits of their own academic fields and thus provide a fresh appreciation of this ancient phenomenon

The Marriage between Perfume and the Lyric Stage Mary May Robertson, 2023-09-22 But what is this scent of balmy air What this ray of light in my tomb I seem to see an angel amid a scent of roses sings Florestan in Fidelio Beethoven's only opera The role of scents smells fragrances and odours in opera has long been neglected just as how much opera and its stars have influenced the world of perfumery from the nineteenth century to the present day In the first book length study on the topic Professor Mary May Robertson explores the relationship between opera perfumes and their respective protagonists in order to map out the previously undiscussed connection between the two Through compelling close readings of librettos and rigorous research through thousands of bottles of perfume the reader will come to appreciate and recognise the influences and exchanges between operas and perfumes and their ultimate marriage in the previously unrecognised genre of Operatic Perfumes which is to say perfumes named after operas composers and their divas
