Musical Bows and Zithers along the Great Silk Road Xiao Mei,Gisa Jähnichen,2023-10-04 The musical bow is usually considered one of the earliest instruments in the history of instrumental development yet the validity of this view has not been proven In all likelihood it was one among many other early instruments created to produce sound The same can be said in general for all the simple chordophones called zithers of which the musical bow is one type The papers collected in this volume have been initially presented at the International Council for Traditional Music Colloquium ICTM held in Shanghai in December 2022 They try to challenge some previous depictions of instrumental development and one sided explanations of musical histories They specifically focus on exploring the interrelationship between instrumental development and the availability of natural resources in particular geographical regions While the papers at the colloquium focused on sound production they also explored the role of ethnomusicology as a discipline in guiding local decision making and interregional research co operation

Frank Baum,R. M. Ballantyne,Tobias Smollett,Thomas Mayne Reid,Henry De Vere Stacpoole,R. L. Stevenson,2023-12-12 The Greatest Sea Novels and Tales of All Time is a remarkable anthology that navigates the vast literary expanse of maritime fiction This collection captures the ocean

s allure through an impressive array of narratives that span genres from thrilling adventure to profound existential reflections. Seamlessly interweaving tales from both Romantic and Realist traditions, the anthology showcases works that delve into themes of survival, exploration, and the human spirit's resilience against nature's harsh forces. Stories within this volume stand out for their vivid imagery and compelling storytelling, transporting readers across tumultuous seas and into the heart of maritime life. The anthology features an illustrious assembly of authors whose diverse backgrounds and perspectives underscore the complexity of life at sea. Contributing to the discourse are stalwarts from across literary history, including Romantic pioneers, Realism architects, and representative voices of the colonial and post-colonial era. The collection echoes the significant maritime explorations and historical transformations of the times, capturing the profound implications of the sea as a source of inspiration and a symbol of the unknown. Authors like Jules Verne and Victor Hugo bring in depth knowledge and imagination, while the adventurous spirits of Robert Louis Stevenson and Jack London enliven the narratives. For those drawn to the sea's enigmatic allure, this anthology provides a rare chance to immerse oneself in the varied perspectives and styles of literary giants. Each story fosters a dialogue that traverses both local and global waters, offering invaluable insights into the cultural and historical contexts of the oceanic experience. Both educators and literary enthusiasts will find the collection an essential addition to their bookshelves, as it vividly captures the waves of human emotion and adventure bound within these classic sea tales.
