what is the rat: finding the rat from view of chinese , 2007 Rats, Cats, Rogues, and Heroes Robert J. Antony, 2023-01-09 History has many untold stories In Rats Cats Rogues and Heroes the author provides glimpses into China s hidden past through the native s point of view Rather than simply writing about ordinary people this book is written from the perspective of ordinary people how they told their own stories about themselves their communities and their pasts The author examines historical consciousness as revealed in people s everyday lives and as expressed through customary rituals sociocultural conventions language and the complex symbolism of common human experiences The focus is on ethnic groups and individuals who have been routinely discriminated against in mainstream society and treated by officials as rogues and criminals They were denizens of the underworld of rivers and lakes jianghu a sociocultural category that includes bandits sorcerers conmen and prostitutes To get at their silent history the author spent decades conducting field research in rural areas of southern China collecting rarely used unconventional sources folklore legends myths rumors and hearsay that reveal nuggets of new information and insights not found in the conventional sources in libraries and archives This book challenges many commonplace assumptions about how academics write history by offering alternative possibilities for China s past

Normal Instructor and Primary Plans , 1914 Modernist Experiments in Genre, Media, and Transatlantic Print Culture Jennifer Julia Sorensen, 2016-12-08 The years from 1890 through 1935 witnessed an explosion of print both in terms of the variety of venues for publication and in the vast circulation figures and the quantity of print forums Arguing that the formal strategies of modernist texts can only be fully understood in the context of the material forms and circuits of print culture through which they were produced and distributed Jennifer Sorensen shows how authors and publishers conceptualized the material text as an object as a body and as an ontological problem She examines works by Henry James Jean Toomer Djuna Barnes Katherine Mansfield and Virginia Woolf showing that they understood acts of reading as materially mediated encounters Sorensen draws on recent textual theory media theory archival materials and paratexts such as advertisements illustrations book designs drafts diaries dust jackets notes and frontispieces to demonstrate how these writers radically redefined literary genres and refashioned the material forms through which their literary experiments reached the public Placing the literary text at the center of inquiry while simultaneously expanding the boundaries of what counts as that Sorensen shows that modernist generic and formal experimentation was deeply engaged with specific print histories that generated competitive media ecologies of competition and hybridization Littell's Living Age ,1880 Don Quixote de la Mancha Miguel de Cervantes Saavedra,1842
