Mediterranean Country Houses:

Mediterranean Country Houses Arian Mostaedi, 2005-09 Having a country house with all the comforts of a city dwelling is a dream that many aspire to Mediterranean Country Houses is a superbly reproduced book that demonstrates how going back to the country and enjoying rural life need no longer mean giving up or compromising on the benefits the modern world of architecture has to offer It features a careful selection of conversion schemes for country houses each one in its own way a brilliant creative solution that retains respect for traditional aesthetic values Examples include a Mediterranean village house a refuge near the sea an old rectory an old mill a country hotel a painter's residence and a restructured farmhouse

The Country Houses of John F. Staub Stephen Fox, 2007 This ambitious study of Staub's work by architectural historian Stephen Fox goes beyond a description of Staub's houses Fox analyzes the roles of space structure and decoration in creating defining and maintaining social class structures and expectations and shows how Staub was able to incorporate these elements and understandings into the elegant buildings he designed for his clients In the process he contributes greatly to a fuller understanding of Houston's emergence as a premier American city BOOK JACKET

Affluence, Mobility and Second Home Ownership Chris Paris,2010-10-04 Despite the current recession the frequency of second home ownership is still surprisingly high throughout the western world While the UK and Ireland previously had lower occurrences of multiple dwellings compared to the rest of Europe they are quickly catching up with a current surge in the ownership of second homes The recent MP expenses scandal in the UK has also drawn attention to the prevalence of second homes or more within the middle classes and the fact that the concept is becoming increasingly popular Chris Paris uses this text to address the reasons behind why second homes are becoming more popular both within the usual domicile of the individuals and in international locations The socioeconomic factors and historical contexts of homes in cultures across the world are fundamental to explaining the choices in transnational home ownership and Paris case studies and comparisons between additional homes in Europe Australia America and Asia expand upon the motivation for people to own a second home Affluence Mobility and Second Home Ownership draws together debates on gentrification globalisation consumerism environmental factors and investment to provide a balanced look at the pros and cons of second home ownership and what implications it has for the future An ideal text for students studying geography urbanism and planning this book is also of interest to individuals interested in the changing ways in which we make choices on our places of residence The House of the Father As Fact and Symbol J. Corporate Risk and Governance addresses corporate risk management and governance requirements affecting large organizations in all industry sectors and countries The book strongly advocates implementation of Corporate Governance Codes ISO 31000 Risk Management ISO 22301 Business Continuity Management and PAS 200 Crisis Management but warns against treating any standard or model slavishly as if it can offer easy salvation or a simple route to a risk nirvana Alan Waring challenges many hallowed beliefs attitudes and practices that continue to hamper the delivery of effective Enterprise Risk Management ERM and thereby good governance Those boardroom and corporate cultures that are
