Civility, Compassion, and Courage in Schools Today Patricia Kohler-Evans,Candice Dowd Barnes,2015-02-13 Over the past two decades and perhaps even before the No Child Left Behind Act policy makers and others have managed to drain civility compassion and courage from everyday classroom instruction We have grown to become an educational system that is almost solely focused on academics at the expense of teaching to the whole child Civility Compassion and Courage in Schools Today argues that civility compassion and courage are absolutely essential to foster good citizenship to encourage and motivate students to action to take on the perspectives of others and to see how they can become productive members in an ever changing global community Using the authors Model of Influence a four level hierarchy they suggest that students can be taught to be more civil compassionate and courageous even when facing adversity and can move from developing a consciousness about these attributes into embracing influence and taking bold action This book provides numerous examples as well as lesson plans designed to assist all educators to infuse their instruction with these critical attributes Writing Our Communities Dave Winter,Sarah Robbins,2005 Classroom of the Future ,2010-01-01 The future of the classroom is an issue that essentially concerns many of us as students parents taxpayers policymakers teachers design professionals or researchers A glance at the history of pedagogical practice reveals however that despite rapid developments in the outside world classrooms have evolved very little over the years While our understanding of learning and favourable learning environments has substantially improved and technological innovations are offering a variety of new possibilities it still seems that most of today s schools and universities remain more or less unaffected by these developments This book brings together the perspectives of researchers architects technical designers and teachers on emerging theoretical and technological developments pertaining to the classroom of the future Innovative ideas are offered on how new technologies and learning approaches can be integrated into schools It challenges us to think of learning spaces in a new way Classroom of the Future is of interest to researchers and students designers and educators across various disciplines including education cognitive social and educational psychology didactics computer science and design as well as to parents and policymakers
