Memoirs Of A Bullfighter:

Memoirs of a Bullfighter Conchita Cintrón, 1968 !Torera! Conchita Cintrón, 1968 Double-Edged Sword Bart Paul, 2020-09 Sidney Franklin 1903-76 was the last person you'd expect to become a bullfighter. The streetwise son of a Russian Jewish cop, Sidney had an all-American boyhood in early twentieth-century Brooklyn while hiding the fact that he was gay. A violent confrontation with his father sent him packing to Mexico City where first he opened a business, then he opened his mouth bragging that Americans had the courage to become bullfighters. Training with iconic matador Rodolfo Gaona, Sidney's dare spawned a legend. Following years in small-town Mexican bullrings, he put his moxie where his mouth was, taking Spain by storm as the first American matador. Sidney's 1929 rise coincided with that of his friend Ernest Hemingway's until a bull's horn in a most inappropriate place almost ended his career and his life. Bart Paul illuminates the artistry and violence of the mysterious ritual of the bulls as he tells the story of this remarkable character from Franklin's life in revolutionary Mexico to his triumphs in Spain from the pages of Death in the Afternoon to the destructive vortex of Hemingway's affair with Martha Gellhorn during the bloody Spanish Civil War. This is the story of an unlikely hero, a gay man in the most masculine of worlds who triumphed over prejudice and adversity as he achieved what no American had ever accomplished: teaching even Hemingway lessons in grace, machismo, and respect. Death and the Sun Edward Lewine, 2014-07-15 Part sports writing, part travelogue, this is a portrait of Spain, its people, and their passion for a beautiful yet deadly spectacle. A brilliant observer in the tradition of Adam Gopnik and Paul Theroux, Edward Lewine reveals a Spain few outsiders have seen. There's nothing more Spanish than bullfighting, and nothing less like its stereotype. For matadors and aficionados, it is not a blood sport but an art, an ancient subculture steeped in ritual machismo and the feverish attentions of fans and the press. Lewine explains Spain and the art of the bulls by spending a bullfighting season traveling Spanish highways with the celebrated matador Francisco Rivera Ordóñez, following Fran as he's known through every region and social stratum. Fran's great grandfather was a famous bullfighter, and the inspiration for Hemingway's matador in The Sun Also Rises. Fran's father was also a star matador until a bull took his life shortly before Fran's eleventh birthday. Fran is blessed and haunted by his family history. Formerly a top performer himself, Fran's reputation has slipped, and as the season opens, he feels intense pressure to live up to his legacy amid tabloid scrutiny in the wake of his separation from his wife, a duchess. But Fran perseveres through an eventful season of early triumph, serious injury, and an unlikely return to glory. A New York Times Editor's Choice, Praise for Death and the Sun may be the most in-depth, incisively written guide to bullfighting available in English. Every drunken sophomore riding the rails to Pamplona this summer ought to keep a volume in his backpack. New York Times Book Review. Lewine demonstrates knowledge of and respect for the matador's dangerous profession. He also explores the history of Spain and the charms and contradictions evident within the country's exceptionally varied cultures and people. Boston Globe Yankees in the Afternoon Lyn Sherwood, 2008-05-22 This book takes the reader where only brave souls dare to compete the world of bullfighting Matadors risk serious injury or death to compete in their art one that has been a part of Spanish and Latin American culture for centuries Beginning with an introduction to bullfighting as it relates to American culture not overlooking the negative views it often attracts the book profiles 21 American matadors in detail including women bullfighters and novilleros beginners Chapters within each section are devoted to individual bullfighters A major feature of this work are the numerous action photographs many of which were taken by the author himself and impressively portray the flair skill emotion and faces of bullfighting

Memoirs of sir Claude Champion de Crespigny, ed. by G.A.B. Dewar sir Claude Champion de Crespigny (4th bart.),1896 Emotions, Senses, Spaces: Susan R. Hemer,Alison Dundon,2016-09-15 This volume draws together three core concerns for the social sciences the senses and embodiment emotions and space and place In so doing these collected essays consider the ways in which these core concerns are mutually constitutive This includes how spaces evoke constrain or are composed by the senses and emotions the ways in which emotions are generated or transformed in certain spaces and through sensual engagement and the processes by which embodied senses create spaces and emotions Tracing the Soul, Choreographing Transgression in Flamenco and Tauromaquia Miriana M. Lausic Arratia,2025-11-07 This book analyzes gesture ritual and performance in flamenco and tauromaquia the extended definition of bullfighting within the visual arts and poetry in contemporary Spain Based on the author s extensive ethnographic field research it emerges from recent critical thinking on the body in dance and performance studies The main argument is that flamenco and la corrida are a type of choreographic writing as both corporeal inscription and a field of spacing and timing bordered by death Transgression is conceived as the breaching and blurring of limits between two seemingly opposed spaces the corporeal and incorporeal the animal and human the real and the imaginary life and death Flamenco and tauromaquia incorporate and reshape cultural and historical layers of memory and sense which are marked by multiple social and political intersections This book fills a gap in the knowledge of their interconnectedness It equally contributes to resolving an epistemological crisis in dance studies to the interplay between the visible and the invisible in choreographed movements This interdisciplinary text serves scholars across fields including Dance Cultural Studies Anthropology and Iberian and Latin American Studies particularly Memoirs of Sir Claude Champion de Crespigny Sir Claude Champion De Crespigny,1897 Memoirs of Sir Claude Champion de Crespigny, Bart Sir Claude Champion de Crespigny (4th bart.),1896 Gender and Equestrian Sport Miriam Adelman,Jorge Knijnik,2013-06-20 This volume brings together studies from various disciplines of the social sciences and humanities anthropology sociology cultural studies history and literary theory that shed light on the equestrian world as a historically gendered and highly dynamic field of contemporary sport and culture From high level international dressage and jumping polo and the turf to the rodeo world of the Americas and popular forms of equestrian sport and culture we are introduced to a range of issues that are played out at local and global national and international levels Students and scholars of gender culture and sport will find much of interest in this original look at contemporary issues such as engendered women s and men s identities subjectivities as equestrians representations of girls horses and the world of adventure in juvenile fiction the current feminization of particular equestrian activities and where boys and men stand in relation to this how broad forms of social inequality and stratification play themselves out within gendered equestrian contexts men and women and their relation to horses within the framework of current discussions on the relation of animals to humans which may include not only love and care but also exploitation and violence among others Singular contributions show how equestrian activities contribute to historical and current constructions of embodied femininities and masculinities reflecting a world that has been moving beyond the binaries while continuing to be enmeshed in their persistent and contradictory legacy

It's All True Catherine L. Benamou,2007-03-14 This is an extremely rigorous thorough piece of superior scholarship on one of the most important figures in the history of cinema Benamou introduces a wealth of material on the production process and the repercussions of this project in Latin America which have been entirely missing from earlier auteur centered accounts this alone makes it a book of great importance We can t ask for a more definitive groundbreaking study than the one Benamou has given us Bill Nichols author of Maya Deren and the American Avant Garde

Xerox Contemporary High School Library Program ,1970 Memoirs of a Griffin; Or, A Cadet's First Year in India Francis John Bellew,1880 Death and Money in The Afternoon Adrian Shubert,1999-06-03 Bullfighting has long been perceived as an antiquated barbarous legacy from Spain s medieval past In fact many of that country s best poets philosophers and intellectuals have accepted the corrida as the embodiment of Spain s rejection of the modern world In his brilliant new interpretation of bullfighting Adrian Shubert maintains that this view is both the product of myth and a complete misunderstanding of the real roots of the contemporary bullfight While references to a form of bullfighting date back to the Poem of the Cid 1040 the modern bullfight did not emerge until the early 18th century And when it did emerge it was far from being an archaic remnant of the past it was a precursor of the 20th century mass leisure industry Indeed before today's multimillion dollar athletes with wide spread commercial appeal there was Francisco Romero born in 1700 whose unique form of bullfighting netted him unprecedented fame and wealth and Manuel Rodriguez Manolete hailed as Spain's greatest matador by the New York Times after a fatal goring in 1947 The bullfight was replete with promoters agents journalists and of course hugely paid bullfighters who were exploited to promote wine cigarettes and other products Shubert analyzes the business of the sport and explores the bullfighters world their social and geographic origins careers and social status Here also are surprising revelations about the sport such as the presence of women bullfighters and the larger gender issues that this provoked From the political use of bullfighting in royal and imperial pageants to the nationalistic great patriotic bullfights of the late 19th and early 20th centuries this is both a fascinating portrait of bullfighting and a vivid recreation of two centuries of Spanish history Based on extensive research and engagingly written Death and Money in the Afternoon vividly examines the evolution of Spanish culture and society through the prism of one of the West's first and perhaps its most spectacular spectator sports A Hispanic Heritage, Series III Isabel Schon, 1988 The books listed are intended to provide students in kindergarten through high school with an understanding and appreciation of the people history and art and political social and economic problems of Argentina Bolivia Chile Colombia Costa Rica Cuba Ecuador El Salvador Guatemala Honduras Mexico Nicaragua Panama Peru Puerto Rico Spain Venezuela and the Hispanic heritage people of the US Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR
