A Pictorial Autobiography Barbara Hepworth, 1970      Barbara Hepworth Barbara Hepworth, 1970 Yorkshire by birth resident of St Ives Cornwall for more than 30 years scholarship student at the Royal College of Art at the age of 16 mother of triplets Honorary Doctor of Letters of five universities Cornish bard Dame Commander of the Order of the British Empire and world famous sculptor such was Barbara Hepworth whose life always revolved around the demands of her creative work This book presents a pictorial record of her life work and writings over 40 years from her childhood years to her first marriage to the sculptor John Skeaping and her second marriage to Ben Nicholson and from figuration through geometric and organic abstraction to the internationally acclaimed grandeur of her large scale post war work Amazon.co.uk viewed December 7 2020      Lakota Warrior Joseph White Bull, 1998-01-01 With his own words and images Joseph White Bull tells of his memorable life and exploits as a Lakota warrior in the late nineteenth century The son of a Miniconjou chief and nephew of Sitting Bull of the Hunkpapas White Bull was an accomplished warrior He participated in the Fetterman and Wagon Box fights and fought at the Little Big Horn contending that he was the warrior who killed Custer Many years later White Bull was persuaded to recount the outstanding events of his life The result is this remarkable autobiography consisting of text and drawings In addition to relating White Bull's accomplishments in war the narrative includes events from his youth details of Lakota culture and an extended Lakota winter count This bilingual edition originally published as The Warrior Who Killed Custer Nebraska 1968 features White Bull's story in its original Lakota his drawings and an English translation The manuscript was translated and edited by James H Howard author of The Canadian Sioux Nebraska 1984 and The Ponca Tribe Nebraska 1995 Introducer Raymond Bucko is an associate professor of anthropology at Le Moyne College and the author of The Lakota Ritual of the Sweat Lodge History and Contemporary Practice Nebraska 1998      Pictorial Narrative in the Nazi Period Deborah Schultz, Edward Timms, 2013-10-31 This book investigates creative responses to the Nazi period in the work of three artists Felix Nussbaum Charlotte Salomon and Arnold Dagbani focusing on their use of pictorial narrative It analyses their contrasting aesthetic strategies and their innovative forms of artistic production In contrast with the autonomous modernist art object their works were explicitly linked with the historical conditions under which they were produced the pressures of persecution and exile Conditions in the slave labour camps and ghettos in the Ukraine which shaped the paintings and drawings of Dagbani are contrasted with the experiences of exile in Belgium and France which inspired Nussbaum and Salomon In defiance of conventional artistic practice they produced word image combinations that can be read as narrative sequences incorporating specific references to political events While there has been a wealth of literary philosophical and historical studies relating to the Holocaust aesthetic debate has developed less extensively This is the first comparative study of three artists who are only belatedly achieving recognition and the recent reception of their work is evaluated By identifying the aesthetic principles and narrative strategies underlying their work the book reassesses their achievement in creating new forms of modernism with an unmistakable political momentum This book was published as a special issue of Word Image      Special Bibliographic Series US Army Military History Research Collection,1977      The Biography Book Daniel S. Burt,2001-02-28 From Marilyn to Mussolini people captivate people A E s Biography best selling autobiographies and biographical novels testify to the popularity of the genre But where does one begin Collected here are descriptions and evaluations of over 10 000 biographical works including books of fact and fiction biographies for young readers and documentaries and movies all based on the lives of over 500 historical figures from scientists and writers to political and military leaders to artists and musicians Each entry includes a brief profile autobiographical and primary sources and recommended works Short reviews describe the pertinent biographical works and offer insight into the qualities and special features of each title helping readers to find the best biographical material available on hundreds of fascinating individuals      A Modern Poetics of Biography Zhengrun Yang,2025-09-02 This book provides a comprehensive study of biography to summarize the standard forms as well as a range of peripheral and expanded forms of auto biography Discussion and analyses to be done at three levels namely ontology typology and writing It is drawn from local and international theories in biography in addition to related disciplines in particular for those of the twentieth century and summarizing the experiences of the writing of classics in both Chinese and Western biographical history the study establishes a theoretical system of biography This book can serve as a useful reference for postgraduate students and professional readers who are interested in biographical research      "Landscape, Art and Identity in 1950s Britain " Catherine Jolivet,2017-07-05 During the years following World War II debates about the British landscape fused with questions of national identity as the country reconstructed its sense of self For better or for worse artists statesmen and ordinary citizens saw themselves reflected in the landscape and in turn helped to shape the way that others envisioned the land While landscape art is frequently imagined in terms of painting this book examines the role of landscape in terms of a broader definition of visual culture to include the discussion not only of works of oil on canvas but also prints sculpture photography advertising fashion journalism artists biographies and the multi media stage of the national exhibition Making extensive use of archival materials newspaper reviews radio broadcasts interviews with artists letters and exhibition planning documents Catherine Jolivet explores the intersection of landscape art with a variety of discourses including the role of women in contemporary society the status of immigrant artists in Britain developments in science and technology and the promotion of British art and culture abroad      The Architecture of Error Francesca Hughes,2014-11-07 Why the rise of redundant precision in architecture and the accompanying fear of error are key to understanding the discipline s needs anxieties and desires When architects draw even brick walls to six decimal places with software designed to cut lenses it is clear that the logic that once organized relations between precision and material error in construction has unraveled Precision already a promiscuous term seems now to have been uncoupled from its contract with truthfulness Meanwhile error and the always political space of its dissent has reconfigured itself In The Architecture of Error Francesca Hughes argues that behind the architect's acute fetishization of redundant precision lies a special fear of physical error What if we were to consider the pivotal cultural and technological transformations of modernism to have been driven not so much by the causes its narratives declare she asks as by an unspoken horror of loss of control over error material life and everything that matter stands for Hughes traces the rising intolerance of material vagaries from the removal of ornament to digitalized fabrication that produced the blind rejection of organic materials the proliferation of material testing and the rhetorical obstacles that blighted cybernetics Why is it she asks that the more we cornered physical error the more we feared it Hughes's analysis of redundant precision exposes an architecture of fear whose politics must be called into question Proposing error as a new category for architectural thought Hughes draws on other disciplines and practices that have interrogated precision and failure citing the work of scientists Nancy Cartwright and Evelyn Fox Keller and visual artists Gordon Matta Clark Barbara Hepworth Rachel Whiteread and others These non architect practitioners she argues show that error need not be excluded and precision can be made accountable Painting and Private Life in Eleventh-century China Robert E.

Harrist, Gonglin Li, 1998 In the eleventh century the focus of Chinese painting shifted dramatically The subject matter of most earlier works of art was drawn from a broadly shared heritage of political religious and literary themes Late in the century however a group of scholar artists began to make paintings that reflected the private experiences of their own lives Robert Harrist argues here that no work illuminates this development more vividly than Mountain Villa a handscroll by the renowned artist Li Gonglin ca 1041-1106 Through a detailed reading of the painting and an analysis of its place in the visual culture of Li's time the author offers a new explanation for the emergence of autobiographic content in Chinese art Harrist proposes that the subject of Li's painting his garden in the Longmian Mountains was itself a form of self representation since a garden was then considered a reflection of its owner's character and values He demonstrates also that Li's turn toward the imagery of private life was inspired by the conventions of Chinese lyric poetry in which poets recorded and responded to the experiences of their lives The book draws the reader into the artistic scholarly and political world of Li Gonglin and shows the profound influence of Buddhism on Chinese painting and poetry It offers important insights not just into Chinese art but also into Chinese literature and intellectual history British Women Artists Carolyn Trant, 2024-03-14 Consider for a moment the history of modern art in Britain you may struggle to land on a narrative that features very many women On this journey through a fascinating period of social change artist Carolyn Trant fills in some of the gaps in traditional art histories Introducing the lives and works of a rich network of neglected women artists British Women Artists sets these alongside such renowned presences as Barbara Hepworth Laura Knight and Winifred Nicholson In an era of radical activism and great social and political change women forged new relationships with art and its institutions Such change was not without its challenges and with acerbic wit Trant delves into the gendered make up of the avant garde and the tyranny of artistic isms In the decades after women won the vote in Britain the fortunes of women artists were shaped by war domesticity continued oppressions and spirited resistance Some succeeded in forging creative careers others were thwarted by the odds stacked against them Weaving devastating individual stories with playful critique British Women Artists reveals this hidden history

Thanks for Typing Juliana Dresvina, 2021-01-28 This collection uncovers the wives daughters mothers companions and female assistants who laboured in the shadows of famous men Revealing the reality of uncredited female contributions throughout history this book highlights the work of neglected and forgotten women associated with celebrated male writers scholars activists and politicians As the ThanksforTyping movement has shown anonymous women working to support the work of their male relations and colleagues has been and often still is a universal phenomenon These essays show just how long intelligent and determined women have been sidelined ignored or forgotten throughout history From a well connected Roman matrician to the mother of the poet Philip Larkin these women have their voices returned to them in twenty engaging chapters Spanning ancient times to the modern day they return agency to women who occupied crucial roles behind the scenes but were always restricted to the supporting role they were obliged to play The universal importance of these women take on new meaning in our modern era where women s voices are becoming ever louder and increasingly recognised including through such a movement as ThanksforTyping

Sculpture and Touch Peter Dent, 2017-07-05 Since the Renaissance at least the medium of sculpture has been associated explicitly with the sense of touch Sculptors philosophers and art historians have all linked the two often in strikingly different ways In spite of this long running interest in touch and tactility it is vision and visuality which have tended to dominate art historical research in recent decades This book introduces a new impetus to the discussion of the relationship between touch and sculpture by setting up a dialogue between art historians and individuals with fresh insights who are working in disciplines beyond art history The collection brings together a rich and diverse set of approaches with essays tackling subjects from prehistoric figurines to the work of contemporary artists from pre modern ideas about the physiology of touch to tactile interaction in the museum environment and from the phenomenology of touch in recent philosophy to the experimental findings of scientific study It is the first volume on this subject to take such a broad approach and as such seeks to set the agenda for future research and collaboration in this area

Writing Gatsby William Elliott Hazelgrove, 2022-10-01 The Great Gatsby has sold 25 million copies worldwide and sells 500 000 copies annually The book has been made into three movies and produced for the theatre It is considered the Greatest American Novel ever written Yet the story of how The Great Gatsby was written has not been told except as embedded chapters of much larger biographies This story is one of heartbreak infidelity struggle alcoholism financial hardship and one man s perseverance to be faithful to the raw diamond of his talent in circumstances that would have crushed others The story of the writing of The Great Gatsby is a story in itself Fitzgerald had descended into an alcoholic run of parties on Great Neck New York where he and Zelda had taken a home His main source of income was writing for the slicks or magazines of the day the main source being the Saturday Evening Post where Fitzgerald's name on a story got him as much as 4 000 Then on May 1 1924 he Zelda and baby daughter Scottie quietly slipped away from New York on a dry steamer to France the writer in search of sobriety sanity and his muse resulting in the publication of The Great Gatsby a year later

Cézanne Steven Platzman, 2001 Platzman's accessible and richly illustrated book examines the stylistic development of Cézanne's self portraits in an effort to understand how the artist saw himself and others 111 b w 82 color illustrations

The Oxford Encyclopedia of Women in World History Bonnie G. Smith, 2008 The Encyclopedia of Women in World History captures the experiences of women throughout world history in a comprehensive 4 volume work Although there has been extensive research on women in history by region no text or reference work has comprehensively covered the role women have played throughout world history The past thirty years have seen an explosion of research and effort to present the experiences and contributions of women not only in the Western world but across the globe Historians have investigated women's daily lives in virtually every region and have researched the leadership roles women have filled across time and region They have found and demonstrated that there is virtually no historical social or demographic change in which women have not been involved and by which their lives have not been affected The Oxford Encyclopedia of Women in World History benefits greatly from these efforts and experiences and illuminates how women worldwide have influenced and been influenced by these historical social and demographic changes The Encyclopedia contains over 1 250 signed articles arranged in an A Z format for ease of use The entries cover six main areas biographies geography and history comparative culture and society including adoption abortion performing arts organizations and movements such as the Egyptian Uprising and the Paris Commune women's and gender studies and topics in world history that include slave trade globalization and disease With its rich and insightful entries by leading scholars and experts this reference work is sure to be a valued go to resource for scholars college and high school students and general readers alike

Looking beyond the Text, 2025-02-13 Looking beyond the Text investigates the production transmission and reception of texts and manuscripts in ancient Egypt focusing on the complex practices and culture of the scribes who made them Drawing on theories and methods from other disciplines such as literary studies neuroscience and book history the authors discuss the physical practices of writing social contexts of texts and manuscripts and scribes themselves The papers examine a wide range of manuscripts including letters medical compendia poems religious corpora and other text genres written on varied media in different time periods The resulting collection offers new perspectives on the key role of scribes in ancient Egypt and models more contextualized and materially informed modes of philology

Calder: The Conquest of Time Jed Perl, 2017-10-24 The first biography of America's greatest twentieth century sculptor Alexander Calder an authoritative and revelatory achievement based on a wealth of letters and papers never before available and written by one of our most renowned art critics Alexander Calder is one of the most beloved and widely admired artists of the twentieth century Anybody who has ever set foot in a museum knows him as the inventor of the mobile America's unique contribution to modern art But only now forty years after the artist's death is the full story of his life being told in this biography which is based on unprecedented access to Calder's letters and papers as well as scores of interviews Jed Perl shows us why Calder was and remains a barrier breaker an avant garde artist with mass appeal This beautifully written deeply researched book opens with Calder's wonderfully peripatetic upbringing in Philadelphia California and New York Born in 1898 into a family of artists his father was a well known sculptor his mother a painter and a pioneering feminist Calder went on as an adult to forge important friendships with a who's who of twentieth century artists including Joan Mir Marcel Duchamp Georges Braque and Piet Mondrian We move through Calder's early years studying engineering to his first artistic triumphs in Paris in the late 1920s and to his emergence as a leader in the international abstract avant garde His marriage in 1931 to the free spirited Louisa James she was a great niece of Henry James is a richly romantic story related here with a wealth of detail and nuance Calder's life takes on a transatlantic richness from New York's Greenwich Village in the Roaring Twenties to the Left Bank of Paris during the Depression and then back to the United States where the Calders bought a run down old farmhouse in western Connecticut New light is shed on Calder's lifelong interest in dance theater and performance ranging from the Cirque Calder the theatrical event that became his calling card in bohemian Paris to collaborations with the choreographer Martha Graham and the composer Virgil Thomson More than 350 illustrations in color and black and white including little known works and many archival photographs that have never before been seen further enrich the story
