Policing The National Body Race Gender And Criminalization In The United States:

Policing the National Body Jael Silliman, Jael Miriam Silliman, Anannya Bhattacharjee, 2002 This anthology explores the ways in which women of color are monitored criminalized and regulated Race, Class, and Gender in the United States Paula S. Rothenberg, 2004 Race Class and Gender in the United States An Integrated Study presents students with a compelling clear study of issues of race gender and sexuality within the context of class Rothenberg offers students 126 readings each providing different perspectives and examining the ways in which race gender class and sexuality are socially constructed Rothenberg deftly and consistently helps students analyze each phenomena as well as the relationships among them thereby deepening their understanding of each issue surrounding race and ethnicity Nine Degrees of Justice Bishakha Datta, 2012-12-31 From an early focus on rape dowry and sati feminist struggles against violence on women in India have traversed a wide terrain to include issues that were invisible in the 1980s In Nine Degrees of Justice second and third generation feminists share their perspectives on violence against women through a series of thought provoking essays Published by Zubaan Trafficking and Prostitution Reconsidered Kamala Kempadoo, 2017-07-05 Trafficking and prostitution are widely believed to be synonymous and to be leading international crimes This collection argues against such sensationalism and advances carefully considered and grounded alternatives for understanding transnational migrations forced labor sex work and livelihood strategies under new forms of globalization From their long term engagements as anti trafficking advocates the authors unpack the contemporary international debate on trafficking They maintain that rather than a new white slave trade we are witnessing today more broadly an increase in the violation of the rights of freedom of movement decent employment and social and economic security Critical examinations of state anti trafficking interventions including the U S led War on Trafficking also reveal links to a broader attack on undocumented migrants tribal and aboriginal peoples poor women men and children and sex workers The book sheds new light on everyday circumstances popular discourses and strategies for survival under twenty first century economic and political conditions with a focus on Asia but with lessons globally Contributors Natasha Ahmad Vachararutai Boontin and Lin Chew Melissa Ditmore John Frederick Matthew S Friedman Josephine Ho Jagori Ratna Kapur Phil Marshall Jyoti Sanghera Susu Thatun Structural Violence Joshua M. Price, 2012-09-18 Gold Medalist 2013 Independent Publisher Book Awards in the Women s Studies category Structural Violence seeks to redraw the conventional map of violence against women In order to understand violence as a fundamentally heterogeneous phenomenon it is essential to go beyond interpersonal partner violence and analyze the workings of institutional and structural violence Self help books some shelters the courts federal and state legislation empirical studies therapeutic models and even some mainstream feminist polemics presume that all women face the same kind of violence This assumption masks violence that does not conform to the imagined norm such as violence against women who are sex workers lesbians homeless and or undocumented Joshua M Price s exploration of these issues is based on several years of research involving participant observation in domestic violence courts and extensive interviews with activists advocates incarcerated women and women who have faced various forms of violence Both conceptually and methodologically the book challenges narrow notions of violence against women and demonstrates implications for judicial intervention and other forms of public involvement Undivided Rights Loretta Ross,Elena Guti rrez,Marlene Gerber,Jael Silliman,2016-05-10 Undivided Rights captures the evolving and largely unknown activist history of women of color organizing for reproductive justice The Streets Belong to Us Anne Gray Fischer,2022-01-11 Police power was built on women s bodies Men especially Black men often stand in as the ultimate symbol of the mass incarceration crisis in the United States Women are treated as marginal if not overlooked altogether in histories of the criminal legal system In The Streets Belong to Us a searing history of women and police in the modern United States Anne Gray Fischer narrates how sexual policing fueled a dramatic expansion of police power The enormous discretionary power that police officers wield to surveil target and arrest anyone they deem suspicious was tested legitimized and legalized through the policing of women s sexuality and their right to move freely through city streets Throughout the twentieth century police departments achieved a stunning consolidation of urban authority through the strategic discretionary enforcement of morals laws including disorderly conduct vagrancy and other prostitution related misdemeanors Between Prohibition in the 1920s and the rise of broken windows policing in the 1980s police targeted white and Black women in distinct but interconnected ways These tactics reveal the centrality of racist and sexist myths to the justification and deployment of state power Sexual policing did not just enhance police power It also transformed cities from segregated sites of urban vice into the gentrified sites of Black displacement and banishment we live in today By illuminating both the racial dimension of sexual liberalism and the gender dimension of policing in Black neighborhoods The Streets Belong to Us illustrates the decisive role that race gender and sexuality played in the construction of urban police regimes Activist Scholarship Julia Sudbury,Margo Okazawa-Rey,2015-12-03 Can scholars generate knowledge and pedagogies that bolster local and global forms of resistance to U S imperialism racial gender oppression and the economic violence of capitalist globalization This book explores what happens when scholars create active engagements between the academy and communities of resistance In so doing it suggests a new direction for antiracist and feminist scholarship rejecting models of academic radicalism that remain unaccountable to grassroots social movements The authors explore the community and the academy as interlinked sites of struggle This book provides models and the opportunity for critical reflection for students and faculty as they struggle to align their commitments to social justice with their roles in the academy At the same time they explore the tensions and challenges of engaging in such contested work God in Captivity Tanya Erzen,2017-03-07 An eye opening account of how and why evangelical Christian ministries are flourishing in prisons across the United States It is by now well known that the United States incarceration rate is the highest in the world What is not broadly understood is how cash strapped and overcrowded state and federal prisons are increasingly relying on religious organizations to provide educational and mental health services and to help maintain order And these religious organizations are overwhelmingly run by nondenominational Protestant Christians who see prisoners as captive audiences Some twenty thousand of these Evangelical Christian volunteers now run educational programs in over three hundred US prisons jails and detention centers Prison seminary programs are flourishing in states as diverse as Texas and Tennessee California and Illinois and almost half of the federal prisons operate or are developing faith based residential programs Tanya Erzen gained inside access to many of these programs spending time with prisoners wardens and members of faith based ministries in six states at both male and female penitentiaries to better understand both the nature of these ministries and their effects What she discovered raises questions about how these ministries and the people who live in prison grapple with the meaning of punishment and redemption as well as what legal and ethical issues emerge when conservative Christians are the main and sometimes only outside forces in a prison system that no longer offers even the pretense of rehabilitation Yet Erzen also shows how prison ministries make undeniably positive impacts on the lives of many prisoners men and women who have no hope of ever leaving prison can achieve personal growth a sense of community and a degree of liberation within the confines of their cells With both empathy and a critical eye God in Captivity grapples with the questions of how faith based programs serve the punitive regime of the prison becoming a method of control behind bars even as prisoners use them as a lifeline for self transformation and dignity

Razor Wire Women Jodie Michelle Lawston,Ashley E. Lucas,2011-04-11 Offering nuanced portraits of women s lives inside razor wire and prison walls Razor Wire Women puts incarcerated women in dialogue with scholars artists educators and activists who live outside of prisons but work on issues connected to the prison industrial complex Women make up the fastest growing group of the U S prison population yet prison scholarship largely overlooks the struggles of incarcerated women and their voices are often silenced both in and out of the prison infrastructure From the vantage points of those both inside and outside of prisons this collection of essays and art illuminates many of the distinct experiences and concerns of incarcerated women including those of girls in prison abuse and rape the policing of women incarcerated motherhood mental health issues in prisons incarcerated women s artistic and cultural production and prisons impact on families health and sexuality Combining the transcendence hope and clarity of art with powerful analytical and conceptual tools Razor Wire Women reveals the gendered dimensions of the incarceration now experienced by a growing number of women in the U S

Medical Apartheid Harriet A. Washington,2006 Shocking new details about the government s notorious Tuskegee experiment are revealed as are similar less well known medical atrocities conducted by the government the armed forces prisons and private institutions BOOK JACKET Not a Choice, Not a Job JANICE G. RAYMOND,2013-07-15 A generation ago most people did not know how ubiquitous and grave human trafficking was Now many people agree that the 35 7 billion business is an appalling violation of human rights But when confronted with prostitution many people experience an odd disconnect because prostitution is shrouded in myths among them the claims that prostitution is inevitable and prostitution is a job or service like any other In Not a Choice Not a Job Janice Raymond challenges both the myths and their perpetrators Raymond demonstrates that prostitution is not sex but sexual exploitation and that legalizing and decriminalizing the system of prostitution as opposed to the prostituted women promotes sex trafficking expands the sex industry and invites organized crime Specifically Raymond exposes how legalized prostitution in the Netherlands Germany Australia and Nevada worsens crime and endangers women In contrast she reveals when governments work to prevent the demand for prostitution by prosecuting pimps brothels and prostitution users as in Norway Sweden and Iceland trafficking does not increase women are better protected and fewer men buy sex Raymond expands the boundaries of scholarship in women's studies making this book indispensable to human rights advocates around the world
