After the Death of a Child Ann K. Finkbeiner, 2012-12-11 For a parent losing a child is the most devastating event that can occur Most books on the subject focus on grieving and recovery but as most parents agree there is no recovery from such a loss This book examines the continued love parents feel for their child and the many poignant and ingenious ways they devise to preserve the bond Through detailed profiles of parents Ann Finkbeiner shows how new activities and changed relationships with their spouse friends and other children can all help parents preserve a bond with the lost child Based on extensive interviews and grief research Finkbeiner explains how parents have changed five to twenty five years after the deaths of their children The first half of the book discusses the short and long term effects of the child's death on the parent's relationships with the outside world that is with their spouses other children friends and relatives The second half of the book details the effect on the parents internal world their continuing sense of guilt their need to place the death in some larger context and their inability sometimes to consistently do so their new set of priorities the nature of their bond with the lost child and the subtle and creative ways they have of continuing that bond Finkbeiner's central point is not so much how parents grieve for their children but how they love them Refusing to fall back on pop jargon about recovery or to offer easy solutions or standardized timelines Finkbeiner's is a genuine and moving search to come to terms with loss Her complex profiles of parents resonate with the honesty and authenticity of uncomfortable emotions expressed and most importantly shared with others experiencing a similar loss Finally each profile exemplifies the many heroic ways parents learn to live with their pain and by so doing honor the lives their children should have lived

Has your child lived before In this fascinating controversial and groundbreaking book Carol Bowman reveals overwhelming evidence of past life memories in children Not only are such experiences real they are far more common than most people realize Bowman s extraordinary investigation was sparked when her young son Chase described his own past life death on a Civil War battlefield an account so accurate it was authenticated by an expert historian Even more astonishing Chase s chronic eczema and phobia of loud noises completely disappeared after he had the memory Inspired by Chase s dramatic healing Bowman compiled dozens of cases and wrote this comprehensive study to explain how very young children remember their past lives spontaneously and naturally In Children s Past Lives she tells how to distinguish between a true past life memory and a fantasy offers practical advice to parents on how to respond to a past life memory and shows how to foster the spiritual and healing benefits of these experiences Perhaps the most moving convincing and best documented evidence yet for life after death Children s Past Lives will stand alongside the classics of Betty J Eadie Raymond Moody and Brian Weiss in its power to comfort uplift and transform our thinking about life after death Remember Me Too ,2006 Empirical Truths and Critical Fictions Cathy

Caruth,2009-08-24 In the prevailing account of English empiricism Locke conceived of self understanding as a matter of mere observation bound closely to the laws of physical perception English Romantic poets and German critical philosophers challenged Locke s conception arguing that it failed to account adequately for the power of thought to turn upon itself to detach itself from the laws of the physical world Cathy Caruth reinterprets questions at the heart of empiricism by treating Locke s text not simply as philosophical doctrine but also as a narrative in which experience plays an unexpected and uncanny role Rediscovering traces and transformations of this narrative in Wordsworth Kant and Freud Caruth argues that these authors must not be read only as rejecting or overcoming empirical doctrine but also as reencountering in their own narratives the complex and difficult relation between language and experience Beginning her inquiry with the moment of empirical self reflection in Locke s Essay Concerning Human Understanding when a mad mother mourns her dead child Caruth asks what it means that empiricism represents itself as an act of mourning and explores why scenes of mourning reappear in later texts such as Wordsworth s Prelude Kant s Metaphysical Foundations of Natural Science and Prolegomena to Any Future Metaphysics and Freud s Civilization From these readings Caruth traces a recurring narrative of radical loss and the continual displacement of the object or the agent of loss In Locke it is the mother who mourns her dead child while in Wordsworth it is the child who mourns the dead mother In Kant the father murders the son while in Freud the sons murder the father As she traces this pattern Caruth shows that the conceptual claims of each text to move beyond empiricism are implicit claims to move beyond reference Yet the narrative of death in each text she argues leaves a referential residue that cannot be reclaimed by empirical or conceptual logic Caruth thus reveals in each of these authors a tension between the abstraction of a conceptual language freed from reference and the compelling referential resistance of particular stories to abstraction Gender, Supernatural Beings, and the Liminality of Death Rebecca Gibson,James M.

VanderVeen,2021-03-02 Gender Supernatural Beings and the Liminality of Death Monstrous Males Fatal Females examines representations of the supernatural dead to demonstrate shifts in the manifestation of gender Including readings of East Asian detectives cyborgs Iranian vampires and African zombies among others This collection offers a multi faceted look at myth legend and popular culture representations of the gendered supernatural from a broad range of international contexts The contributors show that as creatures pass through the liminal space of death their new supernatural forms challenge cultural conceptions of gender masculinity and femininity Death as Metamorphosis of Life Rudolf Steiner,2008-04 7

Lectures various cities Nov 29 1917 Oct 16 1918 CW 182 Death as Metamorphosis of Life is a brilliant exceptional collection

The lectures are intimate existential profound and transformative they address us in our soul lives where we live and where we strive for spiritual experience They make clear the necessary and living bond that must unite the inner work of Anthroposophists the day to day inner spiritual work in our ordinary lives and the outer work of Anthroposophy the manifestation of spirit in life that is the tasks of service that we take on in the world Steiner understood that if Anthroposophy or spiritual wisdom does not live and grow as a spiritual reality in the souls of those who claim to practice it then the practical wisdom their actions in the world as called for by the spirit of the times will come to nothing Christopher Bamford introduction The lectures in Death as Metamorphosis of Life address us in our soul life and speak to our hearts They make clear the bond that must unite our inner spiritual work and the outer work of manifesting spirit in life For if spiritual wisdom does not live and grow as a reality in the souls of those who practice it then the practical wisdom of service called for by the spirit of the times will come to nothing The particular realities that Rudolf Steiner focuses on are twofold working with the dead and the spiritual hierarchies and coming to know the Christ What these two have in common is that they are both Earth centered They teach us the fundamental importance of everyday human destiny and earthly life not just for humanity but also for divinity and the cosmos We learn not only what the dead can teach us about the spiritual world and the working of the hierarchies but also what it means to be human in a spiritual sense We learn of the importance of working with the dead and the angelic worlds both for our own and for their development as well as for the future evolution of the Earth The Mystery of Golgotha is equally important we must understand it spiritually As Steiner says It is the will of the gods that the most important event on Earth must compel us to spirituality The Christ must be experienced inwardly not historically At the same time he must be found on Earth for instance in human destiny The more we become aware of what is secretly invisibly and unconsciously working in our lives the closer we will come to working with the dead and to the kingdom of Christ How can we find the Christ Steiner quotes the seventeenth century mystic Angelus Silesius The Cross on Golgotha cannot save you from evil if it is not also raised within you The Cross is raised within us by the polarity of the powerlessness of our body and the resurrection of our spirit There is no need for supersensory capacities to realize this experience only humility and sincerity in seeking are required Resurrection from the soul death of powerlessness is the true Christ experience that opens the soul to the presence of Christ Truly these are astonishing lectures to be treasured to be read reread to be thoroughly understood as something living to be meditated and made one's own and to be carried as a transformative gift into the world Christopher Bamford introduction Death as Metamorphosis of Life is translated for the first time in its entirety from the German of Der Tod als Lebenswandlung GA 182 Individual lectures have appeared in Angels Selected Lectures Evil Selected Lectures and Staying Connected
