Remittances And Their Impact A Study Of Tonga And Western Samoa:

Remittances and Their Impact Dennis A. Ahlburg, 1991 Number 7 in the TPacific Policy Papers series this is a summary of the effects of migration and labour export on the two Pacific island economies over the last 15 20 years Includes tables statistics and a bibliography

Tonga Martin Daly, 2009-02-04 Praise for the first edition Tonga is unique among bibliographies in its perception and understanding and in its affection for Tonga and its people Daly s work stands on exceptionally sound foundations His summaries are excellent indeed but Daly writes always with the authority of first hand knowledge with a keen eye for the essential and the ability to interpret and clarify obscurities A trustworthy introduction to Tonga in all its diversity a splendid point de d part for all layman or scholar needing a reliable guide to the essential literature about this remarkable Polynesian kingdom Bulletin of the School of Oriental and African Studies The book is so arranged that it is easy to locate any of the items listed I found myself spending pleasant hours perusing Daly s comments on the different publications I hope the rumor of a second revised edition of this bibliography is true Journal of the Polynesian Society Tonga is a fascinating and subtle combination of a traditional Polynesian kingdom the only one to survive the impact of colonization in the nineteenth century and remain independent and a thoroughly Christian country This comprehensive bibliography is a selective guide to the most significant and accessible English language books papers and articles on every aspect of the kingdom s history culture arts politics environment and economy It is a much updated and expanded edition of the original version that was published in 1999 as part of the World Bibliographical Series with the addition of more than 200 new entries Each of the approximately 600 described and annotated items is organized under broad subject headings and indexed by author title and subject In addition and new to this edition all known Ph D theses although not annotated are shown within their appropriate subject categories and indexed Also new is a section on the most important Tonga related websites A general introduction describes the Tongan kingdom its history and society and its current situation Tonga A New Bibliography will be an invaluable resource for anyone with a serious interest in Tonga and an indispensable volume for academic libraries reference collections and policy makers focused on the Pacific islands

Tongans Overseas Helen Morton Lee, 2003-01-31 Since the late 1960s Tongans have been leaving their islands in large numbers and settling in many different nations Tongans Overseas is a timely look at their settlement experiences as they relate to cultural identity particularly among the younger generations raised outside Tonga What does being Tongan mean to these young people Why do some proudly proclaim and cherish their Tongan identities while others remain ambivalent confused or indifferent Helen Morton Lee s innovative research offers insights into these and many other questions revealing the complexities of identity construction in the context of migration and the varied ways in which individuals seek a sense of belonging Using both traditional ethnographic fieldwork and newly popular Internet discussion forums where young Tongans speak their minds and describe their experiences Lee has produced the most comprehensive study of Tongan migrants to date Throughout the book diasporic Tongans speak eloquently about their lives and case studies of families and individuals bring the analysis to life Lee explores tensions within overseas communities especially the intergenerational conflicts that are contributing to the alienation of many young Tongans today Pacific 2010 John Connell, John P. Lea, 1995 Throughout Polynesia urban conditions are worsening though cities and towns are growing much more slowly than their Melanesian and Micronesian counterparts The difficulties of providing adequate urban infrastructure and services that have been of critical concern in the larger cities of the developing world are now readily apparent The relatively small size of urban centres in the South Pacific has delayed the recognition of serious problems and the need for an active response because development policies have tended to focus on economic growth and on the rural sector To draw comparisons with policies that have been attempted elsewhere the key subsectors of urban infrastructure examined here are those commonly identified in comparative policy studies water supply sanitation solid waste disposal and housing Integrally associated with these services are land management and the status of physical planning Particular attention is given to environmental outcomes Persistence of the Gift Mike Evans, 2001-12-06 A detailed ethnographic and historical analysis of how traditional Tongan values continue to play key roles in the way that Tongans make their way in the modern world Migration, Globalisation and Human Security David T. Graham, Nana K. Poku, 2005-08-04 Migration Globalisation and Human Security looks at a range of security and human security issues related to the displacement of civilian populations and shows how the tenuous existence of migrants can lead to a myriad of human security threats Providing major theoretical analyses of recent migration trends and in depth case studies this book shows that a redefinition of the notion of human security is now needed Handbook of the Economics of International Migration Barry Chiswick, Paul Miller, 2014-12-08 The economic literature on international migration interests policymakers as well as academics throughout the social sciences These volumes the first of a new subseries in the Handbooks in Economics describe and analyze scholarship created since the inception of serious attention began in the late 1970s This literature appears in the general economics journals in various field journals in economics especially but not exclusively those covering labor market and human resource issues in interdisciplinary immigration journals and in papers by economists published in journals associated with history sociology political science demography and linguistics among others Covers a range of topics from labor market outcomes and fiscal consequences to the effects of international migration on the level and distribution of income and everything in between Encompasses a wide range of topics related to migration and is multidisciplinary in some aspects which is crucial on the topic of migration Appeals to a large community of scholars interested in this topic and for whom no overviews or summaries exist Identity and Development Paul van der Grijp, 2021-11-22 Identity and Development presents a remarkable record of Tonga's increasing participation in the modern global economy and provides anthropologists economists and historians with a detailed case study that bears heavily on major issues of the day both practically and theoretically The book focuses on issues of identity entrepreneurship and the intricacies of development and addresses the question How in the current state of the economy can a Tongan become a successful grower This question is set against the background of a boom in cash cropping sparked by a burgeoning export trade with Japan Migration in the Asia Pacific Robyn R. Iredale, Charles Hawksley, Stephen

Castles, 2003-01-01 Includes statistics Globalisation and Governance in the Pacific Islands Stewart Firth, 2006-12-01

The Pacific Islands are feeling the effects of globalisation Free trade in sugar and garments is threatening two of Fiji's key industries At the same time other opportunities are emerging Labour migration is growing in importance and Pacific governments are calling for more access to Australia's labour market Fiji has joined Samoa Tonga Tuvalu and Kiribati as a remittance economy with thousands of its citizens working overseas Meantime Papua New Guinea and Solomon Islands grapple with an older kind of globalisation in which overseas companies exploit mineral and forest resources The Pacific Islands confront unique problems of governance in this era of globalisation The modern democratic state often fits awkwardly with traditional ways of doing politics in that part of the world Just as often politicians in the Pacific exploit tradition or invent it to serve modern political purposes The contributors to this volume examine Pacific globalisation and governance from a wide range of perspectives They come from Papua New Guinea Solomon Islands Hawaii the Federated States of Micronesia Samoa Fiji New Zealand and Jamaica as well as Australia Publisher's description The Pacific Islands Moshe Rapaport, 1999 Forty five contributors offer information on the physical environment history culture population economy and living environment of the Pacific islands Report on the Apia Urban Youth Survey 1994, 1994

Report on the Apia Urban Youth Survey 1994: Literature review, 1994 Migration and Development Wonderful Hope Khonje, 2015-02-11 Over the past two decades studies on the migration development nexus often portray small states as one homogeneous group developing countries without considering their critical and peculiar challenges or inherent vulnerabilities due mainly to their size This book explores key dynamics of migration and development in a small states setting It includes case studies from small states in Africa Caribbean and the Pacific that will help policy makers to embrace migration as an inevitable phenomenon and devise policies that will maximise the benefits from migration at a minimal cost

Managing Globalization in the Asian Century Hal Hill, Jayant Menon, 2016-11-16 The global centre of gravity continues to shift to the Asia Pacific the most dynamic region in the world These economies have generally grown faster for longer periods of time than any other major region in world history Their embrace of globalization has been a central feature and driver of their dynamism The management of Asia Pacific economic integration and globalization is crucial not only for the countries themselves but also for the state of the global economy including importantly latecomer developing economies who look to the region for analytical and development policy lessons Twenty eight leading international authorities in the field drawn from nine countries provide a comprehensive examination of the causes consequences and challenges of globalization in a volume that celebrates the distinguished career of Professor Prema Chandra Athukorala Among the major issues examined are the region's distinctive approach to trade liberalization the effects of economic growth on poverty reduction and the labour market the special challenges of by passed regions the role of ideas in influencing policy making the modalities of connecting to global production networks and the importance of remittances in economic development Several country case studies provide in depth analyses of development processes and outcomes These include episodes in economic development the challenges faced by transition economies the macroeconomics of adjusting to slower growth and rising debt in advanced economies and the so called middle income trap phenomenon

Demographic and Social Change in the Island Nations of the Pacific Dennis A. Ahlburg, 1996

Voyages Cathy A. Small, 2011-11-15 In Voyages Cathy A Small offers a view of the changes in migration globalization and ethnographic fieldwork over three decades The second edition adds fresh descriptions and narratives in three new chapters based on two more visits to Tonga and California in 2010 The author whose role after thirty years of fieldwork is both ethnographer and family member reintroduces the reader to four sisters in the same family two who migrated to the United States and two who remained in Tonga and reveals what has unfolded in their lives in the fifteen years since the first edition was written The second edition concludes with new reflections on how immigration and globalization have affected family economy tradition political life identity and the practice of anthropology

International Labour Review, 1994

Pacific Regional Order Dave Peebles, 2005-10-01 New policies are needed if the Pacific is to realise its potential as a peaceful prosperous region where the Pacific's citizens enjoy good standards of health and education long lives and many opportunities where Pacific economic growth is constantly improving driven by environmentally sustainable service industries where coups civil conflict and the dangers of failed states have been relegated to the past where the Pacific is integrated into the wider region and is an influential voice in world affairs Argues that Pacific countries including Australia need to embrace regional integration to realise this vision The book sets out a comprehensive plan for realising a Pacific regional community dedicated to promoting sustainable development security human rights the rule of law and democracy
