Riding The Iron Rooster By Train Through China

Judith Shapiro

Riding The Iron Rooster By Train Through China:

Riding the Iron Rooster Paul Theroux, 1989 Describes the author's travels by train in every province of the People's Republic of China Riding the Iron Rooster Paul Theroux, 2006-12-08 The acclaimed travel writer chronicles a year of train travel across China in a revealing travelogue that gives the reader much to relish and think about Publishers Weekly The author of the train travel classics The Great Railway Bazaar and The Old Patagonian Express takes to the rails once again in this account of his epic journey through China The always irascible infectious curious author is in top form as he describes the barren deserts of Mongolia and Xinjiang the ice forests of Manchuria and the dry hills of Tibet He captures their otherworldly haunting appearances perfectly He is also right on target when he talks about the ugliness of China's poorly planned hastily built cities Mark Salzman The New York Times Theroux hops aboard a train as part of a tour group in London and sets out for China's border He then spends a year traversing the country where he pieces together a fascinating snapshot of a unique moment in history From sweeping and desolate natural landscapes to the dense metropolises of Shanghai Beijing and Canton Theroux offers an unforgettable portrait of a magnificent land and an extraordinary people

Going Places Robert Burgin, 2013-01-08 Successfully navigate the rich world of travel narratives and identify fiction and nonfiction read-alikes with this detailed and expertly constructed guide Just as savvy travelers make use of guidebooks to help navigate the hundreds of countries around the globe smart librarians need a guidebook that makes sense of the world of travel narratives Going Places: A Reader's Guide to Travel Narratives meets that demand helping librarians assist patrons in finding the nonfiction books that most interest them It will also serve to help users better understand the genre and their own reading interests The book examines the subgenres of the travel narrative genre in its seven chapters categorizing and describing approximately 600 titles according to genres and broad reading interests and identifying hundreds of other fiction and nonfiction titles as read-alikes and related reads by shared key topics The author has also identified award-winning titles and spotlighted further resources on travel lit making this work an ideal guide for readers advisors as well a book general readers will enjoy browsing

American Studies of Contemporary China David L. Shambaugh, 1993 Examines the historical evolution of contemporary China studies in the United States reflecting the growth and maturation of the field since the Communist Party seized power in 1949 China's Environmental Challenges Judith Shapiro, 2013-04-18 China's huge environmental challenges are significant for us all They affect not only the health and well-being of China but the very future of the planet In this trailblazing book noted China specialist and environmentalist Judith Shapiro investigates China's struggle to achieve sustainable development against a backdrop of acute rural poverty and soaring middle-class consumption Using five core analytical concepts to explore the complexities of this struggle the implications of globalization the challenges of governance contested national identity the evolution of civil society and problems of environmental justice and equity Shapiro poses a number of pressing questions Do the Chinese people have the right to the higher living standards enjoyed in the developed world Are China's environmental problems so severe that they may shake the government's stability legitimacy and control To what extent are China's environmental problems due to patterns of Western consumption And in a world of increasing limits on resources and pollution sinks is it even possible to build an equitable system in which people enjoy equal access to resources without taking them from successive generations from the poor or from other species China and the planet are at a pivotal moment the path towards a more sustainable development model is still open But as Shapiro persuasively argues making this choice will require humility creativity and a rejection of business as usual The window of opportunity will not be open much longer Chapter 1 The Big Picture is available online Anderson's Travel Companion

Compiled by Sarah Anderson, 2016-12-05 A selection of the best in travel writing with both fiction and non fiction presented together this companion is for all those who like travelling like to think about travelling and who take an interest in their destination It covers guidebooks as well as books about food history art and architecture religion outdoor activities illustrated books autobiographies biographies and fiction and lists books both in and out of print Anderson's Travel Companion is arranged first by continent then alphabetically by country and then by subject cross referenced where necessary There is a separate section for guidebooks and comprehensive indexes Sarah Anderson founded the Travel Bookshop in 1979 and is also a journalist and writer on travel subjects She is known by well known travel writers such as Michael Palin and Colin Thubron Michael Palin chose her bookshop as his favourite shop and Colin Thubron and Geoffrey Moorhouse among others made suggestions for titles to include in the Travel Companion Poorly Made in China Paul Midler, 2011-01-11 An insider reveals what can and does go wrong when companies shift production to China In this entertaining behind the scenes account Paul Midler tells us all that is wrong with our effort to shift manufacturing to China Now updated and expanded Poorly Made in China reveals industry secrets including the dangerous practice of quality fade the deliberate and secret habit of Chinese manufacturers to widen profit margins through the reduction of quality inputs U S importers don't stand a chance Midler explains against savvy Chinese suppliers who feel they have little to lose by placing consumer safety at risk for the sake of greater profit This is a lively and impassioned personal account a collection of true stories told by an American who has worked in the country for close to two decades Poorly Made in China touches on a number of issues that affect us all Area Bibliography of China Richard T. Wang, 1997 A combination of scholarly commercial and popular interests has generated a large quantity of literature on every aspect of Chinese life during the past two decades This bibliography reflects these combined interests it is broken up into sections by subject headings and cross references refer the researcher to related topics Ecology of Avian Zoonotic Diseases - New Challenges Grzegorz Kopij, 2025-02-19 The book presents five chapters related to the ecology of avian diseases the recently emerged branch of avian ecology veterinary medicine human medicine virology and parasitology It is therefore a multidisciplinary book It advances studies on the ecology of avian epizootic diseases Two case studies are presented one from Kinshasa in the Democratic Republic of Congo and the other from Tibet in China Both studies focus on relationships between birds humans microbiota and environment The avian influenza is the main object of this study It is a viral disease mainly affecting waterbirds but it has been transmitted to humans in recent years and has caused serious health problems The book shows how the disease emerged from its original site in the lake in Tibet and how it spread worldwide The study from Kinshasa focuses on the Malachite Kingfisher and a few other bird species This is a good example of a holistic approach to the problems linked to avian diseases the ecology of birds site fidelity timing of breeding breeding success diet microbiota parasites and human health The study also turns attention to birds as good indicators of environmental quality A separate chapter deals with these aspects of hematology which are relevant to avian diseases Special attention is paid to factors influencing fluctuations in hematocrit levels of birds in relation to their age sex season of the year physiological indices metabolism energetics breeding status parasites season of the year and altitude of inhabited area Blood elements such as erythrocytes granulocytes heterophils granulocytes eosinophils and basophils and agranulocytes monocytes lymphocytes thrombocytes are compared between 14 selected bird species from different parts of the world These parameters are essential for health monitoring critical early warning markers of stress disease and malnourishment in bird populations This book targets a broad audience of ecologists ornithologists students of zoonotic diseases and researchers in veterinary and human medicine Post Report ,1996 Series of pamphlets on countries of the world revisions issued The Great Railway Bazaar Paul Theroux,2006 In this unique and hugely entertaining railway odyssey Theroux vividly recounts his travels and the people places and landscapes he encountered on the Orient Express the Khyber Mail and the Trans Siberian Express through such countries as Turkey Iran India Southeast Asia Japan and the Soviet Union Tourist Behaviour Philip L. Pearce,2019 Comprehensive and accessible this Companion offers a thorough investigation into both traditional and fresh topics in tourist behaviour and experience Arranged chronologically the chapters examine tourist experience from the very idea of a tourist visit to the aftermath of returning home China's Railway Transformation Junjie Xi,Paco Mejias Villatoro,2022-12-30 This book investigates China s railway transformation through history along with culture changes and urban development The book begins by looking at the background of China and the history and growth of railway development in China through five key phases followed by assessing the cultural changes in the railway carriage and exploring how these are linked to social equality and national provisions The core of this book aims to analyse the Chinese urban transformation through the development of the high speed rail HSR infrastructure in China Eleven important new HSR stations in mainland China plus the new Hong Kong West Kowloon Station have been selected to contextually explore how HSR infrastructures have affected the development of the Chinese urban context The selected case studies are the stations of Beijing South Wuhan Shanghai Hongqiao Guangzhou South Xi an North Nanjing South Chengdu East Tianjin West Zhengzhou East Hangzhou East and Hong Kong West Kowloon All of these were built between 2008 and 2018 In these case studies the location and the intentions and success of promoting urban development are analysed and assessed Following this the book further investigates the peculiarities of the new HSR stations in China in comparison with stations in Europe An assessment framework is established to evaluate the Chinese case studies comparatively with significant cases in Europe attending to the urban structure of the area the architectural quality the functional diversity and the quality of the public space generated in the surrounding area

China After Mao Frank Dikötter, 2022-11-15 A blow by blow account An important corrective to the conventional view of China's rise Financial Times From internationally renowned historian Frank Dikötter winner of the Samuel Johnson Prize a myth shattering history of China from the death of Chairman Mao to Xi Jinping Through decades of direct experience of the People's Republic combined with extraordinary access to hundreds of hitherto unseen documents in communist party archives the author of The People's Trilogy offers a riveting account of China's rise from the disaster of the Cultural Revolution He takes us inside the country's unprecedented four decade economic transformation from rural villages to industrial metropolises and elite party conclaves that vaulted the nation from 126th largest economy in the world to second largest A historian at the pinnacle of his field Dikötter challenges much of what we think we know about how this happened Casting aside the image of a society marching unwaveringly toward growth in lockstep to the beat of the party drum he recounts instead a fascinating tale of contradictions illusions and palace intrigue of disasters narrowly averted shadow banking anti corruption purges and extreme state wealth existing alongside everyday poverty He examines China's navigation of the 2008 financial crash its increasing hostility towards perceived Western interference and its development into a thoroughly entrenched dictatorship with a sprawling security apparatus and the most sophisticated surveillance system in the world As this magisterial book makes clear the communist party's goal was never to join the democratic world but to resist it and ultimately defeat it
