Payne, Anahi Russo, 2013-07-18 The struggle for the advancement of women's rights and gender equality globally is impossible without strong women's organizations and movements to provide leadership and momentum But what does a strong women's organization look like And what does it take to create effective and sustainable women's movements This groundbreaking collection of essays by activists from all corners of the globe explores what it means to be an influential women's organization and what it takes to build the kinds of movements needed to transform women's lives From how to build successful participatory democratic processes and implement shared leadership models to lessons on overcoming internal organizational divisions the case studies in this collection focus not only on the what but also the how of movement building Those concerned with how to effect sustainable change will find not only much food for thought but also an

Baldwin, 2019-08-21 First published in 2013 this revision of Leadership Matters features nine new profiles and a new chapter of emerging museum leader voices proving that leadership is as much about individuals as institutions Using personal insights from the history museum field s most engaging innovative and entrepreneurial leaders these profiles focus not only on museum directors and CEOs but also on the leaders within deputies department heads and team leaders and those demanding change from the community Baldwin and Ackerson weave together the voices of 21st century museum leadership at its best creating a resource for graduate students mid career professionals institutions and boards of trustees to move from the status quo to being agile and influential fostering leadership that will make a difference Too many museums and heritage organizations still consider leadership development a nice to have but not a necessary component for a successful executive director or department head The field struggles to address a new round of cultural warfare fueled by widespread societal division and the overwhelming lack of diversity and equity in museum leadership at all levels including boards of trustees Additionally the field continues to ignore the gender pay gap despite a workforce hovering at 50 percent female and with the potential to grow significantly over the next decade More than ever successful museum leadership isn t the result of longevity scholarship or curatorial achievement In fact today s successful museum leaders bring myriad skills to the table creating a style that works both personally and professionally This snapshot of museum leadership focuses on history and cultural heritage organizations to help readers understand the power of individual leadership and its relationship to organizational strength This book features 36 interviews nine of them brand new to this edition with leaders in the field from a range of positions and institutions 10 myths of museum leadership and why they re wrong 10 simple truths of museum leadership A leadership agenda with criteria and goals for individual and organizational development Widow to Widow Phyllis R.
