The Concept of Self in Hinduism, Buddhism, and Christianity and Its Implication for Interfaith Relations

Kiseong Shin, 2017-05-05 This is the first comparative study of the self and no self in Hinduism Buddhism and Christianity In spite of doctrinal differences within these three belief systems they agree that human beings are in a predicament from which they need to be liberated Indian religions including Hinduism and Buddhism share the belief that human nature is inherently perfectible while the epistemological and psychological limitation of the human being is integral to Christian belief Regarding the immortality of the human being Hinduism and Christianity traditionally and generally agree that human beings as atman or soul possess intrinsic immortality On the contrary Buddhism teaches the doctrine of no self anatta Further in their quest to analyze the human predicament and attempt a way out of it they employ different concepts such as sin and salvation in Christianity attachment tanka and enlightenment nirvana in Buddhism and ignorance avidya and liberation moksa in Hinduism This volume seeks to show that that behind these concepts are deep concerns related to human existence and its relationship with the whole creation These common concerns can be a basis for a greater understanding and dialogue between Christians Hindus and Buddhists

A Survey of Hinduism Klaus K. Klostermaier, 2010-03-10 This third edition of the classic text updates the information contained in the earlier editions and includes new chapters on the origins of Hinduism its history of relations with Buddhism Christianity and Islam Hindu science and Hindu measures of time The chronology and the bibliography have been updated as well A comprehensive survey of the Hindu tradition the book deals with the history of Hinduism the sacred writings of the Hindus the Hindu worldview and the specifics of the major branches of Hinduism Vaisnavism Saivism and Saktism It also focuses on the geographical ties of Hinduism with the land of India the social order created by Hinduism and the various systems of Hindu thought Klaus K Klostermaier describes the development of Hinduism in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries including present day political Hinduism and the efforts to turn Hinduism into a modern world religion A unique feature of the book is its treatment of Hinduism in a topical fashion rather than by chronological description of the development of Hinduism or by summary of the literature The complexities of Hindu life and thought are thus made real to the reader and Hindus will recognize it as their own tradition
