Reconstructing our Understanding of State Legitimacy in Post-conflict States Ruby Dagher,2021-02-20 This book reassesses performance legitimacy in the context of statebuilding and identifies the paradox between state institution building and state legitimacy by looking at the interplay between state legitimacy and leaders legitimacy The author reviews the significant weaknesses associated with the current measures of state legitimacy and uses this to demonstrate the incompatibility of these measurements with the reality faced by conflict and post conflict countries

The author uses the Performance Legitimacy Theory of Transition framework to demonstrate the potential legitimacy paths that post conflict countries can embark on and proposes a new approach for building state legitimacy in post conflict countries. The author also introduces new indicators to measure performance legitimacy that also reflect its non exclusive nature. Essential reading for students and researchers of Peace and Conflict Studies and especially of post conflict development peacebuilding statebuilding intervention and democracy promotion. Also accessible to policy makers.

Assessing Lawyers' Ethics Adrian Evans, 2010-11-15 Legal practitioners operate in an environment of seemingly endless ethical challenges and against a backdrop of diminishing public opinion about their morality. Based on extensive research Assessing Lawyers' Ethics argues that lawyers' individual ethics can be assessed and measured in realistic frameworks. When this assessment takes place legal practitioners are more likely to demonstrate better ethical behaviour as a result of their increased awareness of their own choices. This book advocates a variety of peer administered testing mechanisms that have the potential to reverse damaging behaviours within the legal profession. It provides prototype techniques questions and assessments that can be modified to suit different legal cultures. These will help the profession regain the initiative in ethical business practice, halt the decline in firms' reputations and reduce the risk of state sponsored regulatory intervention.
