Christine Parker, Adrian Evans

Scapegoats For A Profession Uncovering Procedural Injustice:

Scapegoats for a Profession Ann Daniel, 2012-11-12 Scapegoating is projected here as an occurrence in justice systems of modern democracies Daniel documents several disciplinary cases brought against successful professionals in law and medicine in order to do this arguing that they are examples of community scapegoating by these professions Law and

Social Change Sharyn L Roach Anleu, 2009-10-29 This is a timely new edition of Sharyn L Roach Anleu's invaluable introduction to the sociology of law and its role as a social institution and social process Discussing current theory and key empirical research from a diverse range of perspectives Law and Social Change gives relevant examples from various cultures and societies to provide a sociological view which goes beyond more jurisprudential approaches to law and society The book provides coverage of major classic and contemporary social theories of law is informed by empirical research drawn from several countries societies includes up to date and relevant examples This thoroughly updated edition engages with modern scholarship and recent research on globalization whilst also looking at related issues such as the internationalization of law and human rights It explores recent reforms at local and national levels including issues of migration and refugees the regulation of anti social behaviour and specialist or problem solving courts and also provides a clear accessible introduction to research methods used in the socio legal field Direct and wide ranging this text will be essential reading for students and researchers on social science and law courses and in particular those taking sociology legal theory criminology and criminal justice studies Constructing Crime Janet Mosher, Joan Brockman, 2010-05-10

Constructing Crime examines the central question Why do we define and enforce particular behaviours as crimes and target particular individuals as criminals To answer this question contributors interrogate notions of crime processes of criminalization and the deployment of the concept of crime in five radically different sites the enforcement of fraud against welfare recipients and physicians the enforcement of laws against Aboriginal harvesting practices the perceptions of incivilities or disorder in public housing projects and the selective criminalization of gambling By demonstrating that how crime is defined and enforced is connected to social location and status these interdisciplinary case studies and an afterword by Marie Andr e Bertrand challenge us to consider just who is rendered criminal and why This timely volume will appeal to policy makers and students and practitioners of law criminology and sociology Inside Lawyers' Ethics Christine

Parker, Adrian Evans, 2014 This book is designed to help law students and new lawyers understand and modify their own ethical priorities not just because this knowledge makes it easier to practise law and earn an income but because self aware ethical legal practice is right and feels better than anything else Trust & Betrayal David Macintosh, 2016-11-04 David

Macintosh is a former surgeon and an ethicist who writes with candour insight and eloquence about empathy practical wisdom rationality and human frailty factors that bear profoundly upon our understanding of trust He sees trust as a burden a doctor must accept for all patients It imposes an obligation that goes to the core of a doctor's character Parker and

Evans's Inside Lawyers' Ethics Vivien Holmes, Francesca Bartlett, 2023-05-04 Parker and Evans's Inside Lawyers Ethics provides a practical and engaging introduction to ethical decision making in legal practice in Australia Underpinned by four theoretical concepts adversarial advocacy responsible lawyering moral activism and ethics of care this text analyses legal and professional frameworks highlighting relevant parts of the Australian Solicitors Conduct Rules Case studies and discussion questions offer contemporary practical examples of the application of ethics The book also addresses the challenge of ethical action and offers techniques to deal with ethical conflicts This edition has been comprehensively updated and discusses the implications of advances in legal technology mental ill health in the profession and the complexities of government legal practice A new chapter covers lawyers ethical obligation to address the legal challenges posed by climate change Written by an expert author team Parker and Evans's Inside Lawyers Ethics empowers readers to identify ethical challenges and resolve them through good decision making practices

The Cambridge Handbook of Social Sciences in Australia Ian McAllister, Steve Dowrick, Riaz Hassan, 2003-08-07 First published in 2003 The Cambridge Handbook of Social Sciences in Australia is a high quality reference on significant research in Australian social sciences The book is divided into three main sections covering the central areas of the social sciences economics political science and sociology Each section examines the significant research in the field placing it within the context of broader debates about the nature of the social sciences and the ways in which institutional changes have shaped how they are defined taught and researched

Law, Environmental Illness and Medical Uncertainty Tarryn Phillips, 2015-03-05 We've seen it before with asbestos related disease leukaemia clusters and lung cancer caused by cigarettes There tends to be a lag between the emergence of environmental risks and chemical injuries and their recognition and therapeutic treatment by medicine and the law Law Environmental Illness and Medical Uncertainty examines how our society governs new health concerns as they emerge and the barriers that face new and uncertain theories seeking recognition in the law In this book Tarryn Phillips focuses her investigation on the struggle over the controversial condition multiple chemical sensitivities or MCS also known as environmental illness Presenting nine case studies where workers sought compensation for MCS from their multinational employers she captures a nuanced portrait of their embittered unequal battles over the scientific legal and insurance paradigms for understanding toxic risk environmental illness and the regulation of industry It draws on three years of fieldwork in Australia including interview data with lay people and sympathetic and sceptical experts participant observation in the courtroom and textual analysis of official reports The book gives a unique ethnographic insight into the governance of risk and uncertainty within a neoliberal economy medico scientific controversies and courtroom dramas It highlights how a skeptical approach towards emergent environmental concerns is encouraged within the current regime and decision makers face disincentives for taking a sympathetic approach Compellingly written and easy to read it should appeal widely to interested lay people and students and scholars of science and technology studies medical anthropology sociology of health and illness and critical legal studies
