School-based Clinics that Work Jane Konhaus Martin,1994 Resources in Education ,2001-04 Black Education Willy DeMarcell Smith,Eva Wells Chunn,2017-07-28 This highly focused collection of papers commissioned by the National Urban League offers a candid and courageous portrait of black education in transition This is a period as the editors note in their opening remarks that is characterized by a huge shift from federal responsibility for minority education to authority and autonomy being lodged at the local government level Further many institutions that once worked well no longer do so Many ambitious social programs and policies that originally promised much have been abandoned have failed or just faded away Pivotal to these times and changes is the question of the extent to which the American educational system has been or still is capable of being responsive to incorporating and even instigating equity and excellence for black Americans This volume asks the hard questions is the educational system geared up for the maintenance of anything other than mainstream values

can it adapt to minority youth requirements when why and how do educational policies of majorities and minorities clash How are priorities to be established on the basis of wealth or need The legal statutes and administrative enforcement of equal educational opportunities are explored in depth and with a deep compassion for all parties involved Community Schools in Action Joy G. Dryfoos, Jane Quinn, Carol Barkin, 2005-03-24 A community school differs from other public schools in important ways it is generally open most of the time governed by a partnership between the school system and a community agency and offers a broad array of health and social services It often has an extended day before and after school features parent involvement programs and works for community enrichment How should such a school be structured How can its success be measured Community Schools in Action Lessons from a Decade of Practice presents the Children's Aid Society's CAS approach to creating community schools for the 21st century CAS began this work more than a decade ago and today operates thirteen such schools in three low income areas of New York City Through a technical assistance center operated by CAS hundreds of other schools across the country and the world are adapting this model Based on their own experiences working with community schools the contributors to the volume supply invaluable information about the selected program components They describe how and why CAS started its community school initiative and explain how CAS community schools are organized integrated with the school system sustained and evaluated The book also includes several contributions from experts outside of CAS a city superintendent an architect and the director of the Coalition for Community Schools Co editors Joy Dryfoos an authority on community schools and Jane Quinn CAS's Assistant Executive Director of Community Schools have teamed up with freelance writer Carol Barkin to provide commentary linking the various components together For those interested in transforming their schools into effective child and family centered institutions this book provides a detailed road map For those concerned with educational and social policy the book offers a unique example of research based action that has significant implications for our society Strategy Development Workshop for Public Education on Weight and Obesity, September 24-25, 1992, 1994 Strategy Development Workshop for Public Education on Weight and Obesity DIANE Publishing Company, 1995-10 Examines issues related to obesity in the U S Based on four panels The Epidemiology of Obesity Strategies for Obesity Prevention school based family based Communication Strategies for Educating the Public audience segmentation targeting children adolescents Contains detailed statistical information Charts tables Sociology of Education Stephen J.
