Lux Film Esthetique Et Systeme Dun Studi:

The Cinema of Federico Fellini Peter Bondanella, 2021-01-12 This major artistic biography of Federico Fellini shows how his exuberant imagination has been shaped by popular culture literature and his encounter with the ideas of C G Jung especially Jungian dream interpretation Covering Fellini s entire career the book links his mature accomplishments to his first employment as a cartoonist gagman and sketch artist during the Fascist era and his development as a leading neo realist scriptwriter Peter Bondanella thoroughly explores key Fellinian themes to reveal the director s growth not only as an artistic master of the visual image but also as an astute interpreter of culture and politics Throughout the book Bondanella draws on a new archive of several dozen manuscripts obtained from Fellini and his scriptwriters These previously unexamined documents allow a comprehensive treatment of Fellini s important part in the rise of Italian neorealism and the even more decisive role that he played in the evolution of Italian cinema beyond neorealism in the 1950s By probing Fellini s recurring themes Bondanella reinterprets the visual qualities of the director s body of work and also discloses in the films a critical and intellectual vitality often hidden by Fellini s reputation as a storyteller and entertainer After two chapters on Fellini s precinematic career the book covers all the films to date in analytical chapters arranged by topic Fellini and his growth beyond his neorealist apprenticeship dreams and metacinema literature and cinema Fellini and politics Fellini and the image of women and La voce della luna and the cinema of poetry

Italian Neorealist Cinema Christopher Wagstaff, 2007-12-29 The end of the Second World War saw the emergence of neorealist film in Italy In Italian Neorealist Cinema Christopher Wagstaff analyses three neorealist films that have had significant influence on filmmakers around the world Wagstaff treats these films as assemblies of sounds and images rather than as representations of historical reality If Roberto Rossellini s Roma citt aperta and Pais and Vittorio De Sica s Ladri di biciclette are still half a century after they were made among the most highly valued artefacts in the history of cinema Wagstaff suggests that this could be due to the aesthetic and rhetorical qualities of their assembled narratives performances locations lighting sound mise en scene and montage This volume begins by situating neorealist cinema in its historical industrial commercial and cultural context and makes available for the first time a large amount of data on post war Italian cinema Wagstaff offers a theoretical discussion of what it means to treat realist films as aesthetic artefacts before moving on to the core of the book which consists of three studies of the films under discussion Italian Neorealist Cinema not only offers readers in Film Studies and Italian Studies a radically new perspective on neorealist cinema and the Italian art cinema that followed it but theorises and applies a method of close analysis of film texts for those interested in aesthetics and rhetoric as well as cinema in general careers of both well known and less familiar figures shedding new light on the close relationship forged between cinema and society during a time of political transition and shifting national identities Broken Time, Fragmented Space Anna Maria Torriglia, 2002-12-15 Broken Time Fragmented Space A Cultural Map for Post war Italy examines how the artists and intellectuals of post war Italy dealt with the shameful heritage of their fascist upbringing and education by trying to craft a new cultural identity for themselves and the country The continuities between the culture of the fascist and post fascist periods were however far greater than what intellectuals were ready to admit creating an uncomfortable sometimes schizophrenic relation to time as a painful urge to erase the past Drawing on a variety of critical approaches Torriglia investigates the efforts to reconstruct a personal as well as a collective self by analyzing both canonical and lesser known cinematic and literary texts Organized around four main themes the use of language the interaction between personal and public spheres the perceptual categories of history and memory and the reconstruction of the female identity the study also includes historical introductions and sociological commentary that provides an extensive and captivating picture of the cultural production in 1950s Italy a period that has not yet been extensively studied Cinema and Fascism Steven Ricci, 2008-02 This study considers Italian filmmaking during the Fascist era and offers an original and revealing approach to the interwar years Steven Ricci directly confronts a long standing dilemma faced by cultural historians while made during a period of totalitarian government these films are neither propagandistic nor openly Fascist Instead the Italian Fascist regime attempted to build ideological consensus by erasing markers of class and regional difference and by circulating terms for an imaginary national identity Cinema and Fascism investigates the complex relationship between the totalitarian regime and Italian cinema It looks at the films themselves the industry and the role of cinema in daily life and offers new insights into this important but neglected period in cinema history Book cover The History of Italian Cinema Gian Piero Brunetta, 2009 Discusses renowned masters including Roberto Rossellini and Federico Fellini as well as directors lesser known outside Italy like Dino Risi and Ettore Scola The author examines overlooked Italian genre films such as horror movies comedies and Westerns and he also devotes attention to neglected periods like the Fascist era He illuminates the epic scope of Italian filmmaking showing it to be a powerful cultural force in Italy and leaving no doubt about its enduring influence abroad Encompassing the social political and technical aspects of the craft the author recreates the world of Italian cinema Film - An International Bibliography Malte Hagener, Michael Töteberg, 2016-12-16 Kommentierte Bibliografie Sie gibt Wissenschaftlern Studierenden und Journalisten zuverlässig Auskunft über rund 6000 internationale Veröffentlichungen zum Thema Film und Medien Die vorgestellten Rubriken reichen von Nachschlagewerk über Filmgeschichte bis hin zu Fernsehen Video Multimedia The Celluloid Atlantic Saverio Giovacchini, 2025-02-01 Offers a fresh look at American and Italian cinema in the postwar period The Celluloid Atlantic changes the way we look at American and Italian cinema in the postwar period In the thirty years following World War II American and Italian film industries came to be an integrated transnational unit rather than two separate nation based entities Written in jargon free prose and based on previously unexplored archival sources this book revisits the history of Neorealism World War II combat cinema the Western all Italiana and the career of John Kitzmiller the African American star who made Italy his home and was the first person of color to win the Best Actor Award at the Cannes Film Festival The Celluloid Atlantic makes the trailblazing argument that culturally hybrid genres like the so called spaghetti Western were less the exceptions than the norm Giovacchini argues that the waning of the Celluloid Atlantic in the early 1970s was due to the economic policies of the first Nixon administration specifically its important but largely neglected Revenue Act of 1971 as well as to the ideological debates between Europeans and Americans that intensified during the American intervention in Vietnam Lux film Alberto Farassino,Tatti Sanguineti,Jean A.
