A memoir by Aleksander Gladkov Aleksandr K. Gladkov, Max Hayward, 1977 The Zhivago Affair Peter Finn, Petra Couvée, 2015-04-28 The Zhivago Affair is the dramatic never before told story drawing on newly declassified files of how a forbidden book became a secret CIA weapon in the ideological battle between East and West In May 1956 an Italian publishing scout went to a village outside Moscow to visit Russia's greatest living poet Boris Pasternak He left carrying the manuscript of Pasternak's only novel suppressed by Soviet authorities From there the life of this extraordinary book entered the realm of the spy novel The CIA published a Russian language edition of Doctor Zhivago and smuggled it into the Soviet Union Copies were devoured in Moscow and Leningrad sold on the black market and passed from friend to friend Pasternak's funeral in 1960 was attended by thousands who defied their government to bid him farewell and his example launched the great tradition of the Soviet writer dissident First to obtain CIA files providing proof of the agency's involvement Peter Finn and Petra Couvée take us back to a remarkable Cold War era when literature had the power to stir the world With 8 pages of black and white illustrations The Routledge Encyclopedia of Jewish Writers of the Twentieth Century Sorrel Kerbel, 2004-11-23 Now available in paperback for the first time Jewish Writers of the Twentieth Century is both a comprehensive reference resource and a springboard for further study This volume examines canonical Jewish writers less well known authors of Yiddish and Hebrew and emerging Israeli writers includes entries on figures as diverse as Marcel Proust Franz Kafka Tristan Tzara Eugene Ionesco Harold Pinter Tom Stoppard Arthur Miller Saul Bellow Nadine Gordimer and Woody Allen contains introductory essays on Jewish American writing Holocaust literature and memoirs Yiddish writing and Anglo Jewish literature provides a chronology of twentieth century Jewish writers Compiled by expert contributors this book contains over 330 entries on individual authors each consisting of a biography a list of selected publications a scholarly essay on their work and suggestions for further reading Stalin and the Literary Intelligentsia, 1928-39 A. Kemp-Welch, 2016-07-27 Stalin's fascination with writers was fully reciprocated as the many Odes to Stalin show During the 1970s a hugely elaborated system was established for the regulation of belles lettres based on institutions ideas and individuals This original study ten years in preparation is based on extensive access to Soviet archives Much new evidence has been uncovered about the inner workings of cultural policy in the Stalin period and documents by Stalin himself are published for the first time Writer's Divided Self In Bulgakov's The Master And Margarita Riitta H Pittman, 1991-11-12 Women and Russian Culture Rosalind Marsh, 1998-11-01 The image of women in Russian culture has undergone profound changes from the origins of modern Russian literature in the eighteenth century until the Revolution of 1917 when women were a source of fascination for Russian writers to the socialist realism period during which public discussion of the representation of women in literature rapidly declined and the woman question was declared to have been resolved to a reappraisal of the position of women since the 1980s This collection of essays by leading western and Russian specialists contains new insights and updates previous research into the role of women in Russian culture in the last two centuries and contributes to two exciting and growing research areas the feminist critique of work by Russian male authors and the study of Russian women writers Moreover whereas most previous studies have concentrated on the aesthetic qualities of works by women writers this collection includes both close textual analysis and the discussion of biographical historical and political questions relating both to the representation of women and women s culture The aim is not to present a unified manifesto but rather to bring together a spectrum of approaches and positions within their common focus on the relationship between women and culture in Russia Contributors R Marsh A Barker J Andrew D Greene I Kazakova C Schuler S Graham K Hodgson N Kolchevska N Cornwell J Curtis M Katz M Ledkovsky P I Barta A Darmodekhina D Gillespie N Zhuravkina B Lanin S Carsten A Tait

The Caliban Complex: An Attempt at Self-Analysis Gary Freedman, 2016-10-24 The Caliban Complex An Attempt at Self Analysis is an autobiographical work

On the Barricades, and Off Melvin J. Lasky, The importance of Melvin J Lasky and of the journals he has edited Encounter in London Der Monat in Berlin has been beautifully captured by a young European intellectual Dr Michael Naumann Lasky s work quite apart from its value as a meditation is a testimony of personal courage This is the work of an outsider of a thinker in crazed times who ranks with the few who can apply that 16th century observation of Richard Hooker to themselves with every justification Posterity may know we have not loosely through silence permitted things to pass away as in a dream On The Barricades And Off is an extraordinary collection of writings by Lasky dealing with Revolutionaries and Ideologies with the German Problem and the Russian Question with Travelling and Climates of Opinion But there is nothing eclectic or random about this effort Indeed the essays are stitched together by an impassioned dedication to the open society and no less a universal even handed critique of all closed societies Born in New York City Melvin J Lasky has been co editor of Encounter in London called the most brilliant European periodical since he succeeded Irving Kristol in 1958 He was educated at the City College of New York at the University of Michigan and Columbia University He was the literary editor of the New Leader before serving in World War II as a combat historian in France and Germany After the war he was a foreign correspondent for the New York Times The Reporter Partisan Review and other publications His work as an editor and writer reflects that unusual group of cosmopolitan scholars and men of letters who emerged from the ashes of conflict to help recreate the intellectual climate for democracy in Europe indirectly reestablishing transatlantic critical standards in America

Nightingale Fever Ronald Hingley, 2021-06-15 This book first published in 1981 examines the dramatic and tragic stories of four of the greatest Russian poets of the twentieth century their struggle to survive the Stalin years and their dedication to their art despite considerable personal danger Interweaving the stories of Anna Akhmatova Osip Mandelstam Boris Pasternak and Marina Tsvetayeva the noted Russian scholar Ronald Hingley traces their education the literary schools and traditions with which they were associated the impact of World War I and the Bolshevik Revolution on their work and the emergence of their distinct and disparate styles He examines how the four influenced and affected each other as colleague critic or rival friend or lover and as their fates were increasingly caught up in the aftermath of the Russian Revolution how they came to depend on each other for solace and refuge This book makes vivid the historic conflict between artists and political authority and shows how they came into conflict with the Stalinist totalitarian regime intent on their destruction Ronald Hingley s brilliant narrative and superb translations of many of the major poems give us a haunting story of artistic achievement and heroic resistance Reference Guide to Russian Literature Neil Cornwell,2013-12-02 First Published in 1998 This volume will surely be regarded as the standard guide to Russian literature for some considerable time to come It is therefore confidently recommended for addition to reference libraries be they academic or public

Autobiography and Imagination John Pilling,2015-08-20 Originally published in 1981 This book looks at the autobiographical work of nine twentieth century writers Henry Adams Henry James W B Yeats Boris Pasternak Leiris Jean Paul Sartre Vladimir Nabokov Henry Green and Adrian Stokes The author argues that often the writer has shaped his life through his craft coming to understand the pattern of his own existence through the formalism of language In each case the writer stamps his personality on the work by mean of a distinctive verbal surface whose discipline enables him to evade narrow egotism and forces both reader and writer into an act of collaboration and corroboration Written at a time when criticism was turning to focus on the relation between the reader and the text this study added a provocative dimension to the debate and is still an important read today The Jewish Spectator ,1979
