Accidental Diplomat, The: The Autobiography Of Maurice Baker Maurice Baker, 2014-07-25 For the life of a diplomat is often a variation of routine boredom and exhilarating crises Maurice Baker is an academic and one of Singapore's pioneer diplomats. Growing up in colonial governed Malaya and Singapore, his profound love for great literature works inspired him to obtain an honors in English from King's College London in 1948. Despite the cruelties faced during and after the Second World War, Baker's humble beginnings and political consciousness earned him the friendship and respect of many diplomats during his missions to India in 1967, Malaysia in 1969, Philippines in 1977, and back to Malaysia in 1980 before retiring from his career as a diplomat in 1988. Between his diplomatic missions, Baker returned to Singapore in 1972 to head the Department of English at the University of Singapore for five years. This is Baker's story of how he came to be The Accidental Diplomat. With occasional poems and a sense of humor, he candidly recounts the colourful romances of his life to his enriching encounters of diplomatic relations. His portrayals of admiration for great leaders and men paint a vivid picture of the qualities that guided his beliefs, proving that he was by no means an Accidental Diplomat in the eyes of others.

Rethinking Place through Literary Form Rupsa Banerjee, Nathaniel Cadle, 2022-05-30 Rethinking Place Through Literary Form regards the relationship between place and linguistic form as challenging real and perceived configurations of place and renegotiating geopolitically determined categories of the centre and periphery. The volume argues that the rise of scattered communities, displaced physically and psychologically by urban and alienated geographies, necessitates linguistic negotiations of one's locatedness in place as the chief means of uncovering and re-building identity. By looking at narrative re-imaginings of forgotten and interrupted intimacies between habitation and place from diverse parts of the world, the twelve chapters address the growing need to expand and alter approaches to literary representations of modernity and modes of self-location.

Culture, Empire, and the Question of Being Modern C. J. Wan-ling Wee, 2003-01-01 Culture, Empire, and the Question of Being Modern explores the problematic formation of national culture within modern English society. In this ambitious work of post-colonial and cultural theory, C. J. Wan-ling Wee investigates the complex interaction between a modern industrialized metropolitan and progressively rational English national culture and a nationalistic imperial discourse interested in territorial expansion and the valorization of an idealized agrarian past Starting with the Victorian era the work documents the complex relationship of concepts such as home and frontier and Englishness and colonial through an analysis of key literary cultural figures in their historical contexts Rudyard Kipling Charles Kingsley T S Eliot and V S Naipaul Wee brings the discussion of modernity into the present with a consideration of post imperial Singapore a neo traditionalist modern society that reworks many of the colonial tropes and contradictions to investigate the ambiguities and contradictions revealed in the West's engagement with modernity

Pluralist Constitutions in Southeast Asia Jaclyn L Neo, Ngoc Son Bui, 2019-04-04 This book examines the presence of ethnic religious political and ideational pluralities in Southeast Asian societies and how their respective constitutions respond to these pluralities Countries covered in this book are Brunei Cambodia Indonesia Laos Malaysia Myanmar the Philippines Singapore Thailand and Vietnam The chapters examine first the range of pluralist constitutional values and ideas embodied in the constitutions secondly the pluralist sources of constitutional norms thirdly the design of constitutional structures responding to various pluralities and fourthly the construction and interpretation of bills of rights in response to existing pluralities The pluralist constitution is thus one that recognises internal pluralities within society and makes arrangements to accommodate rather than eliminate these pluralities

Black Writers From South Africa Jane Watts, 1989-10-02

Speak, Silence Carole Angier, 2021-08-19 A SPECTATOR NEW STATESMAN AND THE TIMES BOOK OF THE YEAR The best biography I have read in years Philippe Sands Spectacular Observer A remarkable portrait Guardian W G Sebald was one of the most extraordinary and influential writers of the twentieth century Through books including The Emigrants Austerlitz and The Rings of Saturn he pursued an original literary vision that combined fiction history autobiography and photography and addressed some of the most profound themes of contemporary literature the burden of the Holocaust memory loss and exile The first biography to explore his life and work Speak Silence pursues the true Sebald through the memories of those who knew him and through the work he left behind This quest takes Carole Angier from Sebald's birth as a second generation German at the end of the Second World War through his rejection of the poisoned inheritance of the Third Reich to his emigration to England exploring the choice of isolation and exile that drove his work It digs deep into a creative mind on the edge finding profound empathy and paradoxical ruthlessness saving humour and an elusive mix of fact and fiction in his life as well as work The result is a unique ferociously original portrait

The Art of the State Christopher Hood, 2000 Bringing a new conceptual framework and valuable historical perspective to various approaches to public management this study uses cultural theory to show why ideas about how to manage government are inherently plural and contradictory

Writing Talk Alex Hamilton, 2012 In his long career in literary journalism Alex Hamilton has probably met and talked in depth to more of our great writers than anyone else from the most critically acclaimed to the most hard nosed bestsellers from novelists to cartoonists and in every genre from Thrillers and Whodunnits to Short Stories from Poetry to Science Fiction This selection from a life's work gives us a stimulating and rare insight into the minds and lives of some of the most fascinating creators of our modern culture It's a book that contains many surprises in the revelations given by some of the authors about their struggles and victories the serious or humorous commitments made by them and their addiction to the kind of fiction they like to write The reader will soon realise that no two of these eighty-five featured authors such as Kurt Vonnegut Angela Carter Stephen King Daphne du Maurier Ian McEwan Jorge Luis Borges Graham Greene or Margaret Atwood are alike Splendidly informative and serious Writing Talk is also often very funny a book to dip into as the mood takes or to dive into hungrily It will appeal to those with a passion for books and for the people who have written them I've been fortunate to talk to so many marvellous writers Gathering some of these conversations into a book rather than their brief life in a daily newspaper offers a chance for readers to share my pleasure and to introduce a new generation to some past greats says Alex Hamilton behind his reason to create Writing Talk

Man-Woman Bonding In Socio-Cultural Indian Concept Dr. Kajal Thakur, 2015-05-12 Literature is one of the fine arts that employ language as medium of expression It is essentially an expression of human feelings emotions sufferings and joys Good literature is never outdated and is unbounded by space and time It has permanence It is also universal in the sense that it appeals to readers of any nationality or linguistic ability Language or culture may be different but human sentiments remain essentially similar in all literatures of the world

The Asian Modern C.J.W.-L. Wee,2007-10-01 How does one comprehend the phenomenon of the modernization of an Asian society in a globalized East Asian context With this opening question the author proceeds to give an account of how the modernization processes for postcolonial societies in Asia such as those of India Malaysia and Singapore are fraught with collaborations and conflicts between different socio political historical economic and cultural agents Such ambivalent dynamics contribute to what Wee argues as a revealing distortion of the extant models of Western modernity which is nonetheless rooted in the politics of worldwide capitalism Wee s narrative refuses to accept the uncritical interpretation of the modernizing processes in Asia as liberation from the hegemony of Euro American capitalism But neither is Wee prepared to concede that all cultural initiatives in the postcolonial societies are therefore denied all power to devise alternative forms of expression in the face of this haunting presence It is the persistent effort to see the many faces of modernization in Asia in their full complexity that sets this study apart Readers will discover that what seems to be the modernization of a single geopolitical entity is inevitably linked to the dynamics of various agents in other locations at different times which makes us reflect on the existence of the many distortions in our societies
