The True Story of Alice B. Toklas Anna Linzie, 2006-04 In this original and intriguing study Anna Linzie examines three mid twentieth century texts never before treated as interrelated in a book length work of literary criticism Gertrude Stein s The Autobiography of Alice B Toklas 1933 and Alice B Toklas s The Alice B Toklas Cook Book 1954 and What Is Remembered 1963 Taking these three texts as intertexts or as an assemblage of the true story of Alice B Toklas Linzie challenges assumptions about primary authorship and singular identity that have continued to limit lesbian and feminist rereadings of autobiography as a genre and of Stein and Toklas as writers and historical figures The True Story of Alice B Toklas explores how the concept of autobiography as a primarily referential genre is challenged and transformed in relation to autobiographical texts written about the same person the same life but differently by different writers at different points in time The concept of one true story is deconstructed in the process as Linzie modifies Homi K Bhabha s almost the same but not quite not white for the purposes of this particular study as almost the same but not quite not straight The investigation moves simultaneously on the planes of textuality and sexuality in order to provisionally articulate a lesbian autobiographical subject in Linzie s reading of these three texts Linzie s study fills a gap in literary criticism where Stein s companion and her work have been more or less neglected conceptualizing the Stein Toklas sexual textual relationship as fundamentally reciprocal The True Story of Alice B Toklas provides a new critical perspective on Toklas as indispensable to Stein s literary production a cultural laborer in her own right and a writer of her own books Making a significant contribution to recent lesbian feminist reconceptualizations of the genre of autobiography this study will fascinate Stein and Toklas scholars as well as those interested in queer and autobiography studies

Dateline-Liberated Paris Ronald Weber, 2019-04-05 Vividly capturing the heady times in the waning months of World War II Ronald Weber follows the exploits of Allied reporters as they flooded into liberated Paris after four dark years of Nazi occupation He traces the remarkable adventures of the men and women who lived worked and played in the legendary H tel Scribe set in a highly fashionable part of the largely undamaged city Press jeeps and trailers packed the street outside while inside the hotel was completely booked with hundreds of correspondents The busiest spot was the dining area where the clatter of typewriters combined with shouts of correspondents needing hot water to brew coffee from military powder But the basement level bar was the hotel s top attraction where famed war correspondents like Ernie Pyle Walter Cronkite A J Liebling Ernest Hemingway Martha Gellhorn Janet Flanner Lee Miller Marguerite Higgins Irwin Shaw Edward Kennedy

Charles Collingwood Robert Capa and many others held court while in the company of military censors and top brass Weber uncovers the struggles between correspondents and Allied officials over censorship and the release of information the heated press chaos surrounding the war's end and the drama of the second German surrender orchestrated by the Russians in shattered Berlin The elation of total victory was mixed with the abrupt emptiness of a task finished While work on the Continent remained for journalists it now dealt with the slog of the occupation of Germany rather than the blood and glory of war Yet Weber shows there were many reasons to carry on after VE Day in this delightfully entertaining account of the hotel where correspondents were regularly briefed on the war and its aftermath wrote their stories had them transmitted to international media outlets and rarely neglected the pleasures of a Paris reborn until December 1 1945 when the Hotel Scribe was officially vacated by the American military

Bunk Kevin Young, 2017-11-14 Longlisted for the National Book Award for Nonfiction

There Kevin Young goes again giving us books we greatly need cleverly disguised as books we merely want Unexpectedly essential Marlon James Award winning poet and critic Kevin Young tours us through a rogue's gallery of hoaxers plagiarists forgers and fakers from the humbug of P T Barnum and Edgar Allan Poe to the unrepentant bunk of JT LeRoy and Donald Trump Bunk traces the history of the hoax as a peculiarly American phenomenon examining what motivates hucksters and makes the rest of us so gullible Disturbingly Young finds that fakery is woven from stereotype and suspicion race being the most insidious American hoax of all He chronicles how Barnum came to fame by displaying figures like Joice Heth a black woman whom he pretended was the 161 year old nursemaid to George Washington and What Is It an African American man Barnum professed was a newly discovered missing link in evolution Bunk then turns to the hoaxing of history and the ways that forgers plagiarists and journalistic fakers invent backstories and falsehoods to sell us lies about themselves and about the world in our own time from pretend Native Americans Grey Owl and Nasdijj to the deadly imposture of Clark Rockefeller from the made up memoirs of James Frey to the identity theft of Rachel Dolezal In this brilliant and timely work Young asks what it means to live in a post factual world of truthiness where everything is up for interpretation and everyone is subject to a pervasive cynicism that damages our ideas of reality fact and art
