Outside History 1980 1990 Selected Poems:

Outside History Eavan Boland, 2012-11-15 An essential volume by one of our most esteemed poets Boland is an original dazzlingly gifted writer Uncompromising intellect wry perception and verbal brilliance A wonderfully elegant and sensual writer keenly attuned to the pleasures of form and sound She is as musically gifted and as uncompromisingly intelligent as Seamus Heaney and deserves comparable attention David Walker Field

Outside History Eavan Boland, 1990 A History of Twentieth-Century British Women's Poetry Jane Dowson, Alice Entwistle, 2005-05-19 Publisher Description 100 Years of the American Dream Michael Kearney, 2022-09-26 This collection offers examinations of the concept of the American Dream across a broad and diverse range of works The analytical methods utilized by the authors who are all clearly extremely knowledgeable experts in their fields are as unique as the content they examine is varied Each chapter offers innovative insights which while founded on literary critique transcend the field of literature and touch upon issues related to economics education gender immigration psychology race and religion to name but a few

Ireland and the Americas Philip Coleman, James Byrne, Jason King, 2008-02-01 This work is a distinctive multidisciplinary encyclopedia covering the cultural political economic musical and literary impact that Ireland and the nations of the Americas have had on one another since the time of Brendan the Navigator Ireland and the Americas Culture Politics and History aims to broaden the traditional notion of Irish American beyond Boston New York and Chicago In addition to full coverage of Irish culture in those settings it reveals the pervasive Irish influence in everything from the settling of the American West to the spread of Christianity throughout the hemisphere to Irish involvement in revolutionary movements from the American colonies to Mexico to South America In addition the encyclopedia shows the profound impact of Irish Americans on their homeland in everything from art and literature informed by the emigrant experience to efforts by Irish Americans to influence Irish politics Ranging from colonial times to the present and informed by the surge of academic interest in the past 30 years Ireland and the Americas is the definitive resource on the profound ties that bind the cultures of Ireland the United States Canada and Latin America

Object Lessons: The Life of the Woman and the Poet in Our Time Eavan Boland, 1996-07-17 In this important prose work one of our major poets explores through autobiography and argument a woman's life in Ireland together with a poet's work Eavan Boland beautifully uncovers the powerful drama of how these lives affect one another how the tradition of womanhood and the historic vocation of the poet act as revealing illuminations of the other

Encyclopedia of British Writers, 1800 to the Present George Stade, Karen Karbiener, 2010-05-12 Contains alphabetically arranged entries that provide biographical and critical information on major and lesser known nineteenth and twentieth century British writers and includes articles on key schools of literature and genres

The Historians Eavan Boland, 2020-10-13 Winner of the 2020 Costa Poetry Award A forceful and moving final volume from one of the most

masterful poets of the twentieth century Throughout her nearly sixty year career acclaimed poet Eavan Boland came to be known for her exquisite ability to weave myth history and the life of an ordinary woman into mesmerizing poetry She was an essential voice in both feminist and Irish literature praised for her edgy precision an uncanny sympathy and warmth an unsettling sense of history J D McClatchy Her final volume The Historians is the culmination of her signature themes exploring the ways in which the hidden sometimes all but erased stories of women s lives can powerfully revise our sense of the past Two women burning letters in a back garden A poet who died too young A mother s parable to her daughter Boland listens to women who have long had no agency in the way their stories were told in the title poem she writes Say the word history I see your mother mine Their hands are full of words Addressing Irish suffragettes in the final poem Boland promises We will not leave you behind a promise that animates each poem in this radiant collection These extraordinary intimate narratives cling to the future through memory anger and love in ways that rebuke the official record we call history

A Woman Without a Country Eavan Boland, 2014-10-27 A powerful work that examines how even without country or settled identity a legacy of love can endure Eavan Boland is considered one of the finest and boldest poets of the last half century by Poetry Review This stunning new collection A Woman Without a Country looks at how we construct one another and how nationhood and history can weave through reflect and define the life of an individual Themes of mother daughter and generation echo throughout these extraordinary poems as they examine how even without country or settled identity a legacy of love can endure From Talking to my Daughter Late at Night We have a tray a pot of tea a scone This is the hour When one thing pours itself into another The gable of our house stored in shadow A spring planet bending ice Into an absolute of light Your childhood ended years ago There is No path back to it

From Word to Canvas V.G. Julie Rajan, 2009-03-26 From Word to Canvas Appropriations of Myth in Women s Aesthetic Production is an innovative collection of essays on female aesthetic production and myth examining the ways in which women artists and writers utilize myth to negotiate their perceptions of feminine identity and feminine representation in an increasingly complex and culturally hybrid world The featured essays and artistic contributions address a variety of contemporary female productions including literature performance and visual art in a markedly global scope Representing a wide range of cultures languages geographic locales and social contexts from Jewish Hindu and Kenyan German through Irish Italian American to Vietnamese folktales this diversified selection underscores the agency of the feminine gaze across a historical and geopolitical span a gaze through which myths from various cultures and different cultural amalgams speak to us with force and with significance The potency of this gaze is linked to the potential of myth simultaneously to encompass and compress history and to offer the result as a backdrop against which the move from word to canvas or from a mythic tale to its aesthetic appropriation is performed in female aesthetic production

Shakespeare and Twentieth-Century Irish Drama Rebecca Steinberger, 2017-11-28 Exploring the influence of Shakespeare on drama in Ireland the author examines works by two representative playwrights

Sean O Casey 1880 1964 and Brian Friel 1929 Shakespeare s plays grounded in history nationalism and imperialism are resurrected rewritten and reinscribed in twentieth century Irish drama while Irish plays in turn historicize the Subject Object relationship of England and Ireland In particular the author argues Irish dramatists appropriations of Shakespeare were both a reaction to the language of domination and a means to support their revision of the Irish as Subject This study reveals that Shakespeare s plays embody an empathy for the Irish Other As she investigates Shakespeare s commiseration with marginalized peoples and the anticolonial underpinnings in his texts the author situates Shakespeare between the English discourse that claims him and the Irish discourse that assimilates him Aphrodite and Venus in Myth and Mimesis Nora Clark,2015-04-01 Aphrodite and Venus in Myth and Mimesis is a broad flexible source book of comparative literature and cultural studies It promotes the wide ranging presence and impact of prominent idiosyncratic personalities in fabled goddess mythology and its emphatic notions of endearment and allure The book brings together seven hundred acknowledged sources drawn from successive historical global and literary eras including principal commentaries along with factual information and important renditions in art prose and verse within and beyond mainstream western culture A lengthy detailed introduction presents a copious documented preview of the viable adaptation and mimesis of divine characterization and its respective centrality from the long distant past to the present day Myth rarely latent demonstrates varied modes of expression and open ended flexibility throughout the six comprehensive chapters which illuminate and probe in turn aspects of the ideological presence sensibilities trials and triumphs and interventions of the goddess whether sacred or profane Particular literary extracts and episodes range across ancient cultures alongside quite recent expressions of hermeneutics blending myth with the contemporary in the multi layered reception or admonishment of the goddess whether by one designation or the other As such this book is wholly relevant to all stages of the evolution and expansion of a dynamic European literary culture and its leading authors and personalities Dooble Tongue Jeffrey Skoblow,2001 Dooble Tongue is an imaginative meditation on Robert Burns and Scottish poetry as well as a book that engages and contests the customary assumptions and practices of literary criticism Beginning with an examination of two contemporary Scottish poets W N Herbert and Robert Crawford and moving back in time to the Scottish Modernist master Hugh MacDiarmid then further back to Burns himself the study of the Scottish tradition is situated in a broad historical context The focus throughout is on language particularly Scots more broadly vernacular literature in relation to culturally elite literary and critical modes as well as on questions of literary nationalism and the cultural politics of poetic discourse Encyclopedia of Feminist Literature Mary Ellen Snodgrass,2015-04-22 Presents articles on feminist literature including significant authors themes and history The Shield of Achilles and the Poetics of Ekphrasis Andrew Sprague Becker,1995-03-21 In The Shield of Achilles and the Poetics of Ekphrasis Becker explores how Homeric poetry shapes its own reception how Homer s reaction to a visual image creates his audience s response to a literary description Becker also enters into a fiercely raging literary debate about the modernist self conscious elements of Homeric narrative Wolfe's History: A Family Story Brendan Wolfe, 2019-07-18 Wolfe's History by the author of Finding Bix 2017 wraps its arms around a single sprawling Irish and American family In an opening essay Wolfe introduces a cast of larger than life characters from an Old West barkeep and a Gold Rush pharmacist to an IRA fugitive and a British recruit whose loyalties are tested during the Easter Rising Together these fast talking writerly cousins live intricate lives that move quickly between past and present complete with periodic and sudden outbursts of violence A man is set ablaze on the prairie A Jesuit is tortured in Dublin Castle In the author's sure hands their stories are converted into something broader and more searching than just a single family's journey He wonders what binds the Wolfes together in the first place and whether the experiences of his own immediate family subvert the connections he feels with his ancestors A biographical dictionary and fifty pages of family trees complete this impressive volume

Writing With, Through, and Beyond the Text Rebecca Luce-Kapler, 2004-07-19 Writing With Through and Beyond the Text An Ecology of Language elaborates an understanding of writing its influences on our interpretations of experience and identity and its potential for enabling individuals to learn about and connect to the world beyond themselves Rather than considering writing a process the author describes it as a system an ecology that engages the individual in a variety of socially constituted and interacting systems The book examines the pedagogical and curricular implications of this approach to writing considering what it means to write and teach writing in ways that understand and acknowledge the ecological character of writing This is an illuminating text for a wide audience of faculty professionals and graduate students in English writing education and women's studies feminist theory Eavan Boland Jody Allen Randolph, 2013-11-26 In this powerful and authoritative study Jody Allen Randolph provides the fullest account yet of the work of a major figure in twentieth century Irish literature as well as in contemporary women's writing Eavan Boland's achievement in changing the map of Irish poetry is tracked and analyzed from her first poems to the present The book traces the evolution of that achievement guiding the reader through Boland's early attachment to Yeats her growing unease with the absence of women's writing her encounter with pioneering American poets like Sylvia Plath Elizabeth Bishop and Adrienne Rich and her eventual challenging amendments in poetry and prose to Ireland's poetic tradition Using research from private papers the book also traces a time of upheaval and change in Ireland exploring Boland's connection to Mary Robinson in a chapter that details the nexus of a woman president and a woman poet in a country that was resistant to both Finally this book invites the reader to share a compelling perspective on the growth of a poet described by one critic as Ireland's first great woman poet Women

Ageing. Literature and Experience Brian J. Worsfold, 2005 Se puede llegar a concebir el envejecimiento como un proceso diferencial según el género Aspectos analizados en diferentes narraciones sobre el envejecimiento femenino demuestran que las miradas al espejo revisiones de vida y la expresión de la sexualidad son rasgos distintivos del proceso vital femenino En este libro se revelan los sentimientos las preocupaciones las prioridades y las aspiraciones que moldean las distintas fases de
