Looking for Mary Magdalene Anna Fedele, 2013 Winner of the Award for Excellence in Religion Analytical Descriptive Studies from the American Academy of Religion Anna Fedele offers a sensitive ethnography of alternative pilgrimages to French Catholic shrines dedicated to Saint Mary Magdalene Drawing on more than three years of fieldwork she describes how pilgrims from Italy Spain Britain and the United States interpret Catholic figures symbols and sites according to theories derived from the international Neopagan movement Fedele pays particular attention to the pilgrims life stories rituals and reading She examines how they devise their rituals how anthropological literature has influenced them and why this kind of spirituality is increasingly prevalent in the West These pilgrims cultivate spirituality in interaction with each other and with textual sources Jungian psychology Goddess mythology and indigenous traditions merge into a corpus of practices centered upon the worship of the Goddess and Mother Earth and the sacralization of the reproductive cycle Their rituals present a critique of Roman Catholicism and the medical establishment and question contemporary discourse on gender Religion and Tourism Michael Stausberg, 2012-11-12 This book explores the dynamic interaction between religion and tourism in the modern world It considers questions such as do travellers leave their religion at home when they are touring and what happens if not what are the relationships between tourism and pilgrimage what happens to religious performances places and festivals that function as tourism attractions Other chapters examine religious theme parks wellness and spa tourism the roles played by tourist guides guidebooks and religious souvenirs and the role of tourism as a major arena of religious encounters in the contemporary world Surveying the growing body of work in the field Michael Stausberg argues that tourism should be a major focus of research within religious studies Claiming Sacred Ground Adrian J. Ivakhiv, 2001-07-26 Claiming Sacred Ground Pilgrims and Politics at Glastonbury and Sedona Adrian J Ivakhiv A study of people and politics at two New Age spiritual sites In this richly textured account Adrian Ivakhiv focuses on the activities of pilgrim migrants to Glastonbury England and Sedona Arizona He discusses their efforts to encounter and experience the spirit or energy of the land and to mark out its significance by investing it with sacred meanings Their endeavors are presented against a broad canvas of cultural and environmental struggles associated with the incorporation of such geographically marginal places into an expanding global cultural economy Ivakhiv sees these contested and heterotopic landscapes as the nexus of a complex web of interestes and longings from millennial anxieties and nostalgic re imaginings of history and prehistory to real estate power grabs contending religious visions and the free play of ideas from science pseudo science and popular culture Looming over all this is the nonhuman life of these landscapes anotherhness that alternately reveals and conceals itself behind a pagenant of beliefs images and place myths A significant contribution to scholarship on alternative spirituality sacred space and the politics of natural landscapes Claiming Sacred Ground will interest scholars and students of environmental and cultural studies and the sociology of religious movements and pilgrimage Non specialist

readers will be stimulated by the cultural ecological and spiritual dimensions of extraordinary natural landscapes

Bikers converge at the Vietnam Veterans Memorial in Washington D C Thousands flock to a Nevada desert to burn a towering effigy And the hopeless but hopeful ill journey to Lourdes as they have for centuries Although pilgrimage may seem an antiquated religious ritual it remains a vibrant activity in the modern world as pilgrims combine traditional motives such as seeking a cure for physical or spiritual problems with contemporary searches for identity or interpersonal connection That pilgrimage continues to exercise such a strong attraction is testimony to the power it continues to hold for those who undertake these sacred journeys This volume brings together anthropological and interdisciplinary perspectives on these persistent forms of popular religion to expand our understanding of the role of the traditional practice of pilgrimage in what many believe to be an increasingly secular world Focusing on the healing dimensions of pilgrimage the authors present case studies grounded in specific cultures and pilgrimage traditions to help readers understand the many therapeutic resources pilgrimage provides for people around the world The chapters examine a variety of pilgrimage forms both religious and non religious from Nepalese and Huichol shamanism pilgrimage to Catholic journeys to shrines and feast days to Nevada s Burning Man festival These diverse cases suggest a range of meanings embodied in the concept of healing itself from curing physical ailments and redefining the self to redressing social suffering and healing the wounds of the past Collectively and individually the chapters raise important questions about the nature of ritual in general and healing through pilgrimage in particular and seek to illuminate why so many participants find pilgrimage a compelling way to address the problem of suffering They also illustrate how pilgrimage exerts its social and political influence at the personal local and national levels as well as providing symbols and processes that link people across social and spiritual boundaries By examining the persistence of pilgrimage as a significant source of personal engagement with spirituality Pilgrimage and Healing shows that the power of pilgrimage lies in its broad transformative powers As our world increasingly adopts a secular and atheistic perspective in many domains of experience it reminds us that for many spiritual quest remains a potent force
