Urban Space and Late Twentieth-Century New York Literature C. Neculai,2014-03-06 Interdisciplinary in nature this project draws on fiction non fiction and archival material to theorize urban space and literary cultural production in the context of the United States and New York City Spanning from the mid 1970s fiscal crisis to the 1987 Market Crash New York writing becomes akin to geographical fieldwork in this rich study The Gramophone ,1999 Ben Jonson's London Fran C. Chalfant,2008-07-01 Ben Jonson was a Londoner He lived there from infancy left for only brief periods of travel and used various locales in or near London as the settings for eleven of his seventeen plays Ben Jonson's London opens with a discussion of the purpose scope and success of Jonson's use of London settings as Placenames Chalfant demonstrates that Ben Jonson brought the same judicious erudite and dramatically functional insight to his handling of London topography from overall settings to very brief mentions as he did to his well known use of classical mythological and iconographical detail

The Century Dictionary and Cyclopaedia ,1906 Building Cosmopolis John S. Partington,2017-03-02 Alongside his reputation as an author H G Wells is also remembered as a leading political commentator of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Building Cosmopolis presents the worldview of Wells as developed between his student days at the Normal School of Science 1884 1887 and his death in 1946 During this time Wells developed a unique political philosophy grounded on the one hand in the theory of Ethical Evolution as propounded by his professor T H Huxley and on the other in late Victorian socialism From this basis Wells developed a worldview which rejected class struggle and nationalism and embraced global co operation for the maintenance of peace and the advancement of the human species in a world society Although committed to the idea of a world state Wells became more antagonistic towards the nation state as a political unit during the carnage of the First World War He began moving away from the position of an internationalist to one of a cosmopolitan in 1916 and throughout the inter war period he advanced the notion of regional and ultimately functional world government to a greater and greater extent Wells first demonstrated a functionalist society in Men Like Gods 1923 and further elaborated this system of government in most of his works both fictional and non fictional throughout the rest of his life Following an examination of the development of his political thought from inception to fruition this study argues that Wells s political thoughts rank him alongside David Mitrany as one of the two founders of the functionalist school of international relations an acknowledgement hitherto denied to Wells by scholars of world government theory
