Copyright Office, 1953 Felix Aprahamian Felix Aprahamian, 2015 A picture of a highly creative music critic notable for his humane commentary as well as his promotion of contemporary French and British music The music critic Felix Aprahamian 1914 2005 was a remarkable self made man whose enormous influence in musical circles was deeply founded in his practical experience of promoting music in London notably British and French composers Early on he became interested in the organ and was soon corresponding with the leading French names of the day Andr Marchal Charles Tournemire Maurice Durufl and the young Olivier Messiaen In 1933 the nineteen year old Aprahamian visited Frederick Delius in France and while in Paris met the aged Charles Marie Widor The surviving diaries published here complete for the first time document these events in detail During the Second World War he acted as concert director of the London Philharmonic Orchestra was the guiding spirit behind the influential Concerts de Musique Fran aise and became assistant to Sir Thomas Beecham After the liberation of Paris a wide circle of outstanding

French musicians and composers including Francis Poulenc, Messiaen, Pierre Bernac and Pierre Fournier became personal friends. Aprahamian made his name as music critic on The Sunday Times where from 1948 to 1989 he was required reading. He helped numerous young musicians to develop their careers and was associated with many musical organizations, notably the Delius Trust and Society. Prefaced by an illuminating biography, this collection sheds new light on Aprahamian's life and work. His diaries and BBC broadcasts uniquely illuminate London concert life from the 1930s to the 1960s, while his articles on many composers and musicians, nearly all friends and colleagues, testify to his promotion of French and British music. Examples of his record and concert reviews are included, and the book evokes the almost vanished world of a music criticism both humane and strict, paying tribute to music's spontaneous and absolute qualities. It will be of interest to anyone following London concert life in the twentieth century.

Daniels' Orchestral Music David Daniels, David W. Oertel, David A. Rahbee, 2022-06-30

Daniels Orchestral Music is the gold standard for all orchestral professionals: from conductors, librarians, programmers, students, administrators and publishers to even instructors seeking to research and plan an orchestral program, whether for a single concert or a full season. This sixth edition, celebrating the fiftieth anniversary of the original edition, has the largest increase in entries for a new edition of Orchestral Music: 65% more works (roughly 14,050 total) and 85% more composers (2,202 total) compared to the fifth edition. Composition details are gleaned from personal inspection of scores by orchestral conductors, making it a reliable one-stop resource for repertoire. Users will find all the familiar and useful features of the fifth edition as well as significant updates and corrections. Works are organized alphabetically by composer and title, containing information on duration, instrumentation, date of composition, publication, movements, and special accommodations, if any. Individual appendices make it easy to browse works with chorus, solo voices, or solo instruments. Other appendices list orchestral works by instrumentation and duration, as well as works intended for youth concerts. Also included are significant anniversaries of composers, composer groups for thematic programming, a title index, an introduction to Nieweg charts, essential bibliography, internet sources, institutions and organizations, and a directory of publishers necessary for the orchestra professional. This trusted work, used around the globe, is a must-have for orchestral professionals, whether conductors or orchestra librarians, administrators involved in artistic planning, music students considering orchestral conducting, authors of program notes, publishers and music dealers, and instructors of conducting.
