Ancestral Lines by Jeremy Morgan Worrell

This artwork is a visual representation of the generational lines that carry through my mob. When I think of the next generation, I think towards my ancestors—Lucy Wright, Snook Wright, Nanna Wright—through to my Nanna Audie and my Mother Vanessa. Looking back gives me the strength and vision to look forward. Each figure in the painting is tied to family lines, like songlines, reflecting what they knew and what they passed on. The first represents love, hunting, and tracking. The second reflects care, weaving, and love. The third shows the two combined, while the final two carry unfinished elements—symbols of knowledge and care in motion. Above them sits the essence of Country—settling skies and a giant moon over Emuwaile. It is by the fire, under these cool skies, where the next generation finds their strength, vision, and legacy.
