Museum at Christmas MDCCCLVI. Henry Stevens (Jr.),1866 Sandino's Communism Donald C. Hodges,2014-02-01

Drawing on previously unknown or unassimilated sources Donald C Hodges here presents an entirely new interpretation of the politics and philosophy of Augusto C Sandino the intellectual progenitor of Nicaragua s Sandinista revolution The first part of the book investigates the political sources of Sandino s thought in the works of Babeuf Buonarroti Blanqui Proudhon Bakunin Most Malatesta Kropotkin Ricardo Flores Mag n and Lenin a mixed legacy of pre Marxist and non Marxist authoritarian and libertarian communists The second half of the study scrutinizes the philosophy of nature and history that Sandino made his own Hodges delves deeply into this philosophy as the supreme and final expression of Sandino s communism and traces its sources in the Gnostic and millenarian occult undergrounds This results in a rich study of the ways in which Sandino s revolutionary communism and communist spirituality intersect a spiritual politics that Hodges presents as more realistic than the communism of Karl Marx While accepting the current wisdom that Sandino was a Nicaraguan liberal and social reformer Hodges also makes a persuasive case that Sandino was first and foremost a communist although neither of the Marxist nor anarchist variety He argues that Sandino s eclectic communist spirituality was more of an asset than a liability for understanding the human condition and that his spiritual politics promises to be more relevant than Marxism

Leninism for the twenty first century Indeed Hodges believes that Sandino s holistic communism embraces both deep ecology and feminist spirituality a finding that is sure to generate lively and productive debate Catalogue of the Reference Library of the Royal Albert Memorial Museum, Exeter University of Exeter.
