Boettiger, 2015-06-30 Excerpt from Armenian Legends and Festivals The author of the study which follows responded to the lure of his task for both theoretical and practical reasons He seemed because of his intimate personal relationship to Armenian life to be peculiarly qualified to study and interpret a cross section of that country's life It is particularly urgent that we as Americans have authentic studies of Armenia and Armenian social life Heretofore there has been a striking lack of such materials readily accessible in English Because of the not inconsiderable immigration which reaches us from Armenia and because also there has been a call for the United States to act as mandatory for this country under the peace treaty we should penetrate more deeply into the Armenian heart than we have been able to do so far if we are to carry through successfully our job either as assimilator or as friendly guardian Moreover there is incumbent upon the United States in particular the duty of understanding a country like Armenia since we have been foremost in proclaiming the doctrine of the rights of small nationalities Those are the practical purposes from the standpoint of social politics which have given rise to and confer full warrant upon this study Of no less importance however is the contribution which Mr Boettiger s study makes to theoretical sociology He has sketched out for us the picture of a refractory culture which refuses to amalgamate with or yield to or be permeated by rival cultures The social history of this sturdy people offers us a very clear cut example of what really makes a society or a nation Not mountains not dynasties not blood but common interests common traditions common beliefs in short mental community The theoretical joins with the practical service of this study if it can strengthen our understanding that only as our own blood and that of our Armenian friends reach the place where they boil at the same temperature or are cooled by the same application of reason can we minister to each other or carry out the new partnership which may lie immediately ahead of us in the reestablishment of peace and reorganization of world comity About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
