Handbook of Research in the Social Foundations of Education Steven Tozer, Bernardo P. Gallegos, Annette Henry, Mary Bushnell Greiner, Paula Groves Price, 2011-07-05 Parts one and two of this volume present the theoretical lenses used to study the social contexts of education These include long established foundations disciplines such as sociology of education and philosophy of education as well as newer theoretical perspectives such as critical race theory feminist educational theory and cultural studies in education Parts three four and five demonstrate how these theoretical lenses are used to examine such phenomena as globalization media popular culture technology youth culture and schooling This groundbreaking volume helps readers understand the history evolution and significance of this wide ranging often misunderstood and increasingly important field of study This book is appropriate as a reference volume not only for scholars in the social foundations of education but also for scholars interested in the cultural contexts of teaching and learning formal and informal It is also appropriate as a textbook for graduate level courses in Social Foundations of Education School and Society Educational Policy Studies Cultural Studies in Education and Curriculum and Instruction

The Handbook of Research on Black Males Theodore S. Ransaw, C.P. Gause, Richard Majors, 2018-11-01 Drawing from the work of top researchers in various fields The Handbook of Research on Black Males explores the nuanced and multifaceted phenomena known as the black male Simultaneously hyper visible and invisible black males around the globe are being investigated now more than ever before however many of the well meaning responses regarding media attention paid to black males are not well informed by research Additionally not all black males are the same and each of them have varying strengths and challenges making one size fits all perspectives unproductive This text which acts as a comprehensive tool that can serve as a resource to articulate and argue for policy change suggest educational improvements and advocate judicial reform fills a large void The contributors from multidisciplinary backgrounds focus on history research trends health education criminal and social justice hip hop and programs and initiatives This volume has the potential to influence the field of research on black males as well as improve lives for a population that is often the most celebrated in the media and simultaneously the least socially valued

Critical Realism, Feminism, and Gender: A Reader Michiel van Ingen, Steph Grohmann, Lena Gunnarsson, 2020-05-10 In assessing the current state of feminism and gender studies whether on a theoretical or a practical level it has become increasingly challenging to avoid the conclusion that these fields are in a state of disarray Indeed feminist and gender studies discussions are beset with persistent splits and disagreements This reader suggests that returning to and placing centre stage the role of philosophy especially critical realist philosophy of science is invaluable for efforts that seek to overcome or mitigate the uncertainty and acrimony that have resulted from this situation In particular it claims that the dialectical logic that runs through critical realist philosophy is ideally suited to advancing feminist and gender studies discussions about broad ontological and epistemological questions and considerations intersectionality and methodology methods and empirical research By bringing together four new and eight existing writings this reader provides both a focal point for renewed discussions about the potential and actual contributions of critical realist philosophy to feminism and gender studies and a timely contribution to these discussions

Equality in Asia-Pacific Phil C. W. Chan, 2014-02-04 In 1948 the United Nations General Assembly proclaimed the Universal Declaration of Human Rights stating every human being's right of equality in dignity and right However notwithstanding recognition by the international community of its importance and codification in numerous national and sub national constitutions and legislation reinforced by various multilateral and regional human rights treaties the right of equality continues to be unable to take complete firm hold in all regions and countries Evidence as presented by the insightful papers in this collection published initially as a Special Double Issue of The International Journal of Human Rights dedicated to exploring the place of equality in Asia Pacific societies suggests that although progress is being made the right of equality has not yet fully materialized both in law and in reality in the world's most populous region Many factors particularly entrenched cultural heritage and practices the lingering effects of colonialism and newly found independence and above all pervasive ignorance and prejudices continue to impede the recognition development and protection of equality in this region Of course equality a normative right and entitlement by virtue of our humanity has neither been fully achieved in societies outside the region Such neo colonial thinking in fact perpetuates and assists in the subjugation of the right of equality in the Asia Pacific Region as a matter of relevance and concern only to Western countries Accordingly we hope that our discussions will also be able to shed light and generate reflections on realities outside the region as interlinked with our aim The Editor's book fee has been donated to the UNICEF Tsunami Fund This book was previously published as a special issue of The International Journal of Human Rights
