Travel Writing in an Age of Global Quarantine Gary Fisher, David Robinson, 2021-09-07 Travel Writing in an Age of Global Quarantine is an anthology of travel accounts by a diverse range of writers and academics Challenging conventional academic authority each contributor writes from memory during the Covid 19 lockdown about a place they have previously visited accompanied by an historical traveller who published an account of the same place As immobility is forced upon us at least for the immediate future we have the chance to reflect Travel Writing in an Age of Global Quarantine presents opportunities to approach a text as a scholar differently We break with the traditional academic rules by inserting ourselves into the narrative and foregrounding the personal subjective elements of literary scholarship Each contributor critiques an historical description of a place about which simultaneously they write a personal account The travel writer Philip Marsden posits a fundamental difference between traditional academic writing and travel writing in that travel narratives do not or ought not anyway begin by assuming a scholarly authoritative understanding of the places they describe Instead they attempt to say what they found and how they felt about it The very good point we think Marsden makes and the one this book tries to demonstrate is that as a matter of form the first person narrative has the ability to expose the research process to allow the reader to see when and how a scholarly transformation takes place to give the scholar the opportunity to openly foreground their own subjectivity and say this is the personal journey that led me to my conclusions to problematize the unchallenged authority of the scholar Travel Writing in an Age of Global Quarantine challenges the idea of scholarly authority by embracing the subjective nature of research and the first person element We address a problematic distance between travel writing practice and travel writing scholarship in which the latter talks about the former without ever really talking to it Defining travel writing as a genre has often proved more difficult than it might seem but Peter Hulme has suggested that it is ethically necessary for the writer to have visited the place described Hulme asserts that travel writing is certainly literature but it is never fiction If this seems obvious Travel Writing in an Age of Global Quarantine asks the reader to consider the idea that if visiting the place described is necessary for the writer to claim they have produced a travel account might it also be necessary or at least advantageous and valuable for the writer of a scholarly critique of that account to have done the same

A Knight There Was (The Knights of England Series, Book 2) Mary Ellen Johnson, 2017-01-10 A Cocksure Knight and His Fair Lady Face Deception and Betrayal in the Medieval Historical Romance The Lion and the Leopard by Mary Ellen Johnson Medieval England during the reign of Edward III from 1348 to 1361 Following his return from battle with a life threatening sickness Margery Watson nurses Golden Knight Matthew Hart back to health A bond deepening between them Matthew who refuses to marry so his younger brother may inherit all begs Margery to openly live with him Margery agrees Like her grandmother before her she will risk all for love But a scheming adversary concocts a deception in Matthew's absence that leaves Margery the unwitting wife of a wealthy goldsmith who seeks only to trade on her family name while believing she was betrayed by Matthew. When Matthew returns from London to find Margery wedded and bedded, he accuses her of betraying HIM. Now both Margery and Matthew foolishly believe that time, distance, and heartbreak will be enough to keep them forever apart. From the Publisher: Readers with a passion for history will appreciate the author's penchant for detail and accuracy. In keeping with being authentic to the era, this story contains scenes of brutality which are true to the time and man's inhumanity. There are a limited number of sexual scenes and NO use of modern vulgarity. Fans of Elizabeth Chadwick, Bernard Cornwell, and Philippa Gregory, as well as Tamara Leigh and Suzan Tisdale, will not want to miss this series. Author Mary Ellen Johnson strides through history with the reader in the front seat. Karen Lausa: it challenged my intellect as well as my heart. Margaret Watkins, eBook Discovery Reviewer: THE KNIGHTS OF ENGLAND in series order: The Lion and the Leopard, A Knight There Was, Within A Forest Dark, A Child Upon The Throne, Lords Among the Ruins.
