Running against the Grain David A. Crockett, 2009-03-01 Some presidents enter office with an uphill climb in front of them their political party represents a different governing philosophy than the dominant strain of the day These David A. Crockett says are opposition presidents If they are in a sense out of step with their times how do they ever get elected in the first place In Running against the Grain How Opposition Presidents Win the White House Crockett employs historical comparisons to draw conclusions about what it takes for these candidates to win the office He focuses on seven presidents in twelve elections William Henry Harrison 1840 and Zachary Taylor 1848 Grover Cleveland 1884 and 1892 and Woodrow Wilson 1912 and 1916 Dwight Eisenhower 1952 and 1956 and Richard Nixon 1968 and 1972 and Bill Clinton 1992 and 1996 Crockett draws on the work of Stephen Skowronek and others in the tradition of American political development to establish the periodization for his study Through a comparative analysis of victorious opposition candidates Crockett finds explanations that transcend specific campaigns or even specific eras He contends that because the way one acquires the office may have an effect on the practice of leadership in the office running against the grain has implications far beyond Election Day Report of the President of Harvard College and Reports of Departments Harvard University,1925 Contemporary Domestic and Foreign Policies of Iran Pejman Abdolmohammadi,Giampiero Cama,2020-05-06 This book is a comprehensive analysis of the domestic and foreign politics of Iran focusing on its complex nature from political social and cultural perspectives It has adopted a multidisciplinary approach combining comparative politics and intellectual and modern history with international relations It analyses the institutional structure of the Islamic Republic the main political and social actors and alliances as well as Iranian opposition forces both inside and outside the country The book tries to simplify the seemingly intractable complexity of the Islamic Republic by demystifying it and using political science methods to prove that it is a peculiar hybrid regime The Grants Register 2000 NA NA,1999-05-28 The most authoritative and comprehensive guide available to postgraduate grants and professional funding worldwide For over twenty years The Grants Register has been the leading source for up to date information on the availability of and eligibility for postgraduate and professional awards With details of over 3 000 awards The Grants Register is more extensive than any comparable publication Each entry has been verified by the awarding bodies concerned ensuring that every piece of information is accurate As an annual publication each edition also provides the most current details available today The Grants Register provides an ideal reference source for those who need accurate information on postgraduate funding careers advisors university libraries student organisations and public libraries The Prospect of Presidential Rhetoric Martin J.
