Question Of Identity And Other Poems:

Question of Identity and Other Poems Michael Braude, 1976-06-01 Literary Theory Julie Rivkin, Michael Ryan, 2017-01-25 The new edition of this bestselling literary theory anthology has been thoroughly updated to include influential texts from innovative new areas including disability studies eco criticism and ethics Covers all the major schools and methods that make up the dynamic field of literary theory from Formalism to Postcolonialism Expanded to include work from Stuart Hall Sara Ahmed and Lauren Berlant Pedagogically enhanced with detailed editorial introductions and a comprehensive glossary of terms A Practical Approach to Reading Skills Jean Evans, Duncan Beal, 2003 This brand new series supports the examined components of English at GCSE with particular emphasis on the AQA specifications and concentrates on core skills in an easy to use format The series adopts a twin track approach and comprises two Student Books plus two accompanying Teacher s Resource Books The Cambridge Companion to Emily Dickinson Wendy Martin, 2002-09-05 Emily Dickinson one of the most important American poets of the nineteenth century remains an intriguing and fascinating writer The Cambridge Companion to Emily Dickinson includes eleven new essays by accomplished Dickinson scholars They cover Dickinson s biography publication history poetic themes and strategies and her historical and cultural contexts As a woman poet Dickinson s literary persona has become incredibly resonant in the popular imagination She has been portrayed as singular enigmatic and even eccentric At the same time Dickinson is widely acknowledged as one of the founders of American poetry an innovative pre modernist poet as well as a rebellious and courageous woman This volume introduces new and practised readers to a variety of critical responses to Dickinson s poetry and life and provides several valuable tools for students including a chronology and suggestions for further reading The Lesbian Muse and Poetic Identity, 1889-1930 Sarah Parker, 2015-10-06 Throughout history the poetic muse has tended to be a passive female and the poet male This dynamic caused problems for late Victorian and twentieth century women poets how could the muse be reclaimed and moved on from the passive role of old Parker looks at fin de si cle and modernist lyric poets to investigate how they overcame these challenges and identifies three key strategies the reconfiguring of the muse as a contemporary instead of a historical mythological figure the muse as a male figure and an interchangeable poet muse relationship granting agency to both Space, Identity and Discourse in Anglophone Studies Attila Dósa, Ágnes Maguczné Godó, Anett Schäffer, Robin Lee Nagano, 2024-02-20 This book explores the dynamic intersections where cultures languages and spaces converge shaping identities and creating new forms of expression The authors attempt to unravel the complexity of narrative and imaginative spaces by examining cultural identities in global contexts The essays on literary representations consider abstract border crossings through rewriting and reappropriation in various genres while also looking at immigrant fiction post Anthropocene narratives and hybrid spaces through a postcolonial lens The essays on history and politics critically examine identity conflicts in the United States while the contributions on applied linguistics and language pedagogy offer insights into online teaching experiences during COVID 19 sociocultural aspects of language use and the formation of bilingual identities Employing innovative methods in reinterpreting literary works political narratives and different types of discourse past and present this collection contributes to ongoing scholarly dialogues on the multifaceted challenges associated with identity construction through border crossings Strategies of Identity Construction Stefan J. Schustereder,2015-09-16 Based on an analysis of a variety of early medieval writings from Britain including De Excidio et Conquestu Britanniae by the Briton Gildas the early Welsh collection of stanzas commonly referred to as Y Gododdin and the Venerable Bede's Historia Ecclesiastica Gentis Anglorum his Historia Abbatum and Chronica Maior Strategies of Identity Construction provides evidence of an active and productive medieval discourse of ethnic and political identity construction in Britain The book demonstrates that different gentes even competing peoples use the same strategies to construct and communicate their identities This phenomenon is not only visible when comparing the different writings which were subject to analysis in this research but can also be seen when analyzing changes the writings underwent during the transmission processes of their manuscripts throughout the Middle Ages Elements of a discourse of identity construction here not only appear to be productive but can also be seen in close connection with historical political and social developments at the same time rendering the study of the discourse of identity construction an important tool for providing a modern understanding of medieval politics and societies in periods of change and transition Sexual Orientation and Teacher Identity Patrick M. Jenlink,2019-11-26 Sexual Orientation and Teacher Identity Professionalism and GLBT Politics in Teacher Preparation and Practice examines the nature of LGBTQ issues and teacher identity as social cultural and political constructs In particular the contributing authors to this collection of chapters present a collection of chapters contemporary discourses that will illuminate and critique the practices structures and politics in both teacher preparation programs and public school settings that affect LGBTQ teachers and their identity in relation to the struggles of teachers as professionals face in obtaining recognition The contributing authors of the book focus on teachers are entering educational settings where difference connotes not equal and discourses of LGBTQ politics identity and difference are interwoven with a realization of discrimination and marginalization The authors drawing on their personal and professional experiences give much needed voice to recognition and the formation of identity from a LGBTQ viewpoint as they relate to teachers teacher educators and other cultural workers responsible for shaping professional identities of teachers and for teaching students in schools and classrooms across the nation Being English Julian Wolfreys,1994-09-30 Drawing on recent developments concerning national identity in post Marxist criticism and Derridean philosophy Wolfreys looks at the ways in which literature is used to represent the English middle classes to themselves using texts by Coleridge Wordsworth Arnold Gaskell Collins Eliot and Trollope The Ridpath Library of Universal Literature ... Marotti,1993 Reading with a Difference is a collection of eighteen essays that examines how issues of gender race and cultural identity inform texts from the seventeenth century to the present Together the contributions document recent significant shifts occurring in the theoretical approach to the texts they study and illustrate how shifts in each of these categories affect how the others are viewed The first section of this anthology explores the notion that identity particularly gender identity is a cultural construct The essays in the second section consider ways in which race and gender intersect with cultural identity and how encounters between different cultures challenge any identity constructed in isolation First published in the journal Criticism these essays offer no blueprint for reading Instead they encourage a rereading of canonical texts and a questioning of how these texts face matters of gender race and cultural identity how they respond to the differences and the incongruities within the cultures from which they arise and to which they speak

Twentieth-Century Latin American Poetry Stephen Tapscott, 1996 Large anthology includes work by 58 poets Extensive but general introduction Poets arranged chronologically from Jos e Mart i to Marjorie Agos in Volume includes few surprises and relatively few women Bilingual format Many translators great fluctuation in quality For detailed discussion of translations see Charles Tomlinson in Times Literary Supplement May 9 1997 and Eliot Weinberger in Sulfur 40 Spring 1997 Handbook of Latin American Studies v 58

Cultural Critique and Abstraction Elisabeth W. Joyce, 1998 This study of Marianne Moore and the visual arts focuses on how art productions serve to break down and re create cultural practice proving that culture is a mutable organism reluctant to change but not impervious to it In doing so author Elisabeth W Joyce shows that even though Moore may have restricted herself to the quiet provincial life of Brooklyn her poetry attests to her resistance to the constrictions imposed by the predominating bourgeoisie This study presents the bifurcation between modernism and the avant garde where while the modernists retreated from engagement in society the avant gardistes remained focused on political and social issues in order to critique stifling cultural phenomena so that art could effect cultural changes In taking this stance instead of viewing Moore's poetry as typically and provincially American Joyce places her in the international and radical art movements of the early twentieth century
