Hardon (S.J.), 1981. Question and answer Catholic catechism M. Guzman, 1999. What Catholics Believe Mike Aquilina, Fr. Kris D. Stubna, 1999-02-26. Catholics of a certain age fondly remember the Baltimore Catechism, the gold standard question and answer catechism that provided an entire generation of Catholics with easy-to-understand and memorize answers to the basic truths of the Catholic Church. The authors have taken this time-honored question and answer format and written a new catechism rooted in the Catechism of the Catholic Church and the documents of Vatican II. From the very first question, "Who are you?" to the final, "What prayers does the Church recommend?" this sure-to-become-a-classic is filled with the richness of Catholic teaching. In addition to the question and answer section, What Catholics Believe also contains sections on traditional Catholic prayers, a guide to making a good Confession, an explanation of the Mass, and much, much more. 101 Questions and Answers on the Four Last Things Joseph T. Kelley, 2006. Joseph Kelley has written a short, accessible, thorough introduction to and overview of Christian teaching on death, judgment, hell, and heaven, called in theology the four last things. Presented in the popular 101 Questions format, this book shows how these four topics, also referred to as Christian eschatology, have their ancient roots in the sacred books of the Hebrew Scriptures, especially in the later writings known as apocalyptic literature. The New Testament receives and builds upon Jewish thought and piety, finding in Jesus Christ a new revelation about the meaning of death, the nature of judgment, and God's desire that all be saved and united through Christ in heaven. Kelley clearly presents the major theological ideas about the four last things that have emerged in Christian history, as well as the sacramental and pastoral practices surrounding death. Questions range from the simple, "What makes a cemetery Catholic?" to "Does the Church believe in reincarnation?" to "What do other religions say about judgment?" and "What does it mean to say that Jesus sits at God's right hand in heaven?" This one-step guide to Catholic teaching on death, judgment, heaven, and hell is a one-of-a-kind book and will make informative, fascinating reading for high school, college, and graduate courses in theology, religion, psychology, social work, counseling, and ministry, especially death and dying courses. Also, adult education and parish study groups on death and dying, as well as Christian support groups for bereavement.
