Jewish Socratic Questions in an Age without Plato Yehuda Halper,2021-11-01 Winner of the 2022 Goldstein Goren Book Award from the Goldstein Goren International Center for Jewish Thought at Ben Gurion University of the Negev Yehuda Halper examines Jewish depictions of Socrates and Socratic questioning of the divine among European and North African Jews of the 12th 15th centuries Without direct access to Plato their understanding of Socrates is indirect based on legendary material on fragmentary quotations from Plato or on Aristotle Out of these sources Jewish authors of this period formed two distinct views of Socrates one as a wise ascetic monotheist and the other as a vocal skeptic The latter view has its roots in Plato s Apology where Socrates describes his divine mandate to question all knowledge including knowledge of the divine After exploring how this and similar questions arise in the works of Judah Halevi and the Hebrew Averroes Halper traces how such open questioning of the divine arises in the works of Maimonides Jacob Anatoli Gersonides and Abraham Bibago

On the Questions of Jesus Don Harris,2003-11 Questions About the Holy Spirit S. Michael Houdmann,2013-08-22 Every person in the world has felt the influence of the Holy Spirit at one time or another For some its the conviction of sin and righteousness and judgment John 16 8 For others its the comfort guidance and strength He gives To some the Spirit is as mysterious and unknowable as a night wind passing through the treetops To others He is as close and inviting as a friend across the table But even those who know the Holy Spirit personally have questions about Him As Oswald Chambers said The Spirit is the first power we practically experience but the last power we come to understand Thats the reason for this book What gifts does the Spirit give How can I be filled with the Spirit Will the Spirit ever leave me Weve received all these questions and more since GotQuestions org was founded in 2002 To find the answers we opened the Bible the one book inspired by the Holy Spirit Himself In searching the Scriptures we learn of the Spirits nature His work and His will May the Holy Spirit use the questions and answers in this volume to increase your awareness of His presence encourage your heart and empower your faith

The Practice of Prophecy Li Ming Dennis Lum,2018-03-26 The charisma of prophecy is found throughout the history of the global Pentecostal movement Within the movement prophecy is seen as the communication of an inspired spontaneous revelation bringing edification to the faith community Despite its prevalence academic research has mostly focused on the biblical theological aspect neglecting the actual contemporary practice This book addresses this gap with a study on the practice of prophecy within the Assemblies of God of Singapore The book investigates the nature purpose and significance of the phenomenon It also identifies theological variables that are correlated with its practice and explicates these relationships The investigation employs the empirical theological method of Johannes van der Ven utilizing both a qualitative and a quantitative study The results provide a rich description of the actual reception delivery and judging of prophecy Significant findings include relationships between prophecy and courage love personality types prayer types and evangelism
