Questions This Modern Age Puts To Islam:

Questions this Modern Age Puts to Islam Fethullah Gülen, 1998      The Gülen Movement Gürkan Çelik, 2010 The existence of social conflicts and the lack of social cohesion are at the center of public debates in many societies In recent years these issues have often been linked to Muslims and their religious beliefs The Islamic response to these allegations and the social problems evoking them has been diverse this book concerns the reply of a transnational movement of volunteers inspired by the teachings of Fethullah Gülen a Turkish Muslim scholar This study represents an attempt to incorporate the Gülen Movement also called the Volunteers Movement into a social movement theory approach In pluralist societies there are different communication structures and different ways of conflict resolution The Gülen Movement proposes and practices dialogue and education as two means to establish peace by maintaining social cohesion and mending the social cleavages dividing Muslims and non Muslims It is not only Gülen's spiritual message that has inspired people to pursue these ideals but also his leadership By focusing on its spiritual intellectual and practical dimension and its social background this book contributes to a comprehensive understanding of one of the most promising contemporary social movements Publisher's description back cover      Conversations on Fethullah Gülen and the Hizmet Movement Peter Barnes, Gregory

Baum, 2015-12-16 This book entitled Conversations on Fethullah Gülen and the Hizmet Movement Dreaming for a Better World is intended to represent an open perspective on the influence of the Hizmet Movement including Fethullah Gülen in particular on the theme of dreaming for a better world based on a variety of Christian and Muslim world views This theme is approached from three specific perspectives education and an emphasis on interfaith and intercultural dialogue a comparison of various spiritualities and a consideration of the shared dreams of the two religions The essays in this volume are adapted from talks presented by eleven authors from Canada and the United States at the Gülen Symposium at Carleton University in October 2009 The panel discussion that followed the individual presentations enhanced the overall theme of dreaming for a better world The symposium as a whole represented the positive potential that there is for the organization of forums of sharing that focus on this theme and on the three sub themes      Slavery, Abolition, and Islam Haroon

Bashir, 2024-12-02 Does the Qur'an promote the abolition of slavery If so why had the slave trade been allowed to operate across the Muslim world for over a millennium And why had Muslim scholars not attempted to eradicate slavery previously These were the questions that Islamic abolitionist scholars explored as they sought to challenge the slave trade throughout the nineteenth century The abolition of slavery remains a relatively new concept in human history and scholars from all religious traditions have attempted to navigate the religious and ethical questions raised by the historical acceptance of slavery In this book Haroon Bashir tells the story of how scholars promoting abolition in the name of Islam transformed the debate around Islam and slavery The book explores how abolitionism became the hegemonic position within contemporary Islamic thought and highlights the journey behind the current consensus Abolitionist arguments were not simply accepted with defenders of the slave trade using the weight of historical tradition to emphasise the legitimacy of slavery The strongly contested debates that ensued had huge ramifications for understandings of authority tradition and modernity within Islamic thought that are as present as they are past Through an exploration of these various discourses and contestations Slavery Abolition and Islam highlights how both slavery and abolition were historically challenged within the Islamic context and demonstrates how those debates continue to impact contemporary discussions In doing so the book also explores broader themes of religious traditions continuity and transformation Turkey and the World Sedat Laçiner,2001

Contemporary Islamic Conversations Nevval Sevindi,2008-01-01 Discusses the ideas of the most important living Muslim thinker and leader in contemporary Turkey Turkish Islam and the Secular State M. Esposito,2003-11-01 In the first book of its kind M Hakan Yavuz and John L Esposito explore recent reformations of Islam and culture in Turkey and the successful Islamist modernist Fethullah G len movement As one of the most significant religious movements to emerge in Turkey in the past fifty years the G len movement combines a devotion to Islam with love for modern learning especially modern science This groundbreaking work focuses on and explains the nexus of complex historical and political developments that have contributed to the transformation of Islam in Turkey and to the movement s sphere of influence stretching into the Balkans and central Asia through the establishment of schools outside Turkey The book cogently traces the origin of G len s ideology and his early efforts to propagate his views through educational activities It details the various strategies employed by G len s followers to put his ideas into practice both in Turkey and around the world Contributors describe its intellectual and religious formation its spread across Turkey and Central Asia and its influence on citizens outside the movement including leading Turkish politicians Peace and Dialogue in a Plural Society Thomas Michel,2014-12-07 In a world that is too often seen as a clash of civilizations some believe there is another way a path that involves engagement dialogue and respect In Thomas Michel s new book Peace and Dialogue in a Plural Society he explores how Fethullah Gulen is one of those speaking most vocally in favor of a world community where different faiths and nations can come together at one table to solve the multitude of problems facing today s world Exploring the spiritual roots of Gulen and the Hizmet Movement as well as drawing parallels between his own work as a Catholic priest Michel shows how Hizmet has helped build a blueprint for intercultural communication in a time when too many voices are trying to stoke the fires of discord Through education dialogue and a respect for basic human dignity Michel finds a foundation in Gulen s faith and Hizmet s service upon which a healthy diverse society can be built Transnational Crime and Global Security Philip L. Did Muhammad Exist? Robert Spencer,2021-07-13 Is there any sound historical evidence that the prophet of Islam actually existed or is the entire story of Muhammad fable or fiction It is a question that few have thought or dared to ask Virtually everyone Muslim and non

Muslim alike takes for granted that the prophet of Islam lived as a prophet as well as a political and military leader in seventh century Arabia But this widely accepted story begins to crumble on close examination In his blockbuster New York Times bestseller The Truth about Muhammad historian and Islam expert Robert Spencer revealed the often shocking contents of Islamic teachings about Muhammad Now in this newly revised and expanded version of Did Muhammad Exist he lays bare those teachings surprisingly shaky historical foundations This updated and enlarged version of this acclaimed book examines even more striking and compelling evidence that the story of Muhammad who for so long was assumed to have lived in the full light of history could be more myth and legend than historical fact Spencer meticulously examines historical records and archaeological findings pioneering new scholarship to reconstruct what we can know about Muhammad the Qur'an and the early days of Islam The evidence he presents challenges the most fundamental assumptions about Islam's origins

Islam, Orientalism and Intellectual History Mohammad R. Salama, 2011-03-30 Debates on the relationship between Islam and the West rage on from talk of clashing civilizations to political pacification from ethical and historical perspectives to distrust xenophobia and fear Here Mohammad Salama argues that the events of 9 11 force us to engage ourselves fully without preconditions in understanding not just the history of Islam as a religion but of Islam as a historical condition that has existed in relationship to the West since the seventh century Salama compares the Arab Islamic and European traditions of historical thought since the early modern period focusing on the watershed moments that informed the two traditions ideas of intellectual history and perceptions of one another He draws attention to European intellectual history's entangled links with the Islamic philosophy of history especially the complexities of orientalism and modernity Recent critical reflections on the work of Ibn Khaldun confirm this intertwined and troubled relationship reflecting major disparities and contradictions At the same time recent Arab writings on Europe's intellectual history reveal a struggle against erasure and intellectual superiority Calling for a new understanding of the relationship between Islam and the West Salama argues that Islam has played a major role in enabling and positioning various paths of Western historiography at crucial moments of its development leaving palpable imprints on Islamic historiography in the process He proposes an answer to a fundamental question how to make sense of the mechanics of production in Arab Islamic and Western historiographies or how to identify the ways in which they have both failed to make sense of themselves and of each other in an increasingly disenchanted postnationalist world Spanning an impressive array of recent writings on these themes as well as older foundational texts in both traditions including al Tabar Ibn Khald n Hegel al Jabart Toynbee Foucault Edward Said and Hourani this book is both timely and crucial for all those interested in Islamic and Middle Eastern studies Western and Islamic philosophies of history modernity and the relationship between Islam and the West
