Questions And Their Retinue:

Questions and Their Retinue Hatif Janabi, 1996 The speaker in many of Janabi's poems moves from a confrontational stance to one of resigned desperation and from coyness to deep longing where occasionally hope surfaces The associative processes and the often bizarre surreal imagery he employs are very effective in expressing his profound sense of political and spiritual alienation Janabi is among a generation of Arab poets who because of censorship can speak only obliquely about the harsh reality of their lives

The Poet and Existence Yousef Sh'hadeh, 2021-10-06 This study reveals important aspects in the contents of the poetic achievement of Hatif Janabi the son of the Arab environment with its ancient culture and at the same time a companion of Polish culture which is distinguished among European societies by its unique Slavic character Janabi's poetry expresses a great sensitivity to the hardships of life in a world of painful alienation revealing anxieties of expatriation and the writer's philosophy of existence This is what makes his poetry an expression of human concerns and a revelation close to the soul not to mention its great intellectual value that makes it a true representative of two ancient cultures Eastern and European The topics of Janabi's poetry are varied as they touch on many aspects of a person's life his being setbacks hopes and disappointments They highlight multiple manifestations of human savagery and draw attention to the humanization of animals and objects in search of traits that humans had lost Just as the contents of the poetic texts attract the attention of the reader and the critic their semantic and rhetorical predicates also arouse interest Interpretations of the texts and their titles reveal the aesthetics of poetic contexts and their symbolic and intellectual value Poetry becomes the partner of the desert and emptiness simultaneously both are the source of the creator's fear Despite the clear contradiction between dark poetry and lit space Janabi unites these two opposites into one whole which can be comprehended only by poets It is only they who are able to envision a complete life among wild sands filled with secrets In this lies the symbolism of the desert unveiling its surreal nature filled with the abundance of various images and contradictions impossible to notice by means of an inattentive glance The poet can do nothing but worriedly push away all fears of getting lost in this completely dark world

Purchasing Agents' Bulletin, 1926 The Knights of Modernism Branko Vraneš, 2021-06-07 According to the customary literary historical and theoretical notion the fact that the first modern novel represents a parody or travesty of the chivalric ideal merits no particular attention Failing to become attuned to the real role of the chivalric ideal at the beginning of the era of the modern novel commentators missed the chance to adequately review the role of chivalry at the end of that period The modern novel did not only begin but also ended with a travesty of the chivalric ideal The deep need of a significant number of modernist writers to measure their own time according to the ideals of the high and late Middle Ages cannot therefore be explained by a set of literary historical spiritual historical or social circumstances The predilection of a range of twentieth century novelists for a distant feudal past suggests that there exists a fundamental poetic connection between the modern or at least the modernist novel and the ideals of chivalry
