Redemption An Interdisciplinary Symposium On Christ As Redeemer:

The Redemption Stephen T. Davis, Daniel Kendall SJ, Gerald O'Collins SJ, 2004-10-21 This interdisciplinary study follows an international and ecumenical meeting of twenty one scholars held in New York at Easter 2003 the Redemption Summit After an opening chapter which explores seven central questions for writers on redemption five chapters are dedicated to the scriptural roots of the doctrine A section on the patristic and medieval periods then examines the interpretation of redemption through the centuries The volume moves on to foundational and systematic issues the problem of horrendous evil karma and grace and differing views on justification Studies on the redemption in literature art music and preaching form the final part There is a fruitful dialogue between experts in a wide range of areas and the international reputation of the participants reflects and guarantees the high quality of this joint work The result is a well researched skilfully argued and at times provocative volume on the central Christian belief the redemption of human beings through Jesus Christ The Redemption Stephen T. Davis, Daniel Kendall, Gerald O'Collins, 2004 Twenty four scholars from different universities churches and continents have worked on this book a volume on the central Christian belief the redemption of human beings through Jesus Christ Provided by Publisher Christ and Reconciliation Veli-Matti Kärkkäinen, 2013-05-26 The first installment in a wide and deep constructive theology for our time In Christ and Reconciliation Veli Matti Karkkainen develops a constructive Christology and theology of salvation in dialogue with the best of Christian tradition with contemporary theology in its global and contextual diversity and with other major living faiths Karkkainen s Constructive Christian Theology for the Pluralistic World is a five volume project that aims to develop a new approach to and method of doing Christian theology in our pluralistic world at the beginning of the third millennium Topics such as diversity inclusivity violence power cultural hybridity and justice are part of the constructive theological discussion along with classical topics such as the messianic consciousness incarnation atonement and the person of Christ With the metaphor of hospitality serving as the framework for his discussion Karkkainen engages Judaism Islam Buddhism and Hinduism in sympathetic and critical mutual dialogue while remaining robustly Christian in his convictions Never before has a full scale doctrinal theology been attempted in such a wide and deep dialogical mode Christian Theologies of Salvation Justin S Holcomb, 2017-10-31 Essays exploring pivotal spiritual figures over two millennia and their doctrines of salvation Salvation has been a key focus of Christian theology since the first days of the church Theologians from St Augustine to Karl Barth have debated the finer points of salvation for nearly as long offering a bewildering array of competing and often contradictory theories Christian Theologies of Salvation traces doctrines of salvation from the first century into the twenty first century Each chapter focuses on a different major theologian first presenting the theologian s doctrine of salvation then highlighting how the doctrine makes a distinct contribution to the church s overall dogma The volume offers a comparative focus including doctrines of salvation that reflect the historical development of Catholic Orthodox and Protestant views By illuminating the ways in which doctrines of salvation have evolved over the church's history Justin Holcomb takes us across the teachings of Origen and Augustine John Calvin and Martin Luther and eventually to the more modern theologies of Karl Barth and Gustavo Guti rrez A much needed map to the options and implications of different theologies of salvation this book is essential reading for students and scholars of Christian thought Holcomb has assembled a fine group of scholars to look at four major periods patristic Middle Ages Reformation and Catholic Counter Reformation and the 18th to 21st centuries A solid study of important voices on Christian salvation Choice An important tool in helping theological students and pastors explore their own theological tradition while at the same time prompting deeper conversations with ecumenical partners Paul Galbreath Union Presbyterian Seminary Lord Jesus Christ Daniel Treier,2023-10-31 A study of the doctrine of Christ that is biblical and historical evangelical and ecumenical conceptually clear and contextually relevant Lord Jesus Christ expounds the doctrine of Christ by focusing upon theological interpretation of Scripture regarding Jesus's identity The book's structure traces a Christological arc from the eternal communion of the Triune God through creation covenants Incarnation passion and exaltation all the way to the consummation of redemptive history This arc identifies Jesus as the divine Lord who assumed human flesh for our salvation The book expounds and defends a classically Reformed Christology in relation to contemporary contexts and challenges engaging both philosophical and global concerns Each chapter begins with the theological interpretation of a key Scripture text before expounding key concepts of orthodox Protestant Christology Lord Jesus Christ is a unique example of writing dogmatic theology by way of theological exegesis The result is a volume that engages the numerous scholarly volumes on Christology that have appeared within the last couple of decades but provides a contemporary account of a traditional view About the Series New Studies in Dogmatics seeks to retrieve the riches of Christian doctrine for the sake of contemporary theological renewal Following in the tradition of G C Berkouwer's Studies in Dogmatics this series will provide thoughtful concise and readable treatments of major theological topics expressing the biblical creedal and confessional shape of Christian doctrine for a contemporary evangelical audience The editors and contributors share a common conviction that the way forward in constructive systematic theology lies in building upon the foundations laid in the church's historic understanding of the Word of God as professed in its creeds councils and confessions and by its most trusted teachers

Wonderful Blood Caroline Walker Bynum,2007 Bynum argues that Christ's blood as both object and symbol was central to late medieval art literature and religious life As cult object blood provided a focus of theological debate about the nature of matter body and God and an occasion for Jewish persecution as motif blood became a central symbol in popular devotion

The End of the Timeless God R. T. Mullins,2016-01-07 The claim that God is timeless has been the majority view throughout church history However it is not obvious that divine timelessness is compatible with fundamental Christian doctrines such as creation and incarnation Theologians have long been aware of the conflict between divine timelessness and Christian doctrine and various solutions to these conflicts have been developed In contemporary thought it is widely agreed that new theories on the nature of time can further help solve these conflicts Do these solutions actually solve the conflict Can the Christian God be timeless The End of the Timeless God sets forth a thorough investigation into the Christian understanding of God and the God world relationship It argues that the Christian God cannot be timeless Participating in Christ Michael J. Gorman, 2019-09-17 World renowned scholar Michael Gorman examines the important Pauline theme of participation in Christ and explores its contemporary significance for Christian life and ministry One of the themes Gorman explores is what he calls resurrectional cruciformity that participating in Christ is simultaneously dying and rising with him and that cross shaped living infused with the life of the resurrected Lord is life giving Throughout the book Gorman demonstrates the centrality of participating in Christ for Paul's theology and spirituality Sacrifice and the Body John Dunnill, 2016-04-08 What is sacrifice For many people today the word has negative overtones suggesting loss or death or violence But in religions ancient and modern the word is linked primarily to joyous feasting which puts people in touch with the deepest realities How has that change of meaning come about What effect does it have on the way we think about Christianity How does it affect the way Christian believers think about themselves and God John Dunnill's study focuses on sacrifice as a physical event uniting worshippers to deity Bringing together insights from social anthropology biblical studies and Trinitarian theology Dunnill links to debates in sociology and cultural studies as well as the study of liturgy Through a positive view of sacrifice Dunnill contributes to contemporary Christian debates on atonement and salvation Ex Auditu - Volume 26 Klyne Snodgrass, 2011-05-09 CONTENTS Introduction Klyne Snodgrass In Him All Things Hold Together An Ecology of Atonement William P Brown Response to Brown Michael LeFebvre Effecting the Covenant A Not So New New Testament Model for the Atonement Michael Gorman Response to Gorman Troy Martin Response to Martin Michael Gorman Anyone Hung On A Tree Is Under God's Curse Deuteronomy 21-23 Jesus Crucifixion and Interreligious Exegetical Debate in Late Antiquity Peter W Martens Happily Ever After Paul Peter Waldenström Be Ye Reconciled to God Michelle A Clifton Soderstrom Response to Clifton Soderstrom Timothy L Johnson The Social Dimension of Atonement in the Torah Viktor Ber Response to Ber Jeremy J Wynne To Those Who Were Distant and Those Who Were Near Atonement Identity and Identification Brian Bantum An Evangelical Feminist Perspective on Traditional Atonement Models Linda D Peacore Response to Peacore Jo Ann Deasy Saving Bodies Analogical Transposition in St Gregory of Nyssa's Commentary on the Song of Songs Hans Boersma Ransomed Healed Restored Forgiven John 5:1-16 Carol Norr
