Collins, Pieter G. R. Villiers, Adela Yarbro Collins, 2018-09-24 The nature and origin of Jewish mysticism is a controversial subject This volume explores the subject by examining both the Hebrew and Aramaic tradition Dead Sea Scrolls 1 Enoch and the Greek philosophical tradition Philo and also examines the Christian transformation of Jewish mysticism in Paul and Revelation It provides for a nuanced treatment that differentiates different strands of thought that may be considered mystical The Hebrew tradition is mythical in nature and concerned with various ways of being in the presence of God The Greek tradition allows for a greater degree of unification and participation in the divine The New Testament texts are generally closer to the Greek tradition although Greek philosophy would have a huge effect on later Christian mysticism The book is intended for scholars and advanced students of ancient Judaism and early Christianity The Apocalypse in English Renaissance Thought and Literature C. American and English scholars explore attitudes toward apocalyptic thought and the Book of Revelation as they were reflected over many centuries in theological discourse, political activity and artistic and literary endeavors Pesharim

Maurya P. Horgan, 2023-12-11 Among the Hebrew documents recovered from the Qumran caves are eighteen texts distinguished by the fact that each is a continuous commentary on or an interpretation of a single biblical book. These texts are called pesharim because each section of interpretation following a biblical citation is introduced by one of several formulas using the word p ser interpretation plural p s rim. The documents that are extant preserve portions of commentaries on the book of Psalms and on the prophetic books of Isaiah, Hosea, Micah, Nahum, Habakkuk, Zephaniah. The monograph presents the Hebrew texts of the pesharim, an English translation and notes on the texts that cover features of the Hebrew language in these scrolls, suggested restorations of lacunae and possible connections of the content of the commentary sections to historical events. Following the presentation of the texts is a discussion of the literary genre of peshar, treating the structure of the documents, the formulas employed, the modes of interpretation and the relation of the pesharim to some other writings.
