A Companion to Eastern European Cinemas Anikó Imre, 2012-08-07 A Companion to Eastern European Cinemas showcases twenty five essays written by established and emerging film scholars that trace the history of Eastern European cinemas and offer an up to date assessment of post socialist film cultures Showcases critical historical work and up to date assessments of post socialist film cultures Features consideration of lesser known areas of study such as Albanian and Baltic cinemas popular genre films cross national distribution and aesthetics animation and documentary Places the cinemas of the region in a European and global context Resists the Cold War classification of Eastern European cinemas as other art cinemas by reconnecting them with the main circulation of film studies Includes discussion of such films as Taxidermia El Perro Negro 12 08 East of Bucharest Big T II and Breakfast on the Grass and explores the work of directors including Tam s Alm si Walerian Borowczyk Roman Polanski Jerzy Skolimowski Andrzej u3awski and Karel Vachek amongst many others Cinema of Contradiction Sally Faulkner,2006-02-22 A key decade in world cinema the 1960s was also a crucial era of change in Spain A Cinema of Contradiction the first book to focus in depth on this period in Spain analyses six films that reflect and interpret these transformations The coexistence of traditional and modern values and the timid acceptance of limited change by Franco s authoritarian regime are symptoms of the uneven modernity that characterises the period Contradiction the unavoidable effect of that unevenness is the conceptual terrain explored by these six filmmakers One of the most significant movements of Spanish film history the New Spanish Cinema art films explore contradictions in their subject matter yet are themselves the contradictory products of the state s protection and promotion of films that were ideologically opposed to it A Cinema of Contradiction argues for a new reading of the movement as a compromised yet nonetheless effective cinema of critique It also demonstrates the possible contestatory value of popular films of the era suggesting that they may similarly explore contradictions This book therefore reveals the overlaps between art and popular film in the period and argues that we should see these as complementary rather than opposing areas of cinematic activity in Spain Contemporary Spanish cinema and genre Jay Beck,Vicente Rodríguez Ortega,2021-06-15 This volume is the first English language collection exclusively dedicated to the study of genre in relation to Spanish cinema Providing a variety of critical perspectives the collection gives the reader a thorough account of the relationship between Spanish cinema and genre drawing on case studies of several of the most remarkable Spanish films in recent years The book analyses the significant changes in the aesthetics production and reception of Spanish film from 1990 onwards It brings together European and North American scholars to establish a critical dialogue on the topics under discussion while providing multiple perspectives on the concepts of national cinemas and genre theory In recent years film scholarship has attempted to negotiate the tension between the nationally specific and the internationally ubiquitous discussing how globalisation has influenced film making and surrounding cultural practice These broader social concerns have prompted scholars to emphasise a redefinition of national cinemas beyond strict national boundaries and to pay attention to the transnational character of any national site of film production and reception This collection provides a thorough investigation of contemporary Spanish cinema within a transnational framework by positing cinematic genres as the meeting spaces between a variety of diverse forces that necessarily operate within but also across territorial spaces Paying close attention to the specifics of the Spanish cinematic and social panorama the essays investigate the transnational economic cultural and aesthetic forces at play in shaping Spanish film genres today The Americanization of Europe Alexander Stephan,2006 Using Germany as a case study of the impact of American culture throughout a period characterized by a totalitarian system two destructive wars ethnic cleansing and economic disaster this book explores the political and cultural parameters of Americanization and anti Americanism
