

DAY 2 THE GOOD YEARS GENESIS 41:46-52

When Pharaoh pulled a young Hebrew slave from the prison, he did so because Joseph possessed the one thing that no one else in Pharaoh's court had—the Spirit of the living God. The Spirit of God working through Joseph was never supposed to be a phenomenon unique to Joseph in that one brief slice of history. If Joseph was able to bring divine revelation, profound discernment, and godly wisdom to the people of Egypt, how much more should we be able to bring the gospel of Jesus to those around us through the power of the Spirit?

PERSONAL REFLECTION Before we get into today's reading, what specifically interested you in yesterday's personal study about the Holy Spirit's role in your life?

READ: GENESIS 41:46-52.
How did you, Joseph, when he entered Pharaoh's service?

According to Genesis 37:3, how did you, Joseph, protect the love of his prophetic dream?

Based on this information, approximately how long had Joseph been in Egypt?

What must it have been like for Joseph as he made nearly seven Egypt's rich and open landowners after having been confined at least four years in a prison? Joseph's faithfulness in both places reminds me that we won't serve God in the good times (the palace) if we're not willing to serve him in the hard times (the prison). It's just the truth. Joseph was faithful to God in his times of testing and trial, and now he could be entrusted to lead a nation during abundant prosperity.

We won't serve God in the good times (the palace) if we're not willing to serve Him in the hard times (the prison).

PERSONAL REFLECTION How often is a trying season or period of adversity what God is using to lead back to the far past right now? Be specific.

Be when there about how difficult it is to manage our work and personal lives during adversity. It's easy to forget that this can also be challenging in times of surplus and prosperity too. We can't forget that with seasons of peace, prosperity, and abundance come a wonderful responsibility to steward those blessings.

Look back at Genesis 41:24-26. How are the seven years described in verse 24?

What was required of Joseph during those good years?

PERSONAL REFLECTION If you're in a season of peace and prosperity, how are you stewarding those good years for God's service?

TO GIVE US A BETTER PICTURE OF JUST HOW ABUNDANT THESE SEVEN GOOD YEARS WERE, LOOK BACK AT GENESIS 41:49.

Why did Joseph stop measuring the grain he harvested?

I love this imagery. The harvest was so vast, the grain heaped so high, that Joseph gave up even trying to measure it. I can't help but think of Paul's words in Ephesians 3:20-21. "To be him who is able to do immeasurably more than all we ask or imagine, according to his power that is at work within us, to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, for ever and ever Amen." (EPA, emphasis mine).

Be Joseph and all grain in such abundance—like the seed of the word—that he stopped measuring it because it was beyond measure.

Genesis 41:49

Reflecting God's Glory Together A. Scott Moreau, Beth Snodderly, 2011-09-15 The true story of mission has been deeper wider and far more diverse than many Christians in countries with long histories of church presence have realized The authors in Reflecting God's Glory Together Diversity in Evangelical Mission drive that point home in a variety of ways From Filipino and Ghanaian missionary work in North American cities to Canadian work among the Chinese diaspora to African American work in Zimbabwe the authors help us begin to grasp just how many ways evangelicals in mission are truly going from and coming to everywhere as they follow Christ's mandate to reach the nations. Diverse voices utilizing diverse strategies pursuing a common call these result in a mosaic whose larger pattern glorifies the God who came to live among us and who continues to send us out in the pattern God so clearly established. As editors Beth and Scott invite you to explore the stories embedded in that marvelous mosaic that we have been privileged to collect for this volume.

The Word Lee Looby, 2015-01-23 If you are a Christian you will have to wonder at the information provided in this book by God through his messenger which will not be found in any other publication. The doctrines and the very foundation of the Christian Church are challenged by God himself and the sacraments are questioned as well as many other long held Christian beliefs. Nevertheless it does give the open minded reader new insights into Christianity and religion that have not been written down or expressed before and in it God informs us of why we were born the reason why we are here on earth and what is in store for us once we depart from this world. It will give you the reader firsthand knowledge of what to expect and what you will be doing after you arrive in the spirit world. Many of you who do not believe in life after death or reincarnation will be challenged in your beliefs and find that yes indeed you have lived many times before. You will also find that God provides us with personal guidance through departed relatives and friends that are in spirit as well as providing help from a range of angelic helpers of all types. There are also people on earth who are able to communicate freely and on a personal basis with all those in spirit and the angelic world. These people are spiritual messengers and are not to be confused with spiritualists psychics or mediums who play a different role and may hold different beliefs altogether.
