Reflections In A Silver Spoon A Memoir:

Reflections in a Silver Spoon Paul Mellon, John Baskett, 1992 Paul Mellon's Legacy John Baskett, Jules David Prown, Duncan Robinson, Brian Allen, William S. Reese, William J. Reese, Yale Center for British Art, Royal Academy of Arts (Great Britain), 2007-01-01 Paul Mellon 1907 1999 was an unparalleled collector of British art His collection now at Yale in the museum and study center he founded to house it rivals those in Britain's national museums and is unquestionably the most comprehensive representation of British art held outside of the United Kingdom This book and the exhibition that it accompanies celebrate the centenary of his birth Five introductory essays examine Mellon's extraordinary collecting activity as well as his role in creating both the Yale Center for British Art and the Paul Mellon Centre for Studies in British Art in London as gifts to his alma mater Yale 1929 A lavishly illustrated catalogue section showcases 148 of the most exquisite and important paintings watercolors drawings prints sculpture rare books and manuscript material in the Yale Center's collection including major works by Thomas Gainsborough Joshua Reynolds George Stubbs John Constable and J M W Turner

Rogues and Scholars James Stourton, 2025-02-04 A colorful and fast moving account of how postwar London became the global center of the art market a story of Impressionist masterpieces dodgy dealers and ground breaking financial transactions On October 15 1958 Sotheby's of Bond Street staged an event sale of seven Impressionist paintings belonging to Erwin Goldschmidt three Manets two Cezannes one Van Gogh and a Renoir Kirk Douglas Anthony Quinn and Somerset Maugham were there as celebrity guests The seven lots went for 781 000 at the time the highest price for a single sale The event established London as the world center of the art market and Sotheby's as an international auction house It began a shift in power from the dealers to the auctioneers and paved the way for Impressionist paintings to dominate the market for the next forty years Sotheby's had pulled off a massive coup by capturing the Impressionist market from Paris and New York and now began its inexorable rise opening offices all over the world A huge expansion of the market followed accompanied by rocketing prices colorful scandals and legal dramas London transformed itself from a fusty place of old master painting sales to a revitalized center of contemporary art crowned by the opening of Tate Modern in 2000 The Tate Modern successfully united new and mostly foreign money in London with the art world offering its patrons a ready made sophisticated social milieu alongside dealers in contemporary art In a vibrant and briskly paced style James Stourton tells the story of the London art market from the immediate postwar period to the turn of the millennium While Sotheby's is the lynchpin of this story Stourton populates his narrative with a glorious rogue's gallery of eccentric scholars clever amateurs brilliant emigrants and stylish grandees with a flair for the deal Philanthropists and Foundation Globalization Joseph Kiger, 2017-07-28 The modern American foundation as an instrumentality for charitable and philanthropic giving is in many ways a unique and complex social economic political institution This is particularly the case for foundations with large assets As a social phenomenon the foundation has deep roots in the past At the beginnings of any degree of civilization charitable giving and rudimentary forms of foundations emerge This is the case in many regions of the world The pattern is consistent once enough property or wealth beyond primitive human needs is accumulated some of it begins to be set aside for what the donors of such wealth consider worthwhile purposes The serious literature contributing greatly to public perception of philanthropy and foundations has been relatively sparse Much of what is available is quantitative and statistical in nature There has been limited objective attention to the motives or reasons spurring individual philanthropists to engage or not to engage in creating foundations such motivation needs historical and comparative analysis Major investigations and studies of foundations together with ancillary national regional and international organizations to facilitate such study have received spotty consideration Philanthropists and Foundation Globalization addresses three interrelated aspects of foundation history First it reviews biographical historical profiles of the founding philanthropists and their heirs engaged in international giving Second it discusses major governmental and non governmental investigations and studies of foundations including domestic ones and also foreign ones in which U S participants have played a prominent role spanning the period 1912 to the present Third it chronicles foundation developments and activities in Europe at the close of the twentieth century The volume provides a historical account of some U S foundations international activity in a particular region in a specific time period and their a

Death of a Racehorse Katie Bo Lillis, 2025-05-06 Death of a Racehorse by Katie Bo Lillis investigates the dark undercurrents of modern horse racing through two major scandals exposing a sport plagued by drug abuse class tensions and profit driven neglect of animal welfare With insider access Lillis reveals how ambition wealth and flawed industry practices have pushed horses beyond their limits in a system prioritizing money over ethics

Analytical Psychology in Exile C. G. Jung, Erich Neumann, 2025-07-22 Two giants of twentieth century psychology in dialogue C G Jung and Erich Neumann first met in 1933 at a seminar Jung was conducting in Berlin Jung was fifty seven years old and internationally acclaimed for his own brand of psychotherapy Neumann twenty eight had just finished his studies in medicine The two men struck up a correspondence that would continue until Neumann s death in 1960 A lifelong Zionist Neumann fled Nazi Germany with his family and settled in Palestine in 1934 where he would become the founding father of analytical psychology in the future state of Israel Presented here in English for the first time are letters that provide a rare look at the development of Jung s psychological theories from the 1930s onward as well as the emerging self confidence of another towering twentieth century intellectual who was often described as Jung s most talented student Neumann was one of the few correspondence partners of Jung s who was able to challenge him intellectually and personally These letters shed light on not only Jung s political attitude toward Nazi Germany his alleged anti Semitism and his psychological theory of fascism but also his understanding of Jewish psychology and mysticism They affirm Neumann s importance as a leading psychologist of his time and paint a fascinating picture of the psychological impact of immigration on the German Jewish intellectuals who settled in Palestine and helped to create the state of Israel Featuring Martin Liebscher s authoritative introduction and annotations this volume documents one of the most important intellectual relationships in the history of analytical psychology

Generation Deluxe Iris Nowell, 2004-06-28 They fork out 100 million for starter castles 500 000 for a customized Mercedes and 1 2 million for a watch While Generation Deluxe explores the spending patterns of the wealthy a dark underside emerges excessive consumerism is creating serious damage to the environment and human life Simultaneously the super rich and celebrities are raising awareness and spending multi millions cleaning up the damage and as never before funding solutions to global problems of poverty hunger and disease prevention Holy Digital Grail Michelle R.

Warren, 2022-03-29 Medieval books that survive today have been through a lot singed by fire mottled by mold eaten by insects annotated by readers cut into fragments or damaged through well intentioned preservation efforts In this book Michelle Warren tells the story of one such manuscript an Arthurian romance with textual origins in twelfth century England now diffused across the twenty first century internet This trajectory has been propelled by a succession of technologies from paper manufacture to printing to computers Together they have made literary history itself a cultural technology indebted to colonial capitalism Bringing to bear media theory medieval literary studies and book history Warren shows how digital infrastructures change texts and books even very old ones In the process she uncovers a practice of tech medievalism that weaves through the history of computing since the mid twentieth century metaphors indebted to King Arthur and the Holy Grail are integral to some of the technologies that now sustain medieval books on the internet This infrastructural approach to book history illuminates how the meaning of literature is made by many people besides canonical authors translators scribes patrons readers collectors librarians cataloguers editors photographers software programmers and many more Situated at the intersections of the digital humanities library sciences literary history and book history Holy Digital Grail offers new ways to conceptualize authorship canon formation and the definition of a book Carl Gustav Jung J.

Sherry, 2010-10-25 Carl Gustav Jung has always been a popular but never a fashionable thinker His ground breaking theories about dream interpretation and psychological types have often been overshadowed by allegations that he was anti Semitic and a Nazi sympathizer Most accounts have unfortunately been marred by factual errors and quotes taken out of context this has been due to the often partisan sympathies of those who have written about him This book provides a more accurate and comprehensive account of Jung s controversial opinions about art politics and race In War and Peace Guy

Stever, 2002-10-07 Science came into Guy Stever s life as a pure and peaceful pursuit It was only later as he walked through the wreckage of wartime London that he began to see science as central to a desperate struggle to survive Past president of Carnegie Mellon University former Chief Scientist of the U S Air Force one time Director of the National Science Foundation professor at MIT for 20 years member of the National Academies of Sciences and Engineering and science advisor to two presidents Guy Stever was a central figure in twentieth century science consistently on the front lines changing the fate of a nation In this thoughtful and candid memoir Stever recounts an extraordinary life that reveals as much about the man as about the major scientific and technological events of his day Born of humble origins and orphaned at an early age Stever journeyed from a small town in New York to work alongside British comrades who were developing and refining the critical radar technology that was to turn the tide of the war against the Germans As a technical intelligence officer these harrowing wartime years took him from the beachheads of Normandy to the German slave labor factories responsible for building the V 2 rockets Stever returned home committed to serving his country He became intimately involved in America s nascent guided missile program and was to remain a key player in the anti ballistic missile defense program that heralded the era of the Cold War As the decades passed Stever continued to exert lasting influence on countless scientific endeavors He was instrumental in the formation of new institutions from the creation of NASA in the post Sputnik years to the merging of Carnegie Tech and the Mellon Institution giving birth to Carnegie Mellon University As Presidential Science Advisor to both Nixon and Ford Stever shaped the very structure of contemporary presidential science advising And he was to chair the oversight committee that redesigned the space shuttle boosters after the Challenger explosion Guy Stever s life offers remarkable insight into the twentieth century Through his eyes we relive the history of the past 50 years witnesses to a tale of science and technology that is revealing in its scope and sweep
