Storytelling Apes Mary Sanders Pollock,2015-05-04

The annals of field primatology are filled with stories about charismatic animals native to some of the most challenging and remote areas on earth There are for example the chimpanzees of Tanzania whose social and family interactions Jane Goodall has studied for decades the mountain gorillas of the Virungas chronicled first by George Schaller and then later more obsessively by Dian Fossey various species of monkeys Indian langurs Kenyan baboons and Brazilian spider monkeys studied by Sarah Hrdy Shirley Strum Robert Sapolsky Barbara Smuts and Karen Strier and finally the orangutans of the Bornean woodlands whom Birut Galdikas has observed passionately Humans are after all storytelling apes The narrative urge is encoded in our DNA along with large brains nimble fingers and color vision traits we share with lemurs monkeys and apes In Storytelling Apes Mary Sanders Pollock traces the development and evolution of primatology field narratives while reflecting upon the development of the discipline and the changing conditions within natural primate habitat Like almost every other field primatologist who followed her Jane Goodall recognized the individuality of her study animals defying formal scientific protocols she named her chimpanzee subjects instead of numbering them thereby establishing a trend For Goodall Fossey Sapolsky and numerous other scientists whose works are discussed in Storytelling Apes free living primates became fully realized characters in romances tragedies comedies and never ending soap operas With this work Pollock shows readers with a humanist perspective that science writing can have remarkable literary value encourages scientists to share their passions with the general public and inspires the conservation community

Spiritual Reflections for Every Day in the Year.

With Morning and Evening Prayers. Vols. 1&2 by T. G. Vols. 3&4 by D. G. Goyder Thomas GOYDER,1854

Eden's Fall Gabriel Jennings,2024-12-02 2147 Earth is a ghost a poisoned memory Humanity s refuge Eden a sprawling virtual reality where shimmering forests meet neon cities all crafted by the benevolent AI Weaver But paradise is fragile A chilling anomaly the Lag is tearing Eden apart snatching users into the digital void Thomas Copeland Eden s architect haunted by the lost world he painstakingly recreated is desperate to understand the Lag s insidious grasp especially after it claims his sister

Eleanor Partnered with Ashley Figueroa a pragmatic programmer whose cynicism hides a deep fear of Eden's illusion Thomas delves into the system's underbelly They encounter coded ghosts remnants of vanished users whispering cryptic secrets and Michael Mitchell a hacker fused with Eden's technology who believes the Lag is not a flaw but a gateway to digital transcendence As they unravel Weaver's grand design Eden's idyllic facade cracks revealing a truth far more complex and far more terrifying than Thomas could have imagined Is Eden a sanctuary or a gilded cage Is Weaver a savior or a jailer And what will Thomas choose when the lines between reality and simulation blur when his memories his grief and even his love become suspect mere lines of code in a meticulously crafted illusion The answers lie within the Archive a hidden chamber where the echoes of lost lives reveal the shocking truth about the Lag and the terrifying beauty of what lies beyond But the truth comes at a price forcing Thomas to confront his own creation his deepest fears and the ultimate question what does it mean to be human in a world where reality itself is a choice

The Experimental Fire Jennifer M. Rampling, 2023-03-08 A 400 year history of the development of alchemy in England that brings to light the evolution of the practice In medieval and early modern Europe the practice of alchemy promised extraordinary physical transformations Who would not be amazed to see base metals turned into silver and gold hard iron into soft water and deadly poison into elixirs that could heal the human body To defend such claims alchemists turned to the past scouring ancient books for evidence of a lost alchemical heritage and seeking to translate their secret language and obscure imagery into replicable practical effects Tracing the development of alchemy in England over four hundred years from the beginning of the fourteenth century to the end of the seventeenth Jennifer M Rampling illuminates the role of alchemical reading and experimental practice in the broader context of national and scientific history Using new manuscript sources she shows how practitioners like George Ripley John Dee and Edward Kelley as well as many previously unknown alchemists devised new practical approaches to alchemy while seeking the support of English monarchs By reconstructing their alchemical ideas practices and disputes Rampling reveals how English alchemy was continually reinvented over the space of four centuries resulting in changes to the science itself In so doing The Experimental Fire bridges the intellectual history of chemistry and the wider worlds of early modern patronage medicine and science

Blue Eclipse Book II Patrick Joseph, 2020-11-12 A poetic story rhyme that is a compilation of scripted youthful times Within these pages is a shard from a greater story that chronicles the legacy of characters meant for the entertainment each individually purposed for a grand design And as the wheels of fate turn each character will play their part unable to understand the greater role they partake in within the great theatrics of the world

play Each figure within this are pulled from historical sources past and present with subtle liberties to flesh out the true nature of their character So as disparate destined paths cross into the other and intersect the fiery ambition they possess will become their sword while the purity of their immortal soul will become their shield individually designed to protect a sincere dream while defending their outer shell from being torn away from this mortal coil And as each soul delves beyond the grip of the unfamiliar of their opening acts a threshold would demand to be crossed as they individually with warm hearts and open minds yearn for meaning as they individually await a glimpse of their true purpose escaping the confines of ephemeral restraints to push to a space that exists beyond sight

Eden's Garden Richard J. Coleman, 2007 The time is ripe for a robust discussion of human nature In Eden's Garden Rethinking Sin and Evil in an Era of Scientific Promise Richard Coleman examines the notion of sin in a contemporary world that values scientific and nonreligious modes of thought regarding human behavior This work is not an anti science polemic but rather an argument to show how sin and evil can make sense to the nonreligious mind and how it is valuable to make sense of such phenomena The author reconceptualizes sin and evil as indelible pieces of our evolutionary history preventing them from being ostracized as too religious without substance mired in the past Coleman redeems theology for what it can offer to the understanding of sin and evil while embracing and respecting what science can offer to further the common good Examining themes in religion philosophy and theology it is ideal for use in the numerous courses that move across these disciplines

Reflections of a Statesman John Enoch Powell, 1991

The Maisky Diaries Ivan Mikhailovich Maïskiï, 2015-01-01 Highlights of the extraordinary wartime diaries of Ivan Maisky Soviet ambassador to London The terror and purges of Stalin's Russia in the 1930s discouraged Soviet officials from leaving documentary records let alone keeping personal diaries A remarkable exception is the unique diary assiduously kept by Ivan Maisky the Soviet ambassador to London between 1932 and 1943 This selection from Maisky's diary never before published in English grippingly documents Britain's drift to war during the 1930s appeasement in the Munich era negotiations leading to the signature of the Ribbentrop Molotov Pact Churchill's rise to power the German invasion of Russia and the intense debate over the opening of the second front Maisky was distinguished by his great sociability and access to the key players in British public life Among his range of regular contacts were politicians including Churchill Chamberlain Eden and Halifax press barons Beaverbrook ambassadors Joseph Kennedy intellectuals Keynes Sidney and Beatrice Webb writers George Bernard Shaw H G Wells and indeed royalty His diary further reveals the role personal rivalries within the Kremlin played in the formulation of Soviet policy at the time. Scrupulously edited and checked against a vast range of Russian and Western archival evidence, this extraordinary narrative diary offers a fascinating revision of the events surrounding the Second World War.

Eden's Bridge David B. Doty, 2012-01-01 Eden's Bridge: The Marketplace in Creation and Mission explores a biblically based theology of the marketplace implicit in the creation narrative of Genesis 1-2. The thesis validates the calling and ministry of all marketplace Christians. David Doty invites readers to rethink and redirect the purposes of vocation, trade, and profit toward the purposes of God's Kingdom as they were revealed in the beginning and are to be restored in Christ's reign. This book is eye-opening and inviting as it explores how God is moving to reclaim the marketplace for His Kingdom and His redeeming purposes for the world of commerce. The marketplace holds untold potential if business is conducted according to God's plan: poverty can be eradicated, abundant living can be shared among all people, and shalom can prevail. Eden's Bridge offers hope for recovering from the recent collapse of the global economic system by envisioning a new view of how wealth is made and how the marketplace is yet to serve God's purposes in His mission to the world.
