Refugee Community Organisations And Dispersal:

Refugee Community Organisations and Dispersal David Griffiths, Nando Sigona, Roger Zetter, 2005-10-05 Despite increased political and public interest in asylum issues in the UK little has been written on the topic This book written by leading experts in the field is the first to examine the role of refugee community organisations RCOs at a critical point of policy change The book is distinctive in combining theoretical discussion on the role of networks resources and social capital with fieldwork evidence and interviews with members of RCOs non governmental organisations NGOs and statutory authorities It critically examines the impact of dispersal and current legislative change on refugee communities and RCOs explores the integrative role of RCOs assesses the race relations framework in Britain and its effects on refugee organisations and provides a thorough and up to date literature review Refugee community organisations and dispersal is essential reading for practitioners and policy makers academics researchers and students of social policy social geography sociology and politics Members of NGOs working with refugees or in local government community workers and members of refugee communities themselves will also be keenly interested in the book Comparative issues raised by the research will be of direct interest to readers in other countries David Griffiths is a Research Fellow at Oxford Brookes University UK His research interests include British and European asylum policy Nando Sigona is a Research Associate at Oxford Brookes University His research interests include Roma refugees in Europe Roger Zetter is Deputy Head in the Department of Planning Oxford Brookes University His research interests include refugees and public policy

Community Groups in Context Angus McCabe, Jenny Phillimore, 2017-03-15 In the past decade community groups have been portrayed as the solution to many social problems Yet the role of below the regulatory radar community action has received little research attention and thus is poorly understood in terms of both policy and practice Focusing on self organised community activity this book offers the first collection of papers developing theoretical and empirically grounded knowledge of the informal unregistered yet largest part of the voluntary sector The collection includes work from leading academics activists policy makers and practitioners offering a new and coherent understanding of community action below the radar The book is part of the Third Sector Research Series which is informed by research undertaken at the Third Sector Research Centre funded by the Economic and Social Research Council and Barrow Cadbury Trust Spreading the 'burden'? Robinson, Vaughan, Andersson, Roger, 2003-07-30 European governments are now engaging in one of the largest exercises in social engineering that the continent has seen since the Second World War Hundreds of thousands of asylum seekers and refugees in Europe are now being denied their basic right to choose where they live and are instead being compulsorily dispersed Spreading the burden is the first book length study of dispersal policies explicitly comparative in nature and written by three national experts highly topical and controversial as the review of dispersal policies is under way in many countries a valuable case study of how society deals with outsider groups and space The book is essential reading for national and local policy makers those interested in human rights social policy and refugee studies as well as human geographers and sociologists

Displacement, Asylum and the City René Kreichauf, Birgit Glorius, 2023-05-22 This edited volume draws attention to the interlinked yet understudied relationship between the role of cities in dealing with international displacement and forced migration and the influence of forced migration in stimulating spatial societal and institutional transformations in and of cities In 2022 almost 84 million people worldwide were forcibly displaced More than two thirds of them reside in urban areas Displacement and forced migration are an urban experience and an urban story of those seeking protection This book helps us understanding the conditions of displaced population in cities and the way cities and urban actors respond to recent migration trends It applies an urban perspective to the analysis of migration processes and it provides insights into the urban governance of forced migration and asylum the production of spaces related to forced migration and the role of the displaced population as actors of urban change Thereby it covers a broad spectrum of topics including migrant dispersal welfare and social protection urban humanitarian policymaking and governance neighbourhood development migrant solidarity and refugee protest and new refugee and migrant destinations Given the increasing mobility and displacement of human populations this book provides a relevant prerequisite for readers interested in current urban forced migration and asylum trends and on the intersections of those topics The book will be of great value to researchers and academics of Geography Migration and Urban Studies The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Urban Geography

Towards Understanding Community C. Clay, M. Madden, L. Potts, 2007-11-09 Written in the temporal and political context of the British New Labour Government's ongoing reliance on the word community academics and activists critically engage here with the range of ways in which contemporary ideas of community are being used and contested The key focus is on understanding community from action into theory and vice versa The Oxford Handbook of Refugee and Forced Migration Studies Elena Fiddian-Qasmiyeh, Gil Loescher, Katy Long, Nando Sigona, 2014-06-12 Refugee and Forced Migration Studies has grown from being a concern of a relatively small number of scholars and policy researchers in the 1980s to a global field of interest with thousands of students worldwide studying displacement either from traditional disciplinary perspectives or as a core component of newer programmes across the Humanities and Social and Political Sciences Today the field encompasses both rigorous academic research which may or may not ultimately inform policy and practice as well as action research focused on advocating in favour of refugees needs and rights This authoritative Handbook critically evaluates the birth and development of Refugee and Forced Migration Studies and analyses the key contemporary and future challenges faced by academics and practitioners working with and for forcibly displaced populations around the world The 52 state of the art chapters written by leading academics practitioners and policymakers working in universities research centres think tanks NGOs and international organizations provide a comprehensive and cutting edge overview of the key intellectual political social and institutional challenges arising from mass displacement in the world today The chapters vividly illustrate the vibrant and engaging debates that characterize this rapidly expanding field of research and practice The Crux of Refugee Resettlement Andrew Nelson,Alexander Rödlach,Roos Willems,2018-12-13 While the world s refugee population reaches record high numbers countries offering third country resettlement are increasingly shifting toward policies of exclusion and austerity This edited volume envisions a more humane future for refugee resettlement Combining anthropology with a variety of professional perspectives education health care theology administration politics and social work ethnography is used to demonstrate the efficacy of programs and interventions that create and nurture social capital in culturally specific and accessible ways The contributors present case studies of resettlement in the United States England Australia and Canada and contend that social networks have an essential role are the crux in the reconfigurations of refugee well being belonging and place making vis vis the bureaucratic limitations of state and institutional factors This book includes short contributions from refugees representatives of resettlement organizations and government officials including Jhuma N Acharya Bimala Bastola Khada Bhandari Kiri Hata Govin Magar Madhu Neupane Natacha Nikokeza Angela K Plummer Lance Rasbridge Chris Sunderlin David Thatcher and John Tluang The Exclusionary Politics of Asylum V. Squire,2016-01-12 This critique of the securitization and criminalization of asylum seeking challenges the claim that asylum seekers threaten receiving states It analyzes recent policy developments in relation to their wider historical political and European contexts and argues that the UK response effectively renders asylum seekers as scapegoats
