 James Whitcomb Riley is a collection of poems about the midwestern United States Excerpt We must get home How could we stray like this So far from home we know not where it is Only in some fair apple blossomy place Of children s faces and the mother s face We dimly dream it till the vision clears Even in the eyes of fancy glad with tears We must get home for we have been away So long it seems forever and a day And O so very homesick we have grown The laughter of the world is like a moan In our tired hearing and its song as vain We must get home we must get home again James Whitcomb Riley October 7 1849 July 22 1916 was an American writer poet and best selling author During his lifetime he was known as the Hoosier Poet and Children s Poet for his dialect works and his children s poetry respectively His poems tended to be humorous or sentimental and of the approximately one thousand poems that Riley authored the majority are in dialect James Whitcomb Riley - Love-Lyrics & Songs of Home James Whitcomb Riley, 2017-09-20 Poet and author James Whitcomb Riley was born on October 7th 1849 in Greenfield Indiana Better known as the Hoosier Poet for his work with regional dialects and also as the Children s Poet Riley was born into an influential and well off family However his education was spotty but he was surrounded by creativity which was to stand him in good stead later in life His early career was a series of low paid temporary jobs After stints as a journalist and billboard proprietor he had the resources to dedicate more of his efforts to writing Riley was prone to drink which was to affect his health and later his career but after a slow start and a lot of submissions he began to gain traction first in newspapers and then with the publication of his dialect poems Boone County Poems he came to national recognition This propelled him to long term contracts to perform on speaking circuits These were very successful but over the years his star waned In 1888 he was too drunk to perform and the ensuing publicity made everything seem very bleak for a while However he overcame that and managed to re negotiate his contracts so that he received his rightful share of the income and his wealth thereafter increased very quickly A bachelor Riley seems to have his writings as his only outlet and although in his public performances he was well received his publications were becoming seen as banal and repetitive and sales of these later works began to fall away Eventually after his last tour in 1895 he retired to spend his final years in Indianapolis writing patriotic poetry Now in poor health weakened by years of heavy drinking Riley the Hoosier Poet died on July 23 1916 of a stroke In a final unusual tribute Riley lay in state for a day in the Indiana Statehouse where thousands came to pay their respects Not since Lincoln had a public personage received such a send off He is buried at Crown Hill Cemetery in Indianapolis
